RAZORBACKS RETURN HOME TO HOST REBELS: Arkansas returns home this weekend for a Southeastern Conference Western Division showdown with the Ole Miss Rebels. The Razorbacks have spent the last two weekends on the road earning a win at No. 20 Auburn before dropping a decision at Kentucky last weekend. This weekend's matchup will also mark the return of Ole Miss head coach Houston Nutt. Nutt served as the head coach of Arkansas from 1998-2007.

SERIES HISTORY: Arkansas and Ole Miss will meet for the 55th time on Saturday. Arkansas leads the series but by what record is a matter of discrepancy between the two schools. The Hogs claim a series record of 30-23-1 while Ole Miss has the series 29-24-1 in favor of the Razorbacks. The disagreement stems for the 1914 game played in Little Rock in which Arkansas claims Ole Miss used an ineligible player. The Rebels deny the allegations and count a 13-7 win on the field. As all of the participants in the game are no longer living, it's doubtful that this issue will be resolved any time soon.

The Razorbacks have won six of the last seven meetings between the teams including a 44-8 win in Oxford last season. In fact, the Razorbacks have outscored the Rebels 82-11 in the last two games.

Arkansas leads the series 8-1 in games played in Fayetteville and leads the series 7-6-1 in games played in Little Rock.

Arkansas enjoys a 10-6 advantage in the series since the Hogs joined the SEC in 1992.

OTHER SERIES TIDBITS: Arkansas has outscored Ole Miss 923-784. This is the 55th meeting between the teams and 28th consecutive season in which they have met. There have been 14 shut-outs in the series with Arkansas holding an 8-6 advantage in those games. Not including the tie or disputed game, there have been 20 games decided by a touchdown or less including eight games decided by a field goal or less.

LAST TIME AGAINST OLE MISS (2007): Behind four interceptions and five sacks by the defense and four touchdowns through the air, the Arkansas football team beat Ole Miss, 44-8 in front of 52,671 fans at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

On the ground, juniors Darren McFadden and Felix Jones gained 110 and 101 yards, respectively. The Hogs opened the scoring with a four-play, 68-yard series ended by Jones' sixth rushing touchdown of the season, a 38-yard run up the Arkansas sideline.

After holding the Ole Miss offense to a three-and-out series, the Razorbacks took a 14-0 lead when Jones took the handoff from McFadden and scored his second touchdown of the first quarter on an 11-yard run.

On Ole Miss' next drive, Adrian Davis intercepted a Seth Adams pass and returned it 24 yards to the Mississippi 25-yard line. Arkansas took advantage of the field position and added to its lead after a one-yard touchdown pass from Dick to tight end Andrew Davie. The score was Dick's ninth passing touchdown of the season and the Hogs led 21-0 with 14:04 remaining in the second quarter.

With the Rebels driving and 15 yards from the endzone, Matterral Richardson intercepted an Adams' pass to give the ball back to Arkansas with 3:44 left in the first half. It was Richardson's second interception of the season, and third of his career.

With seven seconds left in the half, Dick threw a deep pass that was intercepted at the six-yard line by the Rebels' Johnny Brown. During the return, Davie was called for a face-mask penalty which gave Ole Miss an un-timed play to end the half. On that play, Adams threw his third interception of the half, which was returned 46 yards by Jerell Norton who was tackled to end the half.

Dick connected with Hillis on a nine-yard score to push the Razorback lead to 28-0. Arkansas drove the ball 50 yards on six plays during the drive and went into the fourth quarter with the shutout intact.

Freshman Alex Tejada added a 32-yard field goal in the fourth quarter. The Hogs' lead was 31-0.

On their next offensive possession, Ole Miss turned the ball over on downs after an unsuccessful fourth down conversion. Four plays later, Dick threw his third touchdown of the day. The junior quarterback rolled out right and threw back left to a wide-open Davie for the 14-yard score. The Razorbacks led 37-0 after the missed extra point.

Ole Miss used an eight-play, 76-yard drive to put its first points on the scoreboard with 6:26 remaining in the game. Quarterback Brent Schaeffer threw a 37-yard touchdown to Mike Wallace. The defensive penalty on the Hogs was declined and after a two-point conversion, Mississippi trailed 37-8.

The Rebels attempted an on-side kick, but the ball was recovered by Arkansas. Nathan Emert replaced Dick at quarterback and threw a 48-yard touchdown to Chris Baker.

LAST TIME AGAINST OLE MISS IN FAYETTEVILLE (2006): Felix Jones got up on the right side of bed early and he got Arkansas up on Ole Miss as the No. 15 Razorbacks won their sixth straight, 38-3 at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium in Fayetteville.

Jones, who entered the game averaging 17.8 yards per return, kick-started the Hogs to their sixth straight win, which is their longest winning streak since the 2002 club won six straight late in the season.

After Jones' return, the UA defense forced a three-and-out and the Hogs went up 14-0 on Darren McFadden's four-yard run. Taking over on its 43, Jones had runs of 11, six and five yards, and McFadden carries of 17, six and the four-yard score. McFadden also had a 15-yard reception from Mitch Mustain.

On the touchdown, McFadden lined as the quarterback in the shotgun with Mustain split wide right. McFadden took the snap and ran up the middle for the score. The Razorbacks led 14-0 after the first quarter, marking the fifth time in seven games the UA defense held its opponent scoreless in the opening period.

It was 21-0 midway through the second when Peyton Hillis dove over the line from a yard out. The score capped a 57-yard drive including two receptions by Hillis for 17 yards and another carry for six yards. Marcus Monk set up the score with a 15-yard catch to the one. Mustain, who was 12-of-15 passing for 157 yards and a touchdown for the game, was three-for-three for 32 yards on the drive.

McFadden, the SEC's leading rusher coming in with 104.2 yards per game, had 65 yards and the touchdown on 17 carries. Jones finished with 51 yards on nine carries.

COACH RETURNS: Ole Miss head coach Houston Nutt returns to Fayetteville in his first year as the head coach of the Rebels after serving the previous 10 seasons as the head coach of the Arkansas Razorbacks. Nutt was 75-48 (.610) as the Hogs' head coach from 1998-2007. He resigned from Arkansas and was already the Rebels' head coach by the time Arkansas played in the 2008 AT&T Cotton Bowl against Missouri. Reggie Herring served as the interim head coach for the Razorbacks against the Tigers.

Nutt's 75 wins at Arkansas ranks second only to Frank Broyles (144). He helped lead the Razorbacks to eight bowl games also second only to Broyles' 10 post-season appearances.

