TALKING POINTS

• The game will kick off the 124th season of football at Arkansas and the fifth under head coach Bret Bielema. The Razorbacks enter 2017 with an all-time record of 709-486-40 (.590).

• It marks the first time since 2001 that Arkansas will open the season on a Thursday night. Arkansas defeated UNLV in its 2001 season opener. It will also be the program's first Thursday night game since 2003 when Arkansas took down South Carolina, 28-6. Both of those games were played at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock.

• Arkansas is 2-1 in regular-season games on Thursday night since joining the SEC 25 years ago.

• It will be the first-ever meeting between Arkansas and Florida A&M and the first time since 2009 that the Hogs open the season at War Memorial Stadium.

• Florida A&M will be the 12th FCS opponent head coach Bret Bielema has faced during his 11-year head coaching career. He is 11-0 in those contests.

• Bret Bielema has a staggering 40-4 record against non-conference opponents during the regular season over his 11-year head-coaching career. Bielema is 10-1 all-time in season-opening games as a head coach at Wisconsin (7-0) and Arkansas (3-1). Additionally, Bielema has never lost a home opener during his career, posting an 11-0 mark in the first home game of the season.

• Arkansas is 96-23-4 all-time in season openers and has taken 18 of its last 20. The Razorbacks have also won 10 consecutive home openers and are 99-20-4 (.821) overall in the first home game of the season. In the past 10 home openers, Arkansas has outscored its opponents by an average of 44.2-14.8.

• The Hogs return 19 letterwinners on offense with six starters, including the SEC's leading passer from last year in Austin Allen and All-American center Frank Ragnow.

• A first-team All-American by Pro Football Focus in 2016, Ragnow has made 26 straight starts heading into his senior campaign. He was also named the nation's best offensive lineman and best run blocker by PFF last season.

• Allen, who is back for his senior campaign and second season as the starting signal caller, took the reins at QB from his older brother Brandon a year ago and immediately made his mark. He led the SEC with 3,430 passing yards, including a league-best 2,291 in conference play and finished with 25 touchdown passes, which ranked second in the conference.

• One of Allen's top targets will be senior Jared Cornelius, the veteran of the receiving corps. Highlighted by three straight 100-plus yard receiving performances, Cornelius recorded 32 receptions for 515 yards and four touchdown catches, while adding a rushing score, last season.

• After backing up regular-season rushing champion Rawleigh Williams III last season, sophomore Devwah Whaley will be counted on for more carries in 2017 and looks to become the featured running back in the Razorbacks' offensive attack. Whaley rushed for 602 yards and three touchdowns on 110 carries in 13 games played a year ago.

• Led by new defensive coordinator Paul Rhoads, the Razorbacks' 2017 defense will feature a new 3-4 scheme. Defensively, Arkansas returns 23 letterwinners, including five starters. Led by captains Santos Ramirez and Kevin Richardson II, the secondary is arguably the most veteran unit on the roster, having combined for 84 starts heading into this season.

• Rhoads' defense also includes Butkus Award candidate middle linebacker Dre Greenlaw, a freshman All-American in 2015 who played only seven games last year due to injury, cornerback Ryan Pulley, who tallied the second-most pass breakups in the SEC, and 2016 SEC All-Freshman Team selections defensive lineman McTelvin Agim and middle linebacker DeJon Harris.

LAST YEAR IN LITTLE ROCK VS. ALCORN STATE, JARED CORNELIUS HAD 2 TD CATCHES AND 106 YARDS RECEIVING.

LAST TIME HOGS OPENED SEASON ON THURSDAY IN LITTLE ROCK

Sophomore tailback Cedric Cobbs scored on a 1-yard run with 18 seconds remaining to lead the Razorbacks to a 14-10 victory over UNLV in front of 52,213 fans and a national ESPN audience on a Thursday night at War Memorial Stadium.

In a defensive struggle, Arkansas earned 49 of its 114 total yards on its final drive. With 1:53 to play, the Razorbacks had just 65 yards of offense and had played four different quarterbacks. A fumbled punt snap by UNLV gave the Hogs possession at midfield. Ryan Sorahan, the second quarterback to get in the game, was called on for the final drive.

Following two incompletions, and a 5-yard run by Brandon Holmes, Sorahan hit Steven Harris for a 7-yard gain on fourth down. After three more incompletions, he found Sam Breeden for 13 yards to the UNLV 24. On second-and-10, he connected with Richard Smith who spun away from one tackler and was knocked down at the UNLV 1. Cobbs scored on first down.

Prior to the last drive, Lawrence Richardson was the Hogs' sole offense, scoring on a 45-yard interception return to get the Razorbacks within 10-7 with 11:58 to play in the third quarter. Ken Hamlin also had an interception, to go with nine tackles and a fumble recovery. Sophomore linebacker Caleb Miller had 12 stops and an interception.

