Razorbacks in Town Wednesday

■ Coming off its season- and home-opening victory, the South Dakota State women's basketball team welcomes SEC member Arkansas to the friendly confines of Frost Arena Wednesday for a 7 p.m. tip.

■ The Jackrabbits, 1-0, beat a talented Marist College team, 77-68, Nov. 13 in their opener. All-league candidate Macy Miller led five players in double digits in scoring with a game-high 19 points. She also added six rebounds, four assists and a steal.

■ Arkansas, 2-0, won both its home games last week. The Razorbacks defeated Southeastern, 97-53, and Sam Houston State, 67-47.

■ SDSU leads the all-time series, 1-0. The Jackrabbits won the first meeting, 80-75 in overtime in Fayetteville, Ark., Dec. 4, 2014.

Noteworthy

■ The Jackrabbits are protecting an 11-game home winning streak, 21st-longest in the NCAA. The last time the Jacks lost in Frost Arena was Dec. 10, 2014, to Green Bay, 77-75.

■ The Jacks look to snap a trend Wednesday. The last time they won back-to-back games to open a season was 2011-12 when they defeated St. Cloud State and Utah State enroute to a 24-9 season.

■ With its win over Marist, South Dakota State should move up in this week's CollegeInsider Mid-Major poll. The Jacks opened the season 10th in the preseason poll.

■ SDSU plays its ninth game against a SEC team and is 7-2 vs. the league.

South Dakota State has won 11 straight games and enters the Arkansas contest with the NCAA's 21st-longest home winning streak.

26

Senior Gabby Boever enters the Arkansas game needing 26 steals to entering The Summit League career top 20.

500

Entering his 16th season, South Dakota State head coach Aaron Johnston will coach his 500th career game Dec. 9 when the Jackrabbits play Northern Iowa.

A Quick Glance at South Dakota State

■ Sixteenth-year head coach Aaron Johnston's probable starters for the Arkansas game are:

- Macy Miller, point guard
- Madison Guebert, guard
- Kerri Young, guard
- Ellie Thompson, forward
- Clarissa Ober, forward

■ Miller leads the team, averaging 19 points, 6 rebounds and 4 assists per game.

■ Young had an all-around game vs. Marist, posting her first collegiate double-double with 12 points and a game- and career-high 11 rebounds. The guard also dished four assists and had a block.

■ Making her collegiate debut, Guebert buried a team-high three 3-pointers while recording 11 points, 4 assists and 2 steals per game.

■ Senior Gabby Boever returned to the court after suffering a season-ending injury last year. The guard tallied 10 points and 6 rebounds.

■ Last year's leading rebounder, Thompson scored 10 points and grabbed 9 rebounds.

■ The Jackrabbits shot 38.4 percent from the field, 32.1 percent from 3-point range and 51.7 percent from the free-throw line.

A Look at Arkansas

■ Arkansas is 2-0 on the season after beating Southeastern, 97-53, and Sam Houston State, 67-47, this past weekend.

■ Arkansas received eight votes in the Associated Press Preseason poll last week.

■ The Razorbacks have two players averaging double figures in scoring. Preseason All-SEC first team selection junior forward Jessica Jackson leads the team in scoring (16.5) followed by junior guard Kelsey Brooks (10.5).

■ On the boards, Arkansas has a plus-21 rebound margin and is led by Jackson, who averages 11.5 caroms an outing.

■ Brooks dishes 5.0 assists per game.

■ The Razorbacks are shooting 37.8 percent from the field, 27.2 percent from 3-point range and 61.7 percent from the free-throw line.

■ Arkansas is outscoring its opponents by 32 points per game and averaging 82 points an outing while limiting its foes to 50 points per game.

Jackrabbits Upset No. 25 Arkansas

■ FAYETTEVILLE, Ark.—Chynna Stevens' game-tying 3-pointer with 0.4 in regulation capped a 15-6 run and helped South Dakota State upset No. 25 Arkansas, 80-75 in overtime, in front of 1,038 fans at Bud Walton Arena.

■ Trailing 62-53 with 21 seconds left, the Jackrabbits' comeback started with Macy Miller converting a traditional 3-point play and Mariah Clarin stealing the Arkansas inbounds pass and scoring on a layup with 17 seconds left.