Nutt first arrived at Arkansas as the last scholarship player signed by Broyles before the coaching legend retired following the 1976 season. Nutt played quarterback for the Hogs in 1976-77 before transferring to Oklahoma State. He later returned to Fayetteville as an assistant coach from 1990-92.

1986- The 14th-ranked Razorbacks defeat Houston for the Hogs sixth win in the season.

1997- The Razorbacks lose to the 11th-ranked Tigers of Auburn on a nationally televised game on ESPN2, 26-21.

2003- The 21st-ranked Razorbacks lose to Ole Miss, 19-7, in a nationally televised game.

FAMILIAR FACES: In addition to Houston Nutt, many other members of the Ole Miss' coaching staff are no strangers to Razorback fans. Six members of the Rebels' assistant coaching staff have spent time at Arkansas with four of them serving as assistant coaches with the Razorbacks just last season.

Ole Miss offensive line coach and running game coordinator Mike Markuson served in the same capacity at Arkansas last season and spent a total of 10 seasons (1998-2007) with the Razorbacks. Defensive line coach Tracy Rocker served on Nutt's staff at Arkansas from 2003-07. Cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator Chris Vaughn was a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1999 before becoming a full-time coach in 2000. He was on Nutt's staff from 2000-05 before acting as the director of on-campus recruiting in 2006. He returned to the full-time coaching ranks in Nutt's final year at Arkansas (2007).

Former Razorback wide receiver and assistant coach James Shibest is the Rebels' special teams coordinator and tight ends coach. Shibest played for Arkansas from 1983-86 and still ranks as one of the top wide receivers in school history. He joined the Razorback coaching staff in 2001 and served seven seasons under Nutt.

Another former Razorback player now resides on the Ole Miss coaching staff. Ron Dickerson Jr. played for the Hogs from 1989-92. He currently serves as the Ole Miss wide receivers coach after spending last season at Louisiana-Monroe with current Razorback assistant and former UA tight end Kirk Botkin.

Rebels' safeties coach Kim Dameron is a former Razorback player and graduate assistant. Dameron lettered four seasons for the Hogs from 1979-82. He graduated from Arkansas in 1983 and served as a graduate assistant under Lou Holtz for the 1983 season.

OTHER CONNECTIONS:

- Ole Miss' assistant athletic director for development Danny Nutt was the running backs coach on his brother Houston Nutt's staff at Arkansas from 1998-2006. Health issues prevented Danny from coaching the 2007 season.
- Former Razorback assistant coach and administrator Clifton Ealy now serves as assistant athletic director for community relations for Ole Miss. Ealy was a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1987-88 and then joined the Razorbacks for two seasons as an assistant coach (1998-99). In 2003, he returned to Arkansas to the UA staff to coach tight ends. He served three seasons (2003-05) before taking on administrative duties in 2006 and 2007.
- Current Ole Miss assistant athletic director for football operations Mike Beaumont, head strength and conditioning coach Don Decker and video coordinator Andy Commer all worked for Nutt at Arkansas before assuming their current roles with the Rebels.
- Ole Miss running backs coach Derrick Nix served on Arkansas head coach Bobby Petrino's staff with the Atlanta Falcons last season. Nix was an offensive assistant and quality control coach for the Falcons in the 2007 campaign.

NATIONALLY RANKED OPPOSITION: Arkansas recently completed the toughest schedule stretch in school history, taking on four consecutive nationally ranked opponents. Arkansas dropped decisions to No. 9 Alabama, No. 7 Texas and No. 12 Florida, before recording an upset of No. 20 Auburn.

Arkansas' three losses this season have come to teams that are ranked No. 1 (Texas), No. 2 (Alabama) and No. 5 (Florida) in this week's Associated Press poll.

The stretch was the most difficult four-game streak in the 115-year history of Arkansas football. Arkansas had never before played four nationally-ranked opponents consecutively. In fact, the Razorbacks have only played three consecutive nationally ranked opponents six times previously. Three of those six occurrences have come in the last decade. Arkansas lost to No. 3 Baylor in 1960 before beating No. 11 Texas 24-23. The Hogs then fell to No. 2 Ole Miss 10-7. In 1961, Arkansas defeated No. 18 TCU and No. 9 Baylor before falling to No. 3 Texas.

In 1997, Arkansas lost to No. 5 Tennessee, won against No. 13 Mississippi State and lost to No. 17 LSU in the season finale. In 1999, Arkansas fell to No. 23 Ole Miss then rallied to defeat No. 3 Tennessee and No. 12 Mississippi State. In 2004, Arkansas lost all three consecutive games to No. 16 Florida, No. 4 Auburn and No. 6 Georgia. The final three games of the 2006 season were against nationally-ranked opponents. The Razorbacks lost to No. 9 LSU, No. 4 Florida and No. 6 Wisconsin.

Arkansas faced a school-record seven ranked teams in 2006 and six-ranked opponents in 1997.

BRUTAL SCHEDULE: Even before Arkansas embarked on its 2008 schedule, prognosticators noted the Hogs faced one of the toughest schedules in the nation. In fact, Phil Steele's pre-season college football publication ranked Arkansas' schedule as the No. 2 most difficult slate in the nation.

The NCAA releases a toughest schedule ranking each week based on the results of a team's opponents in their other games. This week, Arkansas is ranked No. 5 in the toughest schedule ranking with the Razorbacks' opponents combining for a 41-22 record (.651) thus far this season.

Based on its past opposition, Arkansas ranks No. 2 with its previous seven opponents racking up a combined record of 24-9 (.727). Arkansas' future opponents, including Ole Miss, have an 17-13 (.567) record in the first five weeks placing the Razorbacks tied for No. 43 in schedule difficulty for future opposition.

FRESH FACES: Arkansas has employed a new look on the football field, literally. The Razorbacks have played a total of 16 true freshmen in the first three games of the 2008 season. Joe Adams, Lavunce Askew, Mitchell Bailey, Khiry Battle, Greg Childs, De'Anthony Curtis, Elton Ford, Chris Gragg, Dennis Johnson, Hunter Miller, Jerico Nelson, Jelani Smith, Zach Stadther, Tramain Thomas, Tyler Wilson and Jarius Wright have all played in their first year on campus. In fact, Adams, Ford, Gragg, Johnson, Nelson, Smith, Stadther, Thomas and Wright have all earned starts.

In addition, Arkansas has utilized six redshirt freshmen in the mix.

An informal survey of FBS (Football Bowl Subdivision) schools indicate that only Florida State and Miami have played more true freshmen than Arkansas so far this season.