Sorahan finished 7 of 16 for 62 yards with one interception. Starter Zak Clark was 5 of 15 for 27 yards. Freshman Tavaris Jackson was 0 of 1 and the fourth quarterback for the Hogs. Gerald Howard, lost nine yards on two option carries. Arkansas had just five first downs with four coming on the final possession.

The Rebels took a 3-0 first-quarter lead on a 27-yard field goal and extended the lead to 10-0 in the second quarter on a 6-yard passing touchdown. UNLV missed two 29-yard field goal attempts with 1:29 left in the third quarter and 11:44 to go in the fourth. UNLV had 298 yards of offense. Cobbs was the Razorbacks' top rusher with 29 yards on 13 rushes. Smith finished with five catches for 47 yards.

#PROSTYLEU

Arkansas has been one of the most balanced offenses in the nation over the last two seasons under offensive coordinator Dan Enos. In fact, Arkansas and Boise State were the only two FBS teams to have a 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rusher in each of the last two seasons. Even more impressive, Arkansas was the only school that accomplished the feat with two different quarterbacks and two different running backs.

The combo of a 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rusher has been accomplished three times in Arkansas' program history (2010, 15, 16) with two coming under Enos the last two years.

Arkansas was one of 14 FBS programs with a 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rusher in 2016 and one of just nine FBS programs with a different 3,000-yard passer in 2015 and 2016.

Brandon Allen (2015) and Austin Allen (2016) each passed for 3,000 yards in the last two seasons. The only other time two different Arkansas quarterbacks threw for 3,000 yards in consecutive seasons came in 2010 (Ryan Mallett) and 2011 (Tyler Wilson).

Arkansas was one of just four FBS programs with a different 1,300-yard rusher in 2015 and 2016. It was just the second time Arkansas had a 1,300-yard rusher in back-to-back seasons and the first time two different players accounted for 1,300 yards rushing in consecutive seasons. Darren McFadden rushed for over 1,300 yards in 2006 and 2007.

A PERFECT FIT FOR #RBU

Prior to the 2014 season, ESPN.com donned Arkansas as RBU of the 2000s. Bret Bielema is a perfect fit to continue that legacy and currently is the only active FBS head coach with a 1,000-yard rusher in each of the last 11 seasons (2006-Present).

WHALEY'S LAST TIME IN LITTLE ROCK

Against Alcorn State in Little Rock last season, Devwah Whaley burst onto the scene with a season-high 135 yards and a touchdown on nine carries to average 15.0 yards per carry. Whaley dashed 75 yards for a TD on his first touch of the game in the first quarter.

His 135 yards were the most by a Razorback freshman since Alex Collins rushed for 172 yards against Samford in 2013, while his 75-yard score was the team's longest play of the season and the longest scoring rush by a freshman running back in school history since Felix Jones scored from 80-yards out against Missouri State in 2005.

ZERO TO 100

Prior to 2016, Jared Cornelius had never totaled 100 or more yards receiving in a single game. After logging 100-plus yards through the air in Weeks 4, 5 and 6, Cornelius matched a 20-year old school record of three straight 100-yard receiving games. Cornelius totaled a career-high 146 yards on five receptions against No. 1 Alabama in Week 6 to join former Razorbacks Anthony Lucas (1996) and Mike Reppond (1971) as the only three players in school history to accomplish that feat. His three games over the century mark through the air tied for fourth in the SEC.

Cornelius followed up that performance with three catches for 40 yards and lifted the Razorbacks to a 34-30 victory over No. 12 Ole Miss with a 6-yard TD run late in the fourth quarter.

His three games over the century mark through the air are tied for second in the SEC. For the season, Cornelius has 27 receptions for 480 yards and four TDs.

RHOADS PROMOTED TO DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Bret Bielema officially announced the promotion of Paul Rhoads to defensive coordinator on Feb. 18. A native of Ankeny, Iowa, Rhoads served as defensive backs coach during his first season with the Razorbacks in 2016.

Over his nine combined seasons as a defensive coordinator at Auburn (2008) and Pittsburgh (2000-07), Rhoads' units ranked in the top 30 nationally in scoring defense six times and the top 12 for fewest yards three times.

This will be Rhoads' third stint as a defensive coordinator and second in the SEC. Prior to joining Bielema's staff last February, Rhoads spent 16 years as either a head coach or defensive coordinator at Iowa State, Pittsburgh and Auburn, including the previous seven seasons (2009-15) as Iowa State's head coach.

