TIPOFF

- In the first game of the season, the Demons set multiple school records in a 120-40 win over Ecclesia to earn Alan Frey the first win of his head coaching career
- NSU broke the school records for 3-pointers made in a game (20) and most points scored in a quarter (35), as well as sophomore Chloe Donnell making an NCAA record-tying 14 3-pointers en route to 46 points.
- Demons are 3-14 against Arkansas all-time with the last game being a 99-39 loss in Fayetteville in 2019.
- While it wasn't a school record, the Demons dished out 38 assists in the win over Ecclesia, the most assists for the program this millennium.
- NSU brought in 11 new players, three freshmen and eight transfers, including KP Parr, who played significant minutes at both Wichita State and Texas State
- New head coach Alan Frey is in his first season with NSU and is the ninth coach whose first Division I head coaching job was at NSU
- NSU has a difficult non-conference slate once again, as the Demons play four power conference teams in non-conference, playing three from the SEC--Arkansas, Oklahoma and LSU--as well as Oklahoma State.

NOTES ON THE HOGS

- In Arkansas' dominating win over Southland opponent LSU New Orleans, the Razorbacks forced 51 turnovers and held the Privateers to under 32 percent shooting from the field and without a 3-point make

SHOOTING STAR

• Chloe Donnell's 46 points are the third-most in program history, only trailing Pam Hudson's 48 in 1990 and Linda Grayson's 47 in 1988. Both Hudson and Grayson's numbers are retired by NSU.
• Donnell had eight points all season as a freshman at South Alabama, averaging 0.7 points per game.
• Chloe's previous career high was just four points, scored on four free throws in the dominant win over Florida A&M last season.
• Her 14 3-pointers tied an NCAA record, matching the 14 buried by Baylor's Juicy Landrum in 2019 against Arkansas State.
• Chloe was featured on stories on Yahoo, ESPN, NCAA March Madness, USA Today after her record performance.

RETURNING DEMONS

• The Demons bring back four players from last year: Stephie Salumu, Mina Kassim, Payton Miller and Cimiya Rideaux
• Payton Miller was one of five players on NSU last season to make double digit 3-pointers, as she made 12, including going 3-5 vs. Ecclesia and 2-3 at New Orleans.
• Stephie Salumu does all the little things. She showed her talent in the win at Houston Christian when she scored 12 points and grabbed nine rebounds, along with recording one assist and two blocks.
• In last year's meeting with Ecclesia, Mina Kassim posted a career-high nine points in 12 minutes. She also made a big impact with four points, two boards and a steal in the comeback win over East Texas A&M in the Southland Conference Tournament.
• The lone Louisiana native on last season's team, Cimiya Rideaux spearheaded the comeback win over East Texas A&M in the Southland Conference Tournament last season with 10 points on 4-7 shooting, also grabbing a pair of rebounds.

LOUISIANA HIGH SCHOOL BEAST

• French Settlement High product Stella Allison is a high-profile recruit Northwestern State, as she was an All-State player all four seasons.
• In her first career game, she hauled down 15 rebounds and dished out five assists. Her 15 rebounds were the most in the Southland Conference through the first game of the season.
• Averaged 21 points, five rebounds, four assists and two steals per game as a senior, which earned her All-State First Team and district MVP
• LHSAA All Tournament Team Most Outstanding Performer
• First Team All-District and First Team All-Parish final three seasons, member of All-Metro Team as a and Livingston Parish MVP as a senior
• Averaged 19 points, six rebounds, four assists and two steals per game as a junior, 18 points and four assists per game as a sophomore and 17 points per game as a freshman

YOU GET AN ASSIST.....YOU GET AN ASSIST

• Northwestern State's 38 assists are the most this millennium and the most in the conference through one game, three ahead of Stephen F. Austin
• The Demons have the top two assist players in the league, as KP Parr (11) and Karma Wynn (9) combined for 20 helpers in the dominant victory with an incredible 20:1 assist-to-turnover ratio.
• Nine of the 10 players who saw action recorded at least one assist, with eight of those nine posting multiple assists.
• Stella Allison recorded five assists and Chloe Donnell picked up four assists, as four players posted at least four assists.
• This is the first time NSU has had at least three players with 5+ assists since it had four players with at least five assists in the 82-62 victory over Southeastern Louisiana in 2016.

BRINGING IN HEIGHT

• After losing Vee Atamah, Clarence Djuela and Dasia Turner, the Demons brought in size in the former of the 6-3 Delora Pricop and 6-3 Erica Carr, who both are likely to be key contributors.

• Like last season, no one on the team outside of the point guards are under the height of 5-7.