PETRINO ERA DEBUTS IN 2008: Arkansas head coach Bobby Petrino is in his first season as the head coach at the University of Arkansas.

Petrino was named the 30th Arkansas head coach in school history on Dec. 11, 2007, after spending one season as the head coach of the Atlanta Falcons. Prior to moving to the National Football League, Petrino distinguished himself as one of the best coaches in college football during his four-year tenure at the University of Louisville. Petrino posted a 41-9 (.820) record with the Cardinals.

In his 24th year as a coach, including his 20th on the collegiate level and four in the NFL, he was 3-10 with the Falcons after going 41-9 at Louisville. His teams at Louisville went 9-4 in 2003 and played in the GMAC Bowl, falling to No. 14 Miami (Ohio); 11-1 in 2004 with a Conference USA title, a win over No. 10 Boise State in the Liberty Bowl, 44-40, and a No. 7 final ranking; 9-3 in 2005 with a spot in the Gator Bowl, where the Cardinals fell to No. 12 Virginia Tech, and a No. 19 final ranking; and 12-1 in 2006 with a Big East Conference championship, a win over No. 12 Wake Forest in the Orange Bowl, 24-13, and a No. 6 final ranking.

The 2006 Cardinals ranked second in the nation in total yards (475.3 yards per game) and fourth in the nation in scoring offense (37.8 points per game). His 2004 squad led the nation in total offense (539.0) and scoring offense (49.8), and set an NCAA record by scoring 50 or more points in five-straight games.

In addition to Louisville, Petrino's college experience includes stops at Arizona State, Nevada, Utah State and Auburn. In addition to coaching the Falcons, his NFL experience includes two years working as the quarterbacks coach and one as the offensive coordinator with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Among active NCAA Bowl Subdivision head coaches with at least four years experience, Petrino ranks fifth in the nation in career winning percentage trailing only USC's Pete Carroll, Florida's Urban Meyer, Oklahoma's Bob Stoops and Georgia's Mark Richt.

NON-CONFERENCE DOMINANCE: Arkansas has been impressive in non-conference regular-season games in the last decade. The Razorbacks are 33-4 (.892) in the last 11 years against non-SEC opponents during the regular season.

Arkansas head coach Bobby Petrino is 17-2 as a head coach in non-conference regular season games. Petrino was 4-0 (2003), 2-1 (2004), 4-0 (2005) and 5-0 (2006) against non-conference competition at Louisville. The Cardinals played in Conference USA in 2003-04 and joined the Big East in time for the 2005 season.

The only blemish on Petrino's non-conference record came in a three-point loss at No. 3 Miami (38-41) in 2004. Petrino and the Cardinals returned the favor in 2006 when they topped the No. 7 Hurricanes 31-7 in Louisville.

Petrino is 2-1 in non-conference action at Arkansas with wins over Western Illinois and Louisiana-Monroe and a loss at No. 7 Texas.

CARDIAC HOGS: Arkansas certainly gave its fans plenty to stick around for in its three wins this season. The Razorbacks had to overcome deficits in the fourth quarter to earn their first three victories of the season. In fact, Arkansas overcame double-digit deficits to post the decisive points with under two minutes to play in wins over Western Illinois and Louisiana-Monroe.

Arkansas trailed by three points heading into the fourth quarter against Western Illinois in the season opener. The Hogs then saw their deficit increase to 10 points with 10:34 left to play. Arkansas rallied for two fourth-quarter touchdowns, the final coming on a Casey Dick touchdown pass to true freshman Greg Childs with 1:49 to play, to capture a 28-24 victory.

In a similar script, Arkansas had to rally once again in its second game against Louisiana-Monroe at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock. Arkansas trailed ULM 24-14 entering the fourth quarter before rallying for two touchdowns to hold on to a 28-27 victory. Dick found tight end D.J. Williams for eight yards and the game-winning touchdown with 1:22 remaining in the game. The Razorbacks then had to hold on as a 45-yard field goal attempt by ULM went wide right in the game's final minute.

Arkansas rallied for its third fourth-quarter comeback win of the season at No. 20 Auburn. The Razorbacks trailed the Tigers 20-16 heading into the final period before converting a 44-yard Shay Haddock field goal and then a 63-yard Michael Smith touchdown run to hold off Auburn 25-22.

Entering the 2008 season, Arkansas was only 8-42 when entering the fourth quarter trailing its opponent since 1998.

4th DOWN AND GAME: Two defining plays stand out in Arkansas' pair of comeback wins to start the 2008 season. The Razorbacks are two-for-three on the season in fourth-down conversions, including two conversions that meant the difference between a win and a loss.

Arkansas was in deep trouble in the season opener before pulling off a memorable drive late in the game. On the Razorbacks' eventual game-winning drive, the Hogs faced fourth down and 10 on the Western Illinois 33-yard line. Arkansas quarterback Casey Dick fired a bullet to a diving Carlton Salters for a tumbling gain of 11 yards and a game-saving first down. Four plays later, Dick rambled four yards for the go-ahead and deciding touchdown as Arkansas went on to win 28-24.

A week later, Arkansas once again faced a crucial fourth down situation with the game in the balance against Louisiana-Monroe. The Razorbacks were in a fourth down and one yard situation at the ULM 32-yard line with 2:03 left in the game and the Hogs trailing the Warhawks 27-21. After a timeout, Dick took the snap and lofted the ball on a play-action pass for freshman Chris Gragg. Gragg leaped above two defenders and pulled in a pass for 25 yards and a first down. It was Gragg's first collegiate reception and it couldn't have come at a better time. Two plays later, Dick completed an eight-yard touchdown pass to D.J. Williams to tie the game. Kicker Shay Haddock added the extra point to put the Razorbacks ahead for good 28-27.

CHANGING OFFENSIVE FORTUNES: A quick glance at the Southeastern Conference statistics might have some Razorback followers a little confused. Since entering the Southeastern Conference, Arkansas has been atop or near the top of rushing offense both in the league and in the nation. In fact, the Hogs have led the SEC in rushing in five of the last six years. While Arkansas has been effective rushing the ball, the Hogs have rarely ranked among the pass offense team leaders. Since 1992, the Razorbacks have ranked 10th or lower in the SEC in pass offense 11 times.

This year, things have taken a turn. Thus far in the 2008 season, Arkansas is third in the league and 49th in the nation in pass offense with an average of 225.7 yards per game. Junior tailback Michael Smith ranks seventh in the nation in rushing, yet the Razorbacks still rank near the bottom of the national rushing team leaders. Arkansas ranks eighth in the SEC and 71st in the nation with an average of 132.4 rushing yards per game.