Rhoads has been a part of 10 bowl games and has mentored six defensive backs that have been selected in the NFL Draft, highlighted by seven-time Pro Bowl selection and 2009 AFC Defensive Player of the Year Darrelle Revis. Revis was the 14th overall pick by the New York Jets in 2007 after playing for coach Rhoads when he was the DC at Pittsburgh.

BIELEMA WELCOMES ASSISTANTS WALKER AND SCOTT

Making the transition to a 3-4 defense this offseason, Bret Bielema turned to the NFL to fill his defensive line coach opening, hiring New York Jets defensive line assistant coach John Scott Jr., on Feb. 7.

Scott Jr. spent the last two seasons with the Jets, beginning as a defensive quality control coach in 2015 before being promoted to defensive line assistant coach. Prior to his time in the NFL, Scott Jr. spent time as a defensive line or outside linebackers coach at Texas Tech, Georgia Southern, Missouri State, Norfolk State and his alma mater Western Carolina.

Bielema turned to the NFL for the second time that week to complete his coaching staff, naming Atlanta Falcons defensive assistant/defensive backs coach Chad Walker the program's outside linebackers coach on Feb. 10.

Less than a week removed from coaching in Super Bowl LI, Walker came to Arkansas after spending the last two seasons with the Falcons. His two-year run in Atlanta was his second stint in the NFL after spending three seasons with the Miami Dolphins from 2005-07 as a defensive quality control coach.

Walker's coaching career started as a graduate assistant at Louisiana-Monroe and West Virginia before returning to his home state where he was a defensive assistant on LSU's 2003 National Championship team. The New Orleans native's collegiate coaching background also includes three years at Bryant University (2008-10), three years as DC at Mississippi College (2011-12) and two years as defensive quality control assistant at Oklahoma (2013-14).

MAKING THE GRADE

Arkansas led the conference with 40 student-athletes on the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll in 2015 and repeated as the league-leader in 2016 with 39 honorees.

Arkansas leads the SEC with 139 Fall Academic Honor Roll selections since Bret Bielema took over in 2013, good for 12 more than the next closest school.

The 40 honorees in 2015 are the most by an SEC football program since coach Bielema joined the league, while 2016's total of 39 was the second-highest mark.

Also had nine on the 2017 SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll, which was fourth-most in the league.

Arkansas led the SEC with five National Football Foundation (NFF) Hampshire Honor Society selections in 2017 (Dan Skipper, Brooks Ellis, Toby Baker, Jared Collins, Adam McFain), which was good for a tie for seventh nationally.

Linebacker Brooks Ellis was the only William V. Campbell Trophy finalist from the SEC in 2016. The Campbell Trophy is regarded as the Academic Heisman of college football.

Ellis is the only two-time Academic All-American in program history and became the first Razorback to be named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year since the award was created in 2003.

HEAD COACH BRET BIELEMA AT A GLANCE . . .

The University of Arkansas captivated the college football world by naming Bret Bielema the 32nd head coach in Razorback history in December 2012. Since arriving in Fayetteville, Bielema, who enters his fifth season on The Hill, has in turn captivated the passionate Razorback fan base and the state with the culture he is creating and the standards he is holding the program to.

Backed by his "Five Edges" to success, Bielema represented the qualities Arkansas was looking for: a leader of young men who holds student-athletes responsible both on and off the field and a coach who has a proven record of winning championships.

Over his 11 seasons as a head coach, Bielema has won three conference championships and coached 15 first-team All-Americans, numerous award winners, 42 NFL Draft picks and NFL superstars. Among the NFL players coached by Bielema are three-time Defensive Player of the Year J.J. Watt, Super Bowl winning quarterback Russell Wilson and No. 1 overall draft pick and 10-time Pro Bowler Joe Thomas.

Since his arrival and over 51 games, Bielema, who is the only head coach in Arkansas history to win back-to-back bowl games, has dramatically changed the direction of the program. From his first 20 games as head coach to his most recent 20, Arkansas has gone from tied for 14th in the SEC in wins over that span to a tie for fourth with a 13-7 mark. His three straight winning seasons at Arkansas have featured seven wins over ranked teams, including five against top 15 opponents, and three on the road.

Arkansas' pro-style offense has produced a different 3,000-yard passer each of the last two seasons, making it one of just nine FBS programs to do so, while Bielema has had a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his 11 seasons as a head coach. In fact, the Razorbacks are the only FBS program to have a different quarterback pass for 3,000 yards and a different running back go for 1,300 yards on the ground in each of the last two years.

Entering his second season at the helm of the Razorbacks' offense, senior quarterback Austin Allen will make his 14th career start Thursday night. It will be the 48th straight start at quarterback by a member of the Allen family. Austin's older brother, Brandon, made 38 career starts from 2013-15, including his final 34 games - the longest streak by an Arkansas quarterback since the Razorbacks joined the SEC in 1992.