• In addition to the players brought in who are tall, the Demons retained four of the taller players on the team, none of which are shorter than 5-10: Cimiya Rideaux (6-3), Stephie Salumu (6-0), Payton Miller (5-11) and Mina Kassim (5-10).

KEEPING IT LOCAL

• Outside of the six foreign athletes on the team, the other nine hail from three states--Texas (6), Louisiana (2) and Alabama (1).

• Last season, NSU had eight states represented on the team, ranging from California (Mika Jarrett) to Louisiana (Cimiya Rideaux) to Illinois (Noelle Lavery) and Ohio (Dasia Turner).

• Six of the nine United States born athletes are from towns within a four-hour drive from Natchitoches.

• With all the local kids, it makes sense that the Demons won't step foot outside of Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas or Oklahoma this season.

CHALLENGING ITSELF

• NSU is no stranger to challenging itself during non-conference play and this season is certainly no different.

• The Demons are playing four games against power four opponents, including three from the SEC: Arkansas, Oklahoma and a big time home game against LSU. NSU also plays against Big 12 opponent Oklahoma State.

• NSU plays multiple games in the non-conference slate that open up the season in the top 25 in both LSU and Oklahoma State, which rank ninth and 22nd in the preseason poll, respectively.

• In addition to the two ranked opponents, NSU also plays Louisiana Tech in the and the Lady Techsters finished last season 24th in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25.

REPLACING VEE

• Moving on is Southland Conference Player of the Year Vernell Atamah after her transfer to Vanderbilt, who averaged 19.2 points per game, which is most by a Demon since Beatrice Attura's 20.6 in 2016-17.

• Atamah buried 93 3-pointers, as the Demons broke the school record for 3s in a season with 236.

• She was the fifth player in program history to score 600 pts in a season and first since Attura in 2016-17. Atamah was also the fourth player in program history to ever have 600 pts and 200 rebounds in the same season and the first since Pam Hudson in 1989-90.

• Erica Carr, coming over from San Diego, could play a role in replacing Atamah, as she showed her scoring ability in her 15 games played.

REPLACING THE SHOOTING

• The 3-point line is where NSU did a lot of damage last season, but lost four its top four in 3-point shooting in terms of makes, led by SLC Player of the Year Vernell Atamah, who made a school-record 93. All-Conference point guard Nya Valentine is also in the 10 for single season 3-pointers with 78.

• Northeastern JC transfer guard Yaly Ben Harush can help with some of that, as she has a reputation as a sharp shooter. She buried seven 3-pointers in a win over Northwest College and she shot 40 percent from deep in high school at Kiryat Sharet High.

• Hutchinson CC transfer Delora Pricop has the ability to stretch defenses with her perimeter shooting, as she made 35.1 percent from deep last year, and can force defenses to cover the perimeter against her.

DEMONS AROUND THE GLOBE

• The reach of Northwestern State women's basketball has expanded tremendously over the past few seasons.

• In head coach Alan Frey's first season, NSU has a roster filled with players from three states and six foreign countries, one of the most diverse in program history.

• In addition to the three states, the countries represented are Austria (Chiara Pavitsits), Belgium (Stephie Salumu), Canada (Becca Milon), Israel (Yaly Ben Harush), Romania (Delora Pricop) and Venezuela (Val Montero).

• Both Texas and Louisiana have multiple players on the roster, led by six from the state of Texas.

• The six players from Texas are the most from the Lonestar State since NSU had eight in the 2019-20 season.

• With the addition of freshman Stella Allison, Louisiana now has two players on the roster, the first time it has had two Pelican State players on the roster since 2024-25.

• Despite its relatively close proximity, Karma Wynn is just the fourth player from the state of Alabama to play for the Lady Demons.

NEW TEAM...NEW YEAR

• The Demons have brought in 11 new players this season, including eight transfers.

• After losing many veterans on the team from a season ago, Frey brought in eight transfers, with all eight of those players being at least a junior in eligibility.

• NSU has had at least eight new players join the program in each of the past five seasons.

Breakdown of 47 NSU newcomers by previous school

Division I	Division II	Division III	JUCO	NAIA	Freshman
18	2	1	17	3	17

• The most Division I transfers in a single class was five prior to the 21-22 season.

• Under new head coach Alan Frey, he focused on players who have played at the DI level before. The Demons brought in five players directly from Division I schools (Chloe Donnell, KP Parr, India McMahon, Erica Carr and Becca Milon) and two more (Yaly Ben Harush and Karma Wynn) who also have played DI previously.