SMITH LEADS SEC AND RANKS AMONG NATION'S RUSHING LEADERS: Junior tailback Michael Smith is making the most of his opportunities as Arkansas' feature back. After toiling behind Darren McFadden and Felix Jones for most of his Razorback career, Smith is taking the lead for the Hogs in 2008. In the process, Smith is leading the Southeastern Conference in rushing and ranks seventh in the nation in rushing yards per game.

Smith has racked up 791 yards and five touchdowns on 144 carries thus far this season. The Razorback tailback leads the SEC with 131.8 yards rushing per game. His average is 22.9 yards per game better than the league's second leading rusher Georgia's Knowshon Moreno (108.9).

Smith also ranks seventh in the nation with the same average. He has four 100-yard rushing games to his credit this season (ULM, Florida, Auburn and Kentucky), including three consecutive 100-yard efforts against No. 12 Florida, No. 20 Auburn and Kentucky.

Smith recorded a breakout performance in his first career start in the Razorback backfield against Louisiana-Monroe. Smith responded by rushing for a then career-high 157 yards and two touchdowns on 22 carries. Smith almost eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark again against No. 9 Alabama. He rushed 19 times for 91 yards, including a 30-yard gain. He also set career highs with six receptions for 67 yards.

Smith racked up 133 rushing yards and one touchdown on 20 carries against No. 12 Florida. He tied a career high with six receptions for 43 yards. Smith became the first rusher to earn 100 yards against the Gators this season. Florida entered the game as the No. 7 total defense in the nation.

Against No. 20 Auburn, Smith responded with a career high 176 yards and one touchdown on 35 carries to lead Arkansas to a 25-22 upset win. He boasted 15 rushes of five yards or more against the Tigers including a 63-yard touchdown run to provide the winning margin midway through the fourth quarter. Smith also hauled in two catches for 46 yards, including a career long gain of 41 yards.

Smith dashed his career high rushing total for the second consecutive week with a 192 yard rushing performance at Kentucky. The tailback earned the yardage and a touchdown on 35 carries before leaving the game early in the fourth quarter. He averaged 5.5 yards per carry against the Wildcats including runs of 10, 11, 13, 16 and 51 yards. He accounted for 13 of the Razorbacks' 21 first downs with 11 coming on rushes and two coming on receptions. He had three catches for 33 yards and a touchdown against Kentucky. His 253 all-purpose yards against the Wildcats was the sixth-best total in Razorback history for a single game.

MICHAEL SMITH SERVING ALL PURPOSES: Junior Michael Smith leads the SEC and ranks fourth in the nation in all-purpose yardage with 180.83 yards per game. Smith has racked up 791 rushing yards, 250 receiving yards and 44 yards on punt returns for a total of 1,085 all-purpose yards in his six games played this season. In his last two outings, Smith has recorded the sixth-best (253 vs. Kentucky) and the 12th-best (232 vs. Auburn) all-purpose yardage totals in school history.

Smith is attempting to make it three consecutive seasons for a Razorback to lead the league in all-purpose yardage. Darren McFadden led the SEC in all-purpose yardage in 2006 and 2007. A Razorback player has never led the nation in all-purpose yardage.

Game	Rush	Rec	PR	Total

HEART AND SOUL OF THE RUNNING GAME: Tailback Michael Smith is literally and figuratively, the heart and soul of the Arkansas running game. Smith leads the Southeastern Conference and ranks No. 7 in the nation with an average of 131.8 yards per game on the ground.

Smith's value to the Razorback rushing attack is even more impressive when you compare his contributions to other top running backs in the nation. Of the running backs that rank in the top 10 in rushing average nationally, Smith is second only to Michigan State's Javon Ringer in the percentage of the team's total rushing output. Smith has accounted for 791 yards of the Razorbacks' total of 927 rushing yards. Eight other ball carriers have combined for 136 yards. Smith has racked up 85.3 percent of Arkansas' rushing yards this season.

Among the SEC's top 10 rushers, only Smith (85.3) and Georgia's Knowshon Moreno (64.2) account for more than 60 percent of their team's rushing totals.

SMITH PICKS UP SEC HONOR: Junior tailback Michael Smith was honored by the Southeastern Conference for his play in Arkansas' 25-22 win over No. 20 Auburn. Smith was named the offensive player of the week after he rushed for a career-high 176 yards on 35 carries. His 63-yard touchdown run provided the winning margin in the victory. Smith also hauled in two catches for 46 yards, including a key 41-yard gain.

Smith became the second offensive player to be honored this season for the Razorbacks. Freshman Joe Adams was named SEC Freshman of the Week for his performance against Louisiana-Monroe. Fellow teammate Adrian Davis earned SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week honors for his role in the Hogs' win over Auburn.

CASEY AT THE PASS: Arkansas senior quarterback Casey Dick racked up passing yards and record performances early in the 2008 season. The Razorback signal caller recorded back-to-back 300-yard passing games with 318 yards in the season opener against Western Illinois and 323 yards in a win over Louisiana-Monroe. The 300-yard outings were the first of Dick's career and only the 10th and 11th 300-yard passing games in Razorback history.

In fact, Dick became the first UA quarterback to record back-to-back 300-yard passing games. He also tied Clint Stoerner (1997) for most 300-yard passing games in a season (2). Casey is the only SEC quarterback to have multiple 300-yard passing games this season.

Dick is third in the SEC and ranks 52nd in the nation in total offense per game with an average of 220.4 yards per outing.

The senior from Allen, Texas, is second in the SEC in passing yards per game (215.0 ypg.) trailing only Georgia's Matthew Stafford (242.4 ypg.) in that category.

Dick has passed for 1,505 yards and six touchdowns on 226 attempts in seven games this season.

CASEY DICK CLIMBING ARKANSAS' CAREER PASSING CHARTS: Senior quarterback Casey Dick has made steady progress throughout his career. He started all 13 games in 2007 and has made 20 consecutive starts. As a junior, he was 150-of-262 (.573) for 1,695 yards with 18 touchdowns and 10 interceptions.

Here is where Dick ranks on the school's career charts and where last year's numbers place among Arkansas' all-time season bests.

SPREADING THE WEALTH: Arkansas has utilized plenty of targets in its passing game this season. A total of 15 Razorbacks have caught at least one pass this season. The number of receivers ties for seventh in the nation according to a recent survey of Football Bowl Subdivision schools.

Troy and Tulane lead the nation with 18 different pass catchers.

The most recent Razorback to be added to the list was quarterback Casey Dick. Dick hauled in a six-yard touchdown pass from wide receiver Joe Adams in the Hogs' 25-22 upset win at No. 20 Auburn.

