HEAD COACH KEESHAWN DAVENPORT

Keeshawn Carter Davenport enters her 13th season with the Privateers and fifth as head coach of the women's basketball program.

In 2014-15, Davenport guided the Privateers to a 5-1 finish to the season, which included a road win over eventual tournament champion, Northwestern State in the season finale. Under Davenport's tutelage, Randi Brown became the first Conference Freshman of the Year in program history.

Davenport had to redirect the Privateers program over the past three seasons, taking the job in 2011-12 with only three scholarships. By 2012-13, Davenport had three players named Collegesportsmadness.com Independent Player of the Week: Mechel'le Thomas, Amber Clay, and Keri Thomas.

Davenport's tenure on the coaching staff began when she served in the capacity of a student assistant and graduate assistant for two years. In 2003, the native of Reserve, La. became the first-ever full-time third assistant for the Privateers. Davenport added to her list of 'firsts' when she became the first former UNO women's basketball player to be named head coach, following then-head coach Amy Champion's move to athletic director in 2010.

A four-year letter winner, Davenport saw action in 100 contests and made 32 starts for the Privateers during her undergraduate years on the Lakefront. Davenport averaged 6.1 points and 3.6 rebounds per contest over her career while serving in the role of co-captain during her senior season. Davenport also garnered recognition on the Sun Belt Conference Academic Honor Roll.

In 2005 Davenport received her master's degree in education from UNO with a focus on psychosocial aspects of sport and exercise.

Davenport went to high school at East St. John where she graduated as the all-time leading scorer while guiding the school to its first playoff win and first-ever district title during her senior season. A two-time team captain, Davenport earned All-State and Academic All-State Honorable Mention honors in her senior season and was a three-time all-district selection.

Davenport is married to Deon Davenport, and the couple resides in Kenner, La
