RAZORBACK NOTES

HOGS HOT START - With their two wins on Wednesday against Grand Canyon, the Razorbacks sit at 24-6 on the year and 7-2 in conference play. The 24 wins is the best 30-game start for Arkansas since going an identical 24-6 to start the 2010 season. That year, the Hogs won 33 of their first 39 games. The seven conference wins this year matches their entire SEC win total from a year ago and have done it with a collective effort from the lineup that is batting .290 as a team and a pitching staff that has a 3.32 combined ERA.

K-ZORBACKS - Like their offensive counterparts, the Razorback pitching staff has been nearly lights out this season. Coming off an 18-strikeout performance against Grand Canyon during the midweek, Arkansas now has 317 strikeouts as a staff, which leads the SEC. The 18 strikeouts on Wednesday tied the school record (2009, Missouri State) for most strikeouts in a game and this year's Hogs have notched 18 games with 10 or more strikeouts.

WELCOME TO THE PARTY - Junior infielder Jared Gates had to wait a little longer to make his Division I debut this season after transferring from Iowa Western Community College. Gates suffered a broken hamate bone in his right hand one week before the season opener. Since returning against New Orleans (March 22), Gates is hitting .333 with two doubles and a home run. started six games at third base and is currently on a four-game hitting streak. During that span, the junior is hitting .467 with two multi-hit games, including a three-hit game against Alabama (March 31).

SOOOIEVILLE SLUGGERS - The Razorbacks have been hitting home runs at an unreal pace this year. Currently leading the SEC with 40 home runs this year, the Hogs have nine more home runs than Mississippi State, which is second in the league in long balls. The 40 homers is also the ninth-most in the country, trailing first-place Virginia Tech by 17. Arkansas is the only team in the SEC with multiple players with seven or more home runs this year. Catcher Grant Koch is fourth in the SEC with eight home runs, while infielder Carson Shaddy and outfielder Dominic Fletcher each have seven long balls.

Total HR	Total Runs	Pct. of Runs
40	214	48%

THE DARK KNIGHT RISES - Sophomore Blaine Knight has been the Friday night starter since Opening Day for the Razorbacks, but his numbers have improved since hitting conference play. In his first three starts of 2017, Knight only had one quality start and totaled one victory. In his last three starts, Knight has three quality starts, all against SEC teams (Mississippi State, Missouri, and Alabama) and has struck out seven or more batters all three times.

#PROHOGS ON OPENING DAY ROSTERS - Eight former Razorbacks are on Opening Day rosters as the 2017 Major League Baseball season gets underway this week. Outfielder Andrew Benin-

tendi highlights the class as he's scheduled to start what will be his first full rookie season for the Boston Red Sox. Four players will be with new teams as Logan Forsythe starts his first year with the Dodgers, Craig Gentry with the Orioles, Blake Parker with the Angels and Drew Smyly with the Mariners.

FLETCHER HAS THE POWER - Freshman Dominic Fletcher hasn't needed long to get used to the college game. The California native has started in centerfield for 26 of Arkansas' 30 games and is hitting .270 with six home runs. The long ball total is currently the most by an SEC freshman this season and is the most by a Razorback freshman since Zach Cox had 13 during the 2009 season, setting the Arkansas freshman record.

CALIFORNIA DREAMIN' - Senior Jake Arledge has made big strides in his second year with the Hogs compared to his first year. The senior is currently leading the team with a .362 average and already surpassed his home run, hit and RBI totals from 2016.

NONE SHALL PASS - After 30 games of the regular season, Arkansas pitchers have boasted some of the best strikeout-to-walk ratios in the country. As a team, the Razorbacks have allowed 89 walks, compared to 317 strikeouts, good for a 3.56 ratio, which is sixth in the country. Sophomore Blaine Knight has allowed just two walks in his seven appearances and has an astounding strikeout to walk ratio.