D.J. TIME: Arkansas tight end D.J. Williams has already proven to be a primary target in the Razorbacks' passing game. Williams has caught at least four passes in five of Arkansas' first seven games and leads the Razorbacks in catches and receiving yards with 28 receptions for 315 yards. He also leads the Hogs with two touchdowns.

Williams ranks tied for sixth in the SEC with 4.00 catches per game. He also ranks 12th in the SEC in receiving yards per game with an average of 45.0.

Williams set a career high in receiving yards, touchdowns and tied a career high in receptions in leading Arkansas to a 28-27 come-from-behind win over Louisiana-Monroe.

Williams hauled in five passes for 124 yards and two touchdowns in the victory including the game-winner on an eight-yard pass play with 1:22 left in the game. He also added a reception to successfully earn a two-point conversion in the third quarter after scoring on the previous play, an eight-yard touchdown pass from UA quarterback Casey Dick.

Williams tallied a career-long 76-yard reception in the fourth quarter to set up another Razorback touchdown. The play was the longest pass play for the Razorbacks since 2002 and is tied for 12th for the longest pass play in the nation this season.

Williams led the Hogs in receiving with four catches for 39 yards against No. 7 Texas. Against No. 12 Florida, Williams hauled in a career high six catches for 35 yards.

In Arkansas' upset win over No. 20 Auburn, Williams snared three passes for 24 yards. For the first time this season, Williams didn't have a catch in the Hogs' road loss at Kentucky.

NO ORDINARY JOE: Freshman wide receiver Joe Adams has become one of Arkansas' primary targets in the passing game in his rookie season. Adams is second on the squad with 24 receptions for 309 yards and one touchdown in the first seven games of the season.

He has caught at least one pass in every game this season and multiple passes in six of seven outings. He made the most of his first start and his first game as a Razorback in front of a hometown crowd. The Little Rock, Ark., native tallied a team-high seven receptions for 89 yards in Arkansas' 28-27 win over Louisiana-Monroe at War Memorial Stadium. For his efforts, Adams was named the SEC Freshman of the Week, becoming the first Razorback to earn a conference weekly award in 2008.

Adams snagged catches of 4, 7, 8, 10, 10, 17 and 33 yards in his first career start. His seven catches were the most by a Razorback in a single game since Marcus Monk hauled in eight receptions against Tennessee in 2007.

Two of his catches came to help Arkansas' fourth-quarter comeback. He netted a pair of first downs on receptions. He also recorded one rush for nine yards against the Warhawks in his first collegiate game in his hometown.

Adams hauled in five catches for 68 yards against No. 12 Florida. Four of his five catches went for first down yardage. He also had one rushing attempt for 16 yards which also moved the chains.

He led the Razorbacks with four catches for 60 yards in Arkansas' 25-22 win over No. 20 Auburn. Adams recorded a key 31-yard gain in the victory. Against Kentucky, Adams hauled in two passes for 24 yards, including a 16-yard gain.

Adams ranks second among SEC freshmen with 3.43 catches per game and third among league rookies with 44.1 yards receiving per game.

CHASING RECORDS: Sophomore D.J. Williams and freshman Joe Adams are on track to eclipse a pair of receiving records in 2008. Williams is attempting to break the Razorbacks' tight end single season reception mark held by current Arkansas assistant coach and former Razorback tight end Kirk Botkin. Botkin snared 33 passes for 257 yards in 1992. Williams enters this weekend's game with 28 catches for 315 yards.

Adams is looking to break the freshman receiving mark set in 2004 by former Razorback Marcus Monk. Monk hauled in 37 catches for 569 yards as rookie breaking the previous freshman mark held by Richard Smith (33) set in 2000. Adams has 24 receptions for 309 yards so far this season.

RIMINGTON TROPHY WINNER BACK TO ANCHOR THE LINE: Senior Jonathan Luigs was recognized as the top center in the nation when he received the 2007 Rimington Trophy. A runner-up for the award as a sophomore in 2006, the 2007 winner was also named a first-team All-American by CBSsports.com, the Football Writers Association of America, Rivals, The Sporting News, Phil Steele College Football, CollegeFootballNews.com and Walter Camp. Luigs, a 6-4, 314-pounder from Little Rock, Ark., also earned the Jacobs Trophy, which goes to the top blocker in the Southeastern Conference.

He helped Arkansas lead the SEC and rank fourth in the nation in rushing (286.5), rank 17th in total offense (450.0) and 13th in scoring (37.3). The total offense and scoring averages, and 3,750 rushing yards set school records, along with a 5.96 yards per carry average. In addition to being a Rimington Trophy finalist as a sophomore in 2006, he was an AP third-team All-American and first-team All-SEC. He helped Arkansas lead the SEC and rank fourth in the nation in rushing (228.5), rank 29th in the nation in total offense (378.0) and 31st in scoring (28.9).

As you might expect, Luigs is one of 43 pre-season watch list candidates for the 2008 Rimington Trophy. In the history of the award, there has never been a two-time winner.

LUIGS LEADING THE WAY: Center Jonathan Luigs has picked up where he left off last season after winning the 2007 Rimington Trophy. Luigs has once again been the centerpiece of the Razorbacks' offensive line playing his best against some of the nation's top teams.

Luigs earned a 92 percent assignment grade against No. 7 Texas. He tallied four knockdown blocks against the Longhorns. Against No. 12 Florida, Luigs posted a 95 percent assignment grade and racked up three knockdowns in clearing the way for 100-yard rusher Michael Smith (133).

The Little Rock, Ark., native was superb up front in Arkansas' 25-22 win over No. 20 Auburn. Luigs graded out at 98 percent on assignments and earned five knockdowns against the Tigers. He helped pave the way for 416 yards of total offense including 176 yards rushing by Smith.

Luigs turned in another solid outing at Kentucky. He recorded a grade of 95 percent on his assignments against the Wildcats and didn't yield a sack. He racked up seven knockdowns and cleared the way for 236 rushing yards, including a career-high 192 rushing yards from Smith.

ADRIAN ACTIVE AGAINST AUBURN: Senior defensive end Adrian Davis was active in Arkansas' 25-22 upset win at No. 20 Auburn. In fact, Davis was named the Southeastern Conference Defensive Lineman of the Week for his performance in the Razorbacks' win over the Tigers. Ironically, it was the first game Davis didn't start this season. He came off the bench but played extensively.