■ After a pair of Razorback free throws, Kerri Young sank a 3-pointer with 10 seconds to go. Arkansas missed both free throws with 8 seconds before Stevens hit the game-tying 3-pointer to send the game into overtime.

■ Miller, who scored a career-high 20 points to lead the Jacks, scored 15 second-half points to lead the SDSU charge. The guard was 5 of 6 from the field and 6 for 6 from the free-throw line during the half.

■ In overtime, the Jackrabbits outscored the previously unbeaten Razorbacks, 16-11, and shot 66.7 percent from the field and 78.6 percent from the foul line. Megan Waytashek was 7 of 8 from the foul line in overtime and scored 14 points in the game.

■ Stevens recorded her second career double-double with 17 points and a team-high 10 rebounds. Clarin finished with 11 points and 7 caroms.

■ The Jackrabbits last beat a ranked team in 2013-14 when they upset then-No. 11 Penn State, 83-79. SDSU's last road win over a ranked team was at then-No. 25 Minnesota in 2008, 65-55.

Jacks Win Season Opener

■ South Dakota State used a 9-2 run to open the second half and record a 77-68 win over Marist College Nov. 13 in front of 1,624 fans at Frost Arena in its season and home opener.

■ The Jackrabbits had five players score in double figures in the nonconference game. Macy Miller had a team-high 19 points while Kerri Young added 12 points and a career- and game-high 11 rebounds. Madison Guebert scored 11 points in her collegiate debut. Ellie Thompson and Gabby Boever each scored 10 points.

■ Marist had the lead for all but 26 seconds of the first quarter, eventually building a 14-8 lead after a basket by Kendall Baab with 2:33 to play in the quarter.

■ South Dakota State scored the next six points to tie the game, 14-14, when Thompson made the second of two foul shots with 8:59 remaining in the second quarter. Boever gave the Jackrabbits a 22-21 lead with a 3-point field goal with 5:26 left in the half but the Red Foxes closed the half with a 14-7 run for a 35-31 lead. Coffey and Allie Clement each scored six points during that run.

■ Miller sank a 3-pointer 91 seconds into the second half to give State a 40-37 lead and the Jackrabbits never trailed. Miller scored 10 points and Young added 8 in the third quarter as SDSU built a 59-50 lead.

■ The Jackrabbits' lead grew to 15, 69-54, with 6:41 left when Thompson made a foul shot.

Home Win Streak

■ SDSU is sporting an 11-game home win streak entering Wednesday's game. The Jacks won their final 10 games in Frost Arena last season and their season and home opener vs. Marist. The streak ranks 21st in the NCAA.

■ South Carolina has the longest home win streak at 36 games followed by UConn (35), Florida Gulf Coast (28), Maryland (24), Tennessee (23) and Iowa (20). Seventeen other NCAA teams have at least a 10-game winning streak. ■ The last time SDSU lost in Frost was Dec. 10, 2014, to Green Bay, 77-75.

■ The Jacks' home win streak also ranks sixth all-time at SDSU.

■ The longest regular season home-winning streak is 35 games set between Jan. 15, 2007, and Nov. 22, 2010.

■ SDSU has a 443-115 (.793) record in home games entering the program's 50-year season.

■ Since the 2004-05 season, South Dakota State owns a 130-17 (.884) mark in Frost Arena.

■ South Dakota State's 21-game home court win streak—the fourth-longest in the nation at the time—ended after losing to Creighton Nov. 18, 2014.

Head Coach Aaron Johnston

■ In his 16th season as head coach of the South Dakota State women's basketball team, Aaron Johnston has taken the Jackrabbit program to the top of NCAA Division II and is leading SDSU to national prominence at the Division I level.

■ Johnston has a career record of 366-126 (.743 winning percentage), ranking first on the SDSU career victories list. Johnston posted his 350th career victory March 10, 2015, against South Dakota. His career totals have included a 114-22 record (.838 winning percentage) in Summit League regular-season games, a 18-1 mark in Summit League postseason tournament contests and a 23-12 mark (.657 winning percentage) in post-season games.

■ The Summit League Coach of the Year in each of the Jackrabbits' first two seasons in the league and again during the 2011-12 and 2013-14 seasons, Johnston was named a finalist for the 2009 Naismith Award as the nation's top coach. SDSU tied a school record for victories in a season with 32 during the 2008-09 campaign and gained national attention by vaulting into the top 25 in December after nonconference victories over the likes of Wisconsin, Utah, Minnesota and Gonzaga. The Jackrabbits were ranked in the final 13 USA Today/ESPN regular season coaches' polls, climbing as high as 14th in the coaches' poll and 16th in the Associated Press poll. SDSU finished the 2008-09 season ranked 19th in the coaches' poll.

