RAZORBACK NOTES

HOGS GET MEMPHIS FOR TWO-GAME MIDWEEK SERIES - With a series sweep of Georgia behind it, Arkansas will go for its 10th-straight midweek win on Tuesday when it hosts Memphis at Baum Stadium. The Hogs won their lone game against the Tigers last year in Memphis, and have been winners of eight of their last nine in the series. This will be the first meeting between the two teams in Fayetteville since 1994, but Wednesday's game at Dickey-Stephens Park will be third between the two teams in North Little Rock, Arkansas since 2011.

BONFIELD NAMED SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Junior outfielder Luke Bonfield was named the SEC Player of the Week on Monday after hitting .400 over the last four games with two home runs and 11 RBIs. The New Jersey native was a tough out over the weekend against Georgia, going 5-for-14 (.357) at the plate with four of those hits coming with runners on base and three with two outs. His two-out home run in the seventh inning of game two against Georgia completed a two-run comeback to give the Hogs their first lead of the game, which they would go on to win, 5-4, in 10 innings.

LETHAL WITH TWO OUTS - Arkansas has been one of the SEC's best hitting teams with outs this year. In just the series against Georgia, Hog hitters hit .409 with two outs and .385 with runners on base. In Friday's 5-4, 10-inning victory, all of the Razorbacks' runs except the winning run were scored with two outs, including Luke Bonfield's go-ahead home run in the seventh. Overall, Arkansas is hitting .289 with two outs as a team and Jake Arledge leads all players with 16 hits in 33 at-bats (.485) with two outs.

RANKINGS CHECK - Arkansas continues to move up in the national rankings after a perfect 4-0 weekend that included wins over Missouri

State and a series sweep against Georgia. The Razorbacks are as high as No. 9 in the nation according to Collegiate Baseball magazine this week, its highest in any poll this season. The Hogs also moved up to No. 18 in the NCAA Ratings Percentage Index (RPI), the fifth-highest team in the SEC.

REINDL MOVING UP THE LADDER - Sophomore Jake Reindl has been one of Arkansas' strongest arms out of the bullpen as of late and it may mean a more expanded role in the weeks to come. In each of his 11 appearances this year, Reindl has yet to give up more than two earned runs and has seven scoreless outings, six consisting of two or more innings. In two of his last four appearances, the sophomore has totaled five strikeouts, both against SEC opponents (Alabama, LSU).

KNIGHT NAMED TO GOLDEN SPIKES WATCH LIST

Sophomore right-handed pitcher Blaine Knight was one of 40 players across the nation named to the Golden Spikes Award Midseason Watch List this week. Knight follows former teammate Zach Jackson, who was on the preseason watch list last year, and former Hog outfielder Andrew Benintendi, who won the award in 2015 as the nation's top player. Knight has six wins on the year, five in conference play and is one of two starting pitchers in the SEC with a sub-2.00 ERA against conference opponents.

KACEY MURPHY MID-WEEK ALL-STAR - Sophomore Kacey Murphy has been one of the bright spots in Arkansas' recent play in midweek games. Having started in five of his last seven appearances, with all five starts coming in midweek games, Murphy has built up a 3.71 ERA, allowing no more than three runs in any of those last seven appearances. Last week, against Grand Canyon (April 5), Murphy struck out a career-high 10 batters over four innings, without allowing a run or a walk. It's the second time this year he's struck out nine or more batters and is one of four Razorbacks with at least one 10+ strikeout performance this year.

SPANBERGER HITTING BERGER BOMBS - Since conference play began, junior Chad Spanberger has been hitting on a different level. Leading the team with a .354 batting average in 15 conference games, Spanberger is slugging a ridiculous .677 and leads the team with 23 hits, six home runs, 25 RBIs, and is second with 16 runs scored. His RBI total leads all players in the SEC and his home run total is tied for third.

K-ZORBACKS - Like their offensive counterparts, the Razorback pitching staff has been nearly lights out this season. Coming off an 18-strikeout performance against Grand Canyon two weeks, Arkansas struck out seven or more batters in all three games against No. 13 LSU, and six or more in all three games against Georgia. The Hogs now have 377 strikeouts as a staff, which leads the SEC. The 18 strikeouts against Grand Canyon tied the school record (2009, Missouri State) for most strikeouts in a game and this year's Hogs have notched 20 games with 10 or more strikeouts.

WELCOME TO THE PARTY - Junior infielder Jared Gates had to wait a little longer to make his Division I debut this season after transferring from Iowa Western Community College. Gates suffered a broken hamate bone in his right hand one week before the season opener. Since returning against New Orleans (March 22), Gates is hitting .271 with two doubles and two home runs. Gates has started 13 games at third base and was recently on a five-game hitting streak before having it snapped on against No. 13 LSU. During that span, the junior was hitting .500 with three multi-hit games, including a three-hit game against Alabama (March 31) and No. 13 LSU (April 7).

After finishing his 14th season at the helm of the Arkansas baseball program in 2015-16, head coach Dave Van Horn continues to elevate the Razorbacks to one of the nation's premier teams year in and year out. Over his 14 seasons as head Hog, Van Horn has led Arkansas to four College World Series appearances, 13 NCAA Tournament berths, one Southeastern Conference overall title, three SEC Western Division championships and a total of 550 wins.

The highly decorated coach has both individual and team honors throughout his 27-year coaching resume, beginning at Texarkana (Texas) Community College all the way through the present. Individually, he has been named national coach of the year twice, regional coach of the year twice and conference coach of the year four times. His teams have made six College World Series appearances, won five outright conference championships, a Division II National Championship and made 17 appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Van Horn is one of only 11 coaches in NCAA history to lead two programs to the College World Series.

Since joining the Razorbacks as head coach, Van Horn has led his teams to an SEC Championship, three SEC Western Division titles, 14 NCAA Tournament berths and four College World Series appearances. His players have earned 17 All-America honors, 24 All-SEC nods, 104 SEC Academic Honor Roll spots and 11 Capital One Academic All-District accolades. Not resting on his laurels, Van Horn has kept his competitive juices flowing as he seeks to bring a national championship to his alma mater.

With Van Horn's success over the years, fans have also flocked to Baum Stadium and last year was no different. In 2016, Arkansas finished fourth in the nation in average attendance (7,815) and fifth in total attendance (265,718). It's the fourth straight year that Arkansas has finished in the top-five nationally in attendance, while boasting one of the best stadiums in college baseball.