Davis recorded four tackles, including three sacks (-29), forced a fumble and recorded his first interception of the season in the victory. He became the first player in the SEC this season to register three sacks in a game. Arkansas entered the game with only five total sacks in its first five games. Davis is the first Razorback to earn three sacks in a game since Jamaal Anderson racked up three sacks against Tennessee in 2006.

Davis intercepted a pass and returned it 17 yards to the Auburn 23-yard line to set up an Arkansas field goal. The turnover helped the Razorbacks gain the lead for the first time and Arkansas never trailed again. Davis also forced a fumble on one of his sacks of the Auburn quarterback on first down of a drive in the third quarter. The Tigers recovered but were forced to punt three plays later.

Davis ranks fourth on the team with 31 tackles this season. He leads the Razorbacks with five TFL (-40) and three sacks (-29).

GOOD SHEPPARD: Junior defensive tackle Malcolm Sheppard has been a steady force for the Razorbacks this season on the defensive front. Sheppard ranks fifth on the team in tackles (30) and is tied for the lead in TFL (5.0-17). He ranks second with 2.5 sacks (-11) and five quarterback hurries.

Against Kentucky, Sheppard responded with a team high eight tackles, including two tackles for loss (-5) and one sack (-4). He also forced a fumble, broke up a pass and recorded one quarterback hurry against the Wildcats.

ANTWAIN FINDING THE END ZONE: Senior defensive end Antwain Robinson has made a habit of finding his way to the end zone, despite playing on the defensive side of the ball. Robinson has scored four touchdowns in his Razorback career returning two fumbles and two interceptions for touchdowns.

His most recent scoring play came this season against No. 7 Texas. Robinson scooped up a Longhorns' fumble and raced 80 yards for a score in the fourth quarter at Austin.

In 2007, Robinson recorded a pair of touchdowns while playing on the Hogs' defensive unit. He sacked Kentucky quarterback Andre Woodson for an eight-yard loss and then scooped up the ensuing fumble and returned it 16 yards for a touchdown. Later in the season, he picked up off a pass against Mississippi State and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown to lead the Razorbacks to a win over the Bulldogs.

Robinson's first career touchdown came against Florida in the 2006 SEC Championship Game. The Little Rock, Ark., native intercepted a shovel pass from Florida quarterback Chris Leak and ran 40 yards for a touchdown to give the Razorbacks the lead over the Gators in the third quarter.

FRANKLIN LEADING THE WAY: Redshirt freshman linebacker Jerry Franklin is leading the way on the Razorbacks' defense. Franklin leads the Hogs with 59 tackles in the first seven games. He has garnered 38 solo tackles and 21 assisted stops. He has 2.5 tackles for loss (-9), 0.5 sack (-6), one interception, two quarterback hurries, one forced fumble and one recovered fumble. He tallied a career-high 12 tackles in Arkansas' 28-27 win over Louisiana-Monroe.

He earned his first career interception after picking off a pass from Florida quarterback Tim Tebow. The interception snapped a string of 204 consecutive passes without an interception by Tebow, the third longest streak in SEC history.

Franklin ranks eighth in the SEC and tied for 92nd in the country (based on press box totals) with an average of 7.4 tackles per game.

FORD PACING SEC FRESHMEN: Arkansas free safety Elton Ford is pacing all Southeastern Conference true freshmen in tackles per game with 6.0 stops per outing. League defensive stats, taken from press box totals, have Ford with 42 tackles in his first seven games. Based on UA coaches' film, Ford has been credited with 38 tackles, two pass break ups and one interception.

Among all freshmen (true and redshirt), only fellow Razorback Jerry Franklin (7.4) and Vanderbilt's Chris Marve (7.4) rank ahead of Ford on the tackle list.

DAVIS PUTTING HIS BEST FOOT FORWARD: Senior punter Jeremy Davis is on pace for his best season as a Razorback in 2008. Davis is averaging 42.3 yards per punt in his first seven games including a career long punt of 58 yards earlier this year against Auburn. So far this season, Davis has punted 31 times for 1,312 yards and has landed 10 kicks inside the opponents' 20-yard line. He has recorded five punts of 50 yards or more this season. Davis ranks third in the SEC and 25th in the nation with his 42.3 yards per punt average.

His best games have come against nationally ranked opponents Alabama, Texas, Florida and Auburn. Against the No. 9 Crimson Tide, he averaged 43.4 yards per punt (7 punts) and landed three inside Alabama's 20-yard line. Against No. 7 Texas, he averaged 45.2 yards per punt (5 punts) including a 54-yard effort. Davis punted four times against No. 12 Florida averaging 43.8 yards per punt. He landed three of his four punts inside the Gators' 20-yard line. Against No. 20 Auburn, Davis averaged 52.0 yards per punt on four kicks, including a career-long 58 yard effort.

Davis averaged 39.2 yards per punt as a freshman in 2004. He redshirted the 2005 season and served as the Hogs' placekicker in 2006. Last season as a junior, Davis posted an average of 40.0 yards per punt.

His current 40.5 career punt average ranks tied for seventh on the Arkansas career record chart.

FRESHMAN RETURNS: True freshman Dennis Johnson is already making his mark as a kickoff returner in his first year in a Razorback uniform. Johnson leads the Razorbacks with 25 kickoff returns for 545 yards, an average of 21.8 yards per return. He ranks eighth in the SEC and 82nd in the nation with that average. Johnson has recorded 14 kickoff returns of 20 yards or more, including six returns of 30-yards or more. His season long return of 41 yards came against No. 9 Alabama. Against No. 7 Texas, Johnson recorded three returns of 25 or more yards including plays of 28, 33 and 34 yards.

Johnson is looking to become the first Razorback freshman to lead Arkansas in kickoff returns since Felix Jones set a school record averaging 31.94 yards per return as a freshman in 2005. Jones went on to earn first-team All-America honors that season.

VALDEZ NAMED TO SEC COMMUNITY SERVICE TEAM: Senior offensive tackle Jose Valdez has been selected to the Southeastern Conference's Community Service Team. Valdez was recognized during Raycom Sports telecast of the Arkansas-Alabama game on Sept. 20.

The senior from St. Francis, Wisc., has been a standout for the Razorbacks in the community. His community efforts include visits to The Sunshine School for disabled children, reading to students at Holcomb Elementary School as part of the Read Across America program, participating in Arkansas' Book Hogs reading program, a visit to the Homestyle Assisted Living Center for Thanksgiving dinner and a visit to Oakdale Junior High School where he spoke to students about decision making and overcoming racial issues.

Valdez is also one of five SEC players to be nominated for The Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. The team honors football student-athletes who exemplify community service. A committee will select an 11-member team that will be announced later this season.