Guebert Making Early Impact

■ South Dakota State guard Madison Guebert is establishing herself as one of the top freshmen in The Summit League. Consider:

■ She started her first collegiate game at guard and played 27 minutes.

■ Nov. 13 in the season opener against Marist, Guebert had career highs for points (11), assists (4), steals (2) and 3-pointers (3).

■ Guebert made her first two free throw attempts of her career.

Jackrabbits Attendance Mark

■ Since the Johnston era began in 2000-01, South Dakota State has averaged 2,252 fans per game.

■ SDSU averaged 2,117 last season during the regular season.

■ The Jackrabbits led The Summit League in overall home attendance and in league games by more than 400 fans last year. They ranked 73rd in the NCAA in overall attendance.

Frost Magic

■ The Jackrabbits regularly play before large crowds at Frost Arena, drawing an average of more than 2,000 fans per game eight of the last nine seasons.

■ The top four largest crowds since the Jacks opened play in Frost in 1972-73 have been vs. South Dakota.

■ Prior to the Coyotes joining The Summit League, SDSU defeated USD, 86-69, Jan. 16, 2003, in front of the largest women's basketball crowd—7,814.

■ The largest women's-only crowd to watch the South Dakota State-South Dakota battle was Feb. 15, 2010, when 5,246 fans filled Frost Arena to see the Jacks beat the Coyotes, 67-48.

Tough at Home

■ The Jackrabbits women's basketball team has a decisive home-court advantage at Frost Arena over the past decade.

- 191-26 (.880) under Johnston
- 136-18 (.883) during Division I era
- Two undefeated seasons: 2014-15 and 2008-09
- 35, longest regular-season home win streak (2006-10)

Tough Nonconference Schedule

■ South Dakota State's nonconference schedule is tough. The 2015-16 schedule includes:

- 2015 NCAA Tournament runner-up;
- Two NCAA Final Four teams;
- Six NCAA and four WNIT Tournament teams; and
- Four teams with 2014-15 top 50 RPI rating.

■ The schedule features at least three games against squads that finished in the top 50 in terms of RPI last season—two in the top 10.

■ Notre Dame and Maryland are ranked in the top 10 in RPI and are ranked No. 3 and No. 8 in the Associated Press Poll and No. 3 and No. 6 in the USA Today Sports/ESPN Top 25 Coaches Poll. The Fighting Irish and the Jackrabbits meet for the second time Saturday in Frost Arena and the Terrapins and the Jacks meet for the first time Nov. 27 in the Paradise Jam.

■ Additionally, DePaul is receiving votes in the AP poll and ranked No. 22 in the Coaches poll. Arkansas received seven votes in the AP poll while Green Bay received one vote in both polls.

■ The Jackrabbits host Arkansas Wednesday and DePaul Dec. 15. They travel to Green Bay Dec. 19.

■ In the CollegeInsider Mid-Major Top 25 preseason poll, Green Bay is No. 6 while Northern Iowa (20) and Bowling Green (1) are receiving votes.

Against Ranked Foes

■ South Dakota State is 4-16 vs. ranked foes since 2004-05, but 1-1 in Frost Arena. The Jacks welcome No. 3/3 Notre Dame and RV/No. 22 DePaul to Frost this season.

■ Last season, the Jackrabbits went 1-2, beating then-No. 25 Arkansas in Fayetteville, 80-75 in overtime, but lost to No. 18/20 DePaul in Chicago, 84-62, and No. 10 Oregon State in Corvallis, 74-62.

■ An 83-79 win over then-No. 12 Penn State Dec. 11, 2013, marked the highest-ranked team SDSU has beaten. Its previous high was defeating then-No. 15 Nebraska, 60-55, Nov. 18, 2012, in Frost Arena.

Overseas Please

■ Ena Viso is the Jackrabbits' second international student-athlete and the first from Denmark.

■ Keely Morehead from Perth, Australia, was the first international SDSU women's basketball student-athlete. She played the 1994-95 season.