NCAA Leaders - Strikeout-to-Walk Ratio

Rank	Name (Team)	K/BB
1.	Blaine Knight (Arkansas)	24.00
2.	Nate Harris (La. Tech)	16.67
3.	David Peterson (Oregon)	16.50
4.	Brendan Hornung (Hawaii)	14.00
5.	Rollie Lacy (Creighton)	12.33

SHADDY PICKS UP THE PACE WITH THE BAT - Since conference play began three weeks ago, infielder Carson Shaddy's offensive numbers have been off the charts. Through the first nine SEC games, Shaddy is batting .333 (12-for-36) with three home runs and a slugging percentage of .694, the fourth-highest among all SEC players. Even thought Shaddy struggled last week against Alabama, he came through with the go-ahead two-RBI single in the ninth inning to break a 5-5 tie. Shaddy was 1-for-12 prior to that at-bat.

GETTING BETTER WITH TIME - Junior pitcher Trevor Stephan had only been a pitcher for two seasons before arriving at Arkansas, but he looks like a seasoned veteran on the mound after his first seven starts to the year. Stephan has been the Saturday starter for all seven weekends this year and has only given up more than two earned runs twice. Stephan is currently second among Hog pitchers with a 2.92 ERA and a 4-2 record. He currently has the second-most strikeouts per nine innings (12.16) in the conference. His 13 strikeouts against Rhode Island were the most by a Razorback since Jess Todd had 17 in the 2007 SEC Tournament against South Carolina and his 50 strikeouts through the first 30 games was the most by a Razorback since Nick Schmidt, an All-American, totaled 56 through seven starts in the 2006 season.

JOHNSON RETURNS TO HOME STATE - 2017 will mark the first season with the Razorbacks for new pitching coach Wes Johnson. A Sherwood, Arkansas native, Johnson takes over for long time pitching coach Dave Jorn, who stepped down last summer. Johnson spent one season at Mississippi State and four seasons at Dallas Baptist before arriving at Arkansas. Last season, with the Bulldogs, Johnson developed a pitching staff that improved its ERA by more than a full run and won 44 games, its most since 1997. Johnson helped developed All-American and MLB first round pick Dakota Hudson, who won nine games and had 115 strikeouts in 2016.

HEAD OF HIS CLASS - In his career, Dave Van Horn has reached the College World Series six times, twice at Nebraska and four times at Arkansas. That total is the most for any current head coach in the SEC. Both Paul Mainieri of LSU and Kevin O'Sullivan of Florida have reached the College World Series five times.

95 YEARS IN THE MAKING - The 2017 season will mark the 95th season of Razorback Baseball and 15th with head coach Dave Van Horn. Since Van Horn took over, the Hogs have reached the College World Series four times, including twice in the last five years.

BRINGING THE NOISE - For the 12th straight year, Arkansas placed in the top five in the nation in total and average attendance after the 2016 season. With 7,815 fans per game and despite playing just 34 home games, the Razorbacks continued to draw the fans, finishing fourth in average attendance. A total of 265,718 fans visited Baum Stadium during the 2016 season, good for fifth in the country.

After finishing his 14th season at the helm of the Arkansas baseball program in 2015-16, head coach Dave Van Horn continues to elevate the Razorbacks to one of the nation's premier teams year in and year out. Over his 14 seasons as head Hog, Van Horn has led Arkansas to four College World Series appearances, 13 NCAA Tournament berths, one Southeastern Conference overall title, three SEC Western Division championships and a total of 550 wins.

The highly decorated coach has both individual and team honors throughout his 27-year coaching resume, beginning at Texarkana (Texas) Community College all the way through the present. Individually, he has been named national coach of the year twice, regional coach of the year twice and conference coach of the year four times. His teams have made six College World Series appearances, won five outright conference championships, a Division II National Championship and made 17 appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Van Horn is one of only 11 coaches in NCAA history to lead two programs to the College World Series.

Since joining the Razorbacks as head coach, Van Horn has led his teams to an SEC Championship, three SEC Western Division titles, 14 NCAA Tournament berths and four College World Series appearances. His players have earned 17 All-America honors, 24 All-SEC nods, 104 SEC Academic Honor Roll spots and 11 Capital One Academic All-District accolades. Not resting on his laurels, Van Horn has kept his competitive juices flowing as he seeks to bring a national championship to his alma mater.

With Van Horn's success over the years, fans have also flocked to Baum Stadium and last year was no different. In 2016, Arkansas finished fourth in the nation in average attendance (7,815) and fifth in total attendance (265,718). It's the fourth straight year that Arkansas has finished in the top-five nationally in attendance, while boasting one of the best stadiums in college baseball.