ARKANSAS ATOP THE BOWL LIST: Arkansas is on top of the bowl appearance list for the SEC Western Division since 1998. Over the last 10 years, Arkansas has earned eight bowl bids. The Razorbacks have made three trips to the Cotton Bowl (2000, 2002, 2008), two to the Citrus/Capital One Bowl (1999, 2007), and one each to the Las Vegas Bowl (2000), Music City Bowl (2002) and the Independence Bowl (2003).

SCORING STREAK: Arkansas has scored in a school-record 155 consecutive games. The Razorbacks have not been shut out since a 28-0 loss to LSU in Baton Rouge, La., on Nov. 18, 1995. Arkansas' scoring streak ranks fourth in the SEC behind Florida, Tennessee and Georgia.

Over the last 11 years, Arkansas has scored 20 or more points in 96 of 130 games (.738). The Razorbacks are 47-14 (.780) when scoring 20 or more points over the last eight seasons.

RAZORBACK CAPTAINS: Arkansas coaches and players elected five team captains for the 2008 season. Senior center Jonathan Luigs and senior quarterback Casey Dick were selected as captains from the offensive unit. The Razorbacks' have three team captains from the defensive side of the ball; cornerback Jamar Love, linebacker Elston Forte and defensive tackle Malcolm Sheppard.

OTHER RAZORBACK NOTABLES:

- Arkansas' first quarter touchdown at Kentucky was the first time the Razorbacks had found the end zone in the first quarter this season. Arkansas earned a field goal on the opening drive at No. 20 Auburn, but the touchdown against the Wildcats was the first opening period touchdown of 2008.
- Sophomore Shay Haddock nailed two field goals for the second consecutive game connecting on attempts of 19 and 23 yards against Kentucky. In Arkansas' win over No. 20 Auburn, Haddock split the uprights on a 27-yard attempt on the Razorbacks' opening drive and then nailed a crucial 44-yard effort in the fourth quarter. The 44-yard field goal was a career long for Haddock. Haddock is five-of-six on field goal attempts since taking over placekicking responsibilities. He has made four consecutive field goal attempts.
- Arkansas' 20-play scoring drive was the longest by the Razorbacks this season and the longest since at least 1997. Preliminary research indicates it is the longest scoring drive in at least the last 11 seasons.
- Quarterback Casey Dick's 24-yard scramble against Kentucky was the longest run of his career.

Head Coach Bobby Petrino

Long before his first game as head football coach at the University of Arkansas, Bobby Petrino's positive impact on a tradition-rich Arkansas program and a passionate Razorback fan base was abundantly evident. From the boisterous welcome offered from assembled fans at a late-night nationally-televised press conference announcing his hiring to the record attendance numbers at Razorback Clubs in all corners of the state last spring, there is no question that Petrino's arrival in Fayetteville has energized and unified the state behind their beloved Razorback football program.

It is easy to see why Razorback fans are so excited. Petrino is one of the most successful college football coaches in the nation. In his four previous years as a collegiate head coach at the University of Louisville, he won 41 games, led the Cardinals to four-consecutive bowl games, including a victory in the Bowl Championship Series' 2006 FedEx Orange Bowl. His .820 winning percentage ranks second only to USC's Pete Carroll among active NCAA Bowl Subdivision coaches with at least four years experience. His 41 wins rank tied for seventh in NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision history for most victories by a coach in his first four seasons.

Entering his fifth season as a collegiate head coach and his first at Arkansas, Petrino blends 21 years of collegiate coaching experience with stints in the National Football League as both a head coach and assistant coach to total 25 years of coaching experience.

In addition to Louisville, Petrino's college experience includes stops at Arizona State University, the University of Nevada, Utah State University and Auburn University. His NFL coaching tenures have come with the Jacksonville Jaguars and the Atlanta Falcons.

His reputation for engineering high-octane and quick-strike offenses is well deserved. His teams have consistently ranked among the nation's best in total offense and scoring. Although sometimes perceived as a coach that focuses primarily on the passing game, in reality Petrino adheres to the philosophy of balance between offensive production on the ground and through the air. Consider that in the last 10 years of his college coaching career spent as a head coach, an offensive coordinator or both, Petrino's offenses have boasted 70 100-yard rushers and 41 300-yard passers. That equates to 111 defining offensive individual performances in 120 total games.

In his coaching career, Petrino has worked with countless players who went on to play professionally, including an impressive list of NFL quarterbacks. As a head coach, he helped develop quarterbacks Stefan LeFors (2003-04) and Brian Brohm (2004-06) at Louisville. As a coordinator or assistant, he tutored Jason Campbell at Auburn (2002), Chris Redman at Louisville (1998), Jake Plummer at Arizona State (1993), and Doug Nussmeier (1990-91) and John Friesz (1989) at Idaho.

On Dec. 11, 2007, Petrino was named the 30th head coach in Razorback football history. The announcement marked Petrino's return to college football, the very landscape that put him on the coaching map.

Prior to his most recent tenure as the head coach of the Falcons during the 2007 season, Petrino enjoyed four ultra-successful seasons (2003-06) at Louisville. His teams posted a combined record of 41-9 in his tenure for a winning percentage of .820.

In 2006, Petrino guided the Cardinals to a 12-1 record, including a 24-13 win over nationally-ranked Wake Forest in the BCS FedEx Orange Bowl. Louisville vaulted to as high as No. 3 in the polls during the season and finished with a final No. 6 national ranking in the Associated Press poll, the highest ranking in school history. Louisville had three victories over top-15 ranked teams, including wins over No. 15 Miami (31-7), No. 3 West Virginia (44-34) and No. 12 Wake Forest (24-13). The 12 victories also set a new school mark, breaking a record Petrino had held in part previously with 11 wins in 2004. The Cardinals won their first Big East Conference title, ranked second in the nation in total yards (475.3 yards per game) and fourth in the nation in scoring offense (37.8 points per game). Louisville also led the Big East in pass offense average (290.0) and first downs (296). Seven Louisville players earned first-team All-Big East honors, the most of any league school.

In 2005, Petrino led Louisville into the Big East Conference and guided the Cardinals to a 9-3 record and their first New Year's Day Bowl game since 1991. Louisville ranked ninth in the nation in total offense (482.1) and third in the nation in scoring offense (43.4). The Cardinals scored at least 30 points in 11 of 12 games, including eight games of more than 40 points, four games of 50 or more points and three 60-point outings. Seven Cardinals earned All-Big East honors in the school's first year in the league, including Bronko Nagurski and Ted Hendricks Award winner Elvis Dumervil. Dumervil led the nation in sacks (20) and forced fumbles (10) on his way to consensus All-America honors. Running back Michael Bush led the nation in scoring (14.4), scored 24 touchdowns and became the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1999.