■ Viso is also the first Jackrabbit to come from the junior college ranks. The guard played two seasons at Northeast Junior College.

Rookies Looking to Make an Impact

■ Time will tell, but the South Dakota State freshman class has a chance to be one of the top overall groups in the last 10 years.

■ Rookies Annabell Graettinger, Madison Guebert, Sydney Palmer and Jessica Mieras will have to top the 2005-06 freshman class that averaged 23.3 points per game.

■ Last year's freshmen of Macy Miller, Ellie Thompson, Alexis Alexander and Tiffaney Flaata came close to knocking off the 2005-06 class, averaging 22.3 ppg.

Single-Season Scoring

■ Macy Miller broke the SDSU single-season freshman scoring record last season and the question is can she break the sophomore record?

■ Based on averaging 13.7 points per game, 29 regular-season games and one game in The Summit League Tournament, Miller would need to up her average to 17.2 to break Brenda Davis' mark of 514 points set in 36 games 2001-02.

■ A long post-season run like the 2001-02 team that reached the D-II Elite Eight will help Miller's chances of breaking the record.

Two Sign National Letters of Intent

■ Head coach Aaron Johnston announced two members of the high school Class of 2016 have signed national letters of intent to play for the Jackrabbits next season.

■ Signing the first day of the early signing period, were:
- Megan Bultsma, 6-3, center, Plankinton, S.D. (Plankinton/Mount Vernon High School)

- Sydney Tracy, 6-0, guard, Albertville, Minn. (St. Michael-Albertville High School)

880 and Counting

■ SDSU's victory over Oakland Dec. 29, 2011, was the 800th in the women's basketball program's history. Since starting women's basketball at South Dakota State in 1966-67 with a 6-0 mark, the Jacks have compiled an overall record of 880-383 (.696 winning percentage).

■ In addition, SDSU sealed its 29th consecutive winning season in 2014-15 between competing at the NCAA Division II and Division I levels. The Jackrabbits' last losing season was an 11-16 campaign during the 1985-86 season.

Climbing the Charts

- Head coach Aaron Johnston is currently climbing the Summit League coaches charts.
- Johnston leads the league in career winning percentage (195-70, .736) and Summit League winning percentage (114-22, .838) and is fourth in overall victories (195) and fifth in Summit League victories (114).

Family Ties

- Two members of the 2014-15 Jackrabbits women's basketball team are following in the footsteps of older sisters—both of whom are in the SDSU 1,000-Point Club.
- Gabby Boever is the second from her family to play for the Jackrabbits. The Worthington, Minn., native follows her older sister, Maria, who scored 1,360 points during a career that spanned the 2007-10 seasons.
- Chloe Cornemann's older sister, Ketty, also lettered for the Jackrabbits from 2007-10, finishing her scoring at SDSU with 1,042 points. Their father, Dave, was an NCAA Division II national champion wrestler for the Jackrabbits at 167 pounds in 1984.
- Sophomore forward Clarissa Ober's father, Cullen, played basketball for the Jackrabbits from 1987-90.

Academic Success

- The South Dakota State women's basketball team continued its track record of academic success, ranking 21st among Division I programs in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's Academic Top 25 with a 3.427 team GPA during the 2014-15 academic year.

- SDSU led all divisions of women's college basketball three consecutive seasons from 2005-06 through 2007-08. The Jackrabbits added their fourth D-I team academic title during the 2010-11 season.

Jackrabbit Insider

- Throughout the 2015-16 women's basketball season, head coach Aaron Johnston will be a guest on the "Jackrabbit Insider," a weekly behind-the-scenes look at South Dakota State athletics.
- The half-hour television show, which features interviews with Jackrabbits coaches and student-athletes, airs Sundays at 10:30 p.m. on MyUTV, 11 p.m. on KELO-TV.
- It will also air on KCLO-TV in Rapid City at 10 p.m. Mountain Time on Sundays. MyUTV is cable channel 10 in most areas and 11.2 over the air.
- There will also be additional airings on SDSU's Cable Channel 2 in the Brookings area.
- Online, the show can be viewed at GoJacks.com.

What's Next

- SDSU continues its three-game homestand when hosts No. 3/3 Notre Dame Saturday at 4 p.m. in the friendly confines of Frost Arena. Notre Dame opened its season with an 85-54 win over Bucknell Nov. 15 and hosts Toledo Wednesday.