• NSU has brought in three freshmen, with two being international students in Val Montero and Chiara "Kiki" Pavitsits. He also brought in French Settlement native Stella Allison, who was an All-State player in high school.

• Despite being just to the north of the United States, Becca Milon is the first Canadian to play for the Demons.

GET YOUR START HERE

• First-year head coach Alan Frey joined the list of head coaches in Lady Demon history when he accepted the job at NSU prior to the 2026-27 season..

• He is the eighth coach to get their first Division I head job at Northwestern State.

• He joins the list along with Pat Nolen Pierson, James Smith, Jennifer Graf, Brooke and Scott Stoehr, Jordan Dupuy, Missy Bilderback and Anna Nimz, the past seven consecutive coaches hired to lead the Demons.

• Smith spent 17 seasons as head coach for the Demons, the most among the list, compiling a 340-155 record with seven SLC Tournament Championship appearances, one Southland title, and five trips to the postseason.

BRINGING IN NEW STAFF

• New coach Alan Frey brought in a new coaching staff filled with youth, led by associate head coach Alex Frazier.

• In 2025-26, she was recognized by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association as a 30 under 30 honoree. The Thirty under 30 program recognizes 30 up-and-coming women's basketball coaches under the age of 30.

• Britta Belanger comes to NSU following three seasons as the head coach at Copiah Lincoln CC, where she led the Lady Wolves to a 43-39 record, improving the team's record every year. She is married to NSU assistant baseball coach Dylan Belanger.

• Harley Cook was an assistant coach at Jacksonville State for one season, as the Gamecocks went 16-16, their best record since 2022-23 and a six-win improvement from the previous season.

• Frey brought in one of his former players, Kolby Morgan, to be an assistant coach and director of basketball operations.

• As a player at Tulane, Morgan was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2024, where she is second in program history in career points with 2,240.

Head Coach Alan Frey • 1st Season

Alan Frey enters his first season as the head coach of the Northwestern State women's basketball team, bringing more than 20 years of elite collegiate coaching experience and a proven championship pedigree to Natchitoches.

Hired in April 2026, Frey is widely recognized as a premier tactical mind and recruiter with deep, lifelong roots in the Louisiana basketball landscape. He continues a long-standing, successful tradition at Northwestern State of appointing elite, first-time Division I head coaches to lead the Lady Demons program, joining an illustrious list that includes Pat Nolen Pierson, James Smith, Jennifer Graf, Brooke and Scott Stoehr, Jordan Dupuy, Missy Bilderback, and Anna Nimz.

Prior to taking the reins at NSU, Frey spent the 2025–26 season as an assistant coach at Loyola University New Orleans. He played a pivotal role in leading the Wolf Pack to a dominant 25-5 overall record, marking a dramatic seven-game improvement over the previous season. Under his guidance, the team earned a berth in the NAIA National Tournament, advancing to the second round.

Frey spent the 2024–25 season on the East Coast at Monmouth University, where he helped engineer a 16-win campaign. The Hawks defended their home court fiercely, capturing 10 home victories, which marked the program's highest home win total since the 2011–12 season. While at Monmouth, he helped guide a roster that included All-CAA selections Damaris Rodriguez (First Team) and Taisha Exanor (Second Team), with Rodriguez becoming the first player in program history in 23 years to earn prestigious All-Metropolitan honors.

Before his recent stops, Frey built an extraordinary legacy over 18 seasons on the sidelines at Tulane University, serving as the lead assistant coach throughout his entire tenure. During his near two-decade run in New Orleans, Frey helped the Green Wave establish themselves as a consistent powerhouse, compiling a stellar 371-229 overall record while transforming in-state talent into collegiate standouts.

Tulane posted winning records in all but two of those seasons, highlighted by a pair of Conference USA regular season titles and a dozen postseason appearances, including a pair of NCAA Tournament berths. Utilizing his extensive connections across the state of Louisiana, he was instrumental in the program's recruiting efforts, notably helping bring current NSU assistant coach Kolby Morgan and former NSU coach Olivia Grayson to Tulane during their remarkable Tulane Hall of Fame careers.

Frey's coaching foundation is built on an unmatched run of success at the grassroots level. A New Orleans native, he was named the 1997 AAU National Coach of the Year and captured five AAU National Championships throughout his decorated club career. He guided his team to a gold medal at the 1996 Junior Olympics. At the state level, Frey's teams completely dominated the circuit, capturing 15 consecutive Louisiana AAU state titles.

Over that 15-year span, Frey's teams amassed an astonishing 79-1 record at the state tournament.

He resides in Natchitoches with his wife, Karen. The couple has three children: Halley, Garrett, and Hayden.