Petrino's 2004 Louisville team went 11-1, won the Conference USA championship and beat No. 10 Boise State in the Liberty Bowl, 44-40, to end the season ranked No. 7. The Cardinals led the nation in total offense (539.0) and scoring offense (49.8), surpassed 40 points nine times, scored 50 points seven times and set an NCAA record by scoring 55 or more points in five-straight games. Petrino tied a then-school record for most wins in a season and had a perfect 8-0 record in league play. The Cardinals outscored their conference opponents 453-156 on their way to the school's third Conference USA crown. In the process, school records fell in points scored (597), points per game (49.8), total offense (6,448), touchdowns (80), rushing yardage (3,005), rushing touchdowns (47) and completion percentage (71.3). Under Petrino's tutelage, quarterback Stefan LeFors led the nation in completion percentage (73.5) and passing efficiency (181.74), narrowly missing NCAA records in both categories. The gaudy offensive production also allowed place-kicker Arthur Carmody to set an NCAA single-season record with 77-consecutive extra points. Defensively, Louisville led the league and ranked No. 15 in the nation in total defense. The Cardinals were one of only three teams to rank in the top 15 nationally in both total offense and total defense. Louisville had the best combined ranking of any team when taking into account both sides of the ball. For his efforts, Petrino was named the 2004 Conference USA Coach of the Year.

The groundwork for the record-setting success to come was laid in Petrino's first season as a head coach at Louisville in 2003. Taking over a team that had finished 7-6 the season before, Petrino guided the Cardinals to a 9-4 record and a GMAC Bowl berth. The nine wins were the most by a first-year Louisville coach. It didn't take long for Petrino to set the tone in his first collegiate coaching stint. In his first career game as a head coach, Petrino led Louisville to a 40-24 win over arch rival Kentucky. Louisville led the league and ranked among the nation's best in total offense, rushing and scoring. The Cardinals ranked fifth in the nation in total offense (488.9), 10th in rushing (228.2) and 15th in scoring offense (34.6) in Petrino's inaugural season. Louisville set six Conference USA records including the mark for total yards after the Cardinals raked up 779 yards, including 445 rushing yards, in a 66-45 win over Houston.

Prior to Louisville hiring him as its head coach, Petrino served one season as the offensive coordinator at Auburn in 2002. In his one season with the Tigers, Auburn went 9-4, including three wins over top-10 ranked opponents, and won a share of the SEC Western Division title. The Tigers led the Southeastern Conference in pass efficiency and third down conversions, and were third in scoring, rushing and total offense. Petrino's influence on Auburn's offensive fortunes resulted in significant improvement as the Tigers improved to No. 31 nationally in scoring offense (31.3) and No. 38 in total offense (358.8) after finishing No. 86 and No. 73 in the same two categories, respectively, in 2001. Auburn completed its season with a victory over No. 10 Penn State on New Year's Day in the Capital One Bowl.

Before going to Auburn, he spent three seasons in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars. He was the quarterbacks coach in 1999 and 2000, and the offensive coordinator in 2001.

While with the Jaguars, he worked with quarterback Mark Brunell, who threw for 3,640 yards in 2000, which was the second-highest total in team history, and 3,309 yards in his 2001 season as offensive coordinator. In 1999, Jacksonville advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

In his first stint at Louisville, he was the offensive coordinator for the Cardinals in 1998. In that one season, Louisville was the top-ranked NCAA Division I-A team in scoring and total offense while recording the biggest turnaround in the nation. The Cardinals improved from 1-10 in 1997 to 7-5 in '98.

Petrino and quarterback Chris Redman helped the Cardinals set school records for points scored (444), scoring average (40.4), touchdowns (62), passing yards (4,498), passing touchdowns (33) and total yards (6,156). Redmen passed for 300 yards or more eight times on the season while reserve quarterback Mike Watkins also topped the 300-yard passing mark once. Louisville scored 60 or more points three times that season (wins over Cincinnati, 62-19; Western Kentucky, 63-44; and East Carolina, 63-45).

The Helena, Mont., native was the offensive coordinator at Utah State for three years (1995-97) before going to Louisville. While in Logan, Utah, he helped Utah State set school records by averaging 468.5 yards of total offense and 317.5 yards passing during the 1996 season. Prior to his arrival, USU averaged just more than 300 yards per game in total offense. In 1996, the Aggies also racked up a school-record 273 first downs, an average of nearly 25 first downs a game.

In 1994, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Nevada. The Wolfpack ranked second in the nation in passing (330) and total offense (500) per game, and was third in the nation with 37.6 points a game. During his one-year stint at Nevada, the Wolfpack boasted 10 100-yard rushing performances and six 300-yard passing efforts. Nevada posted a 9-2 record and won a share of the Big West Conference title.

In 1992 and '93, he was the quarterbacks coach at Arizona State where he assisted in the development of future All-American and NFL star Jake Plummer. While with the Sun Devils, Petrino also worked with then-ASU quarterback and current UA quarterbacks coach Garrick McGee.

Prior to his two years at Arizona State he was the quarterbacks coach (1989) and offensive coordinator (1990 & 1991) for three seasons at the University of Idaho. He was the wide receivers coach at Weber State in 1987 and '88.

Petrino literally grew up in the coaching profession. His father, Bob Petrino Sr., coached at Carroll College in Helena, Mont., for 26 seasons, earning 163 victories and 15 conference titles. As a child, Petrino Jr. would race after school to the practice field to observe his father during his legendary career.

Bobby Petrino officially started his coaching career as a graduate assistant for his father at Carroll College in 1983. After a graduate assistant stint as quarterbacks coach at Weber State in 1984, Petrino returned to be the offensive coordinator for his father in 1985-86. Carroll had the top-ranked offense in the NAIA ranks in both of his seasons, thanks in large part to the play of Bobby Petrino's younger brother Paul, who was a four-year starter at quarterback at Carroll College. Paul Petrino now serves as Arkansas' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Before Bobby Petrino coached for his father, he played football for him at Carroll College. Petrino played quarterback and twice earned NAIA All-America honors. He led the Fighting Saints to three straight Frontier Conference championships and was named the league's most valuable player in 1981 and 1982. He also played four years of basketball at Carroll. Petrino earned a bachelor's degree in physical education with a minor in mathematics from Carroll College in 1983.

Born March 10, 1961, Petrino and his wife, the former Becky Schaff, have four children: Kelsey, Nick, Bobby and Katie.
