On June 4, 2017, Arkansas Baseball had one of the wildest days at the ballpark in program history. Facing elimination in the NCAA Fayetteville Regional, the Hogs needed to win two games in the same day to get to a winner-take-all regional final. What unfolded over a 10-hour span was not only memorable for the players and coaches, but also for the 3,000+ fans that stuck around through two rain delays and witnessed an exciting early morning finish.

COACHING STAFF

2 DAVE VAN HORN

Head Coach • 16th Season At Arkansas • 4 SEC Championships
6 Career CWS Appearances • 18 Career NCAA Appearances

After 15 years as head coach of the Razorback Baseball program, Dave Van Horn has continued to elevate Arkansas into one of the nation's premier teams year in and year out. Over his 15 seasons as head Hog, Van Horn has led Arkansas to four College World Series appearances, 14 NCAA Tournament berths, one Southeastern Conference overall title, three SEC Western Division championships and a total of 595 wins, averaging nearly 40 wins a season.

Ever since returning to his alma mater in 2003 to take over for retiring SEC legend Norm DeBriyn, Van Horn has continued to successfully field nationally competitive teams, while also grooming numerous All-Americans, all-conference and future Major League players.

Under his guidance, 20 Razorbacks have been named All-Americans, 26 as All-SEC players, and 90 have been picked in the MLB Draft. Those draft picks are the third-most among all active head coaches in the SEC.

Van Horn is the second-winningest coach in Arkansas history with 595 wins entering the 2018 season. With five more victories, he will become just the second active SEC head coach with 600 or more victories at their current school.

Including his years at Nebraska, Northwestern State and Central Missouri State, Van Horn has racked up 966 wins at four-year institutions, which is 18th-most among all active coaches. With 34 more victories, he will become one of 12 active coaches with 1,000 or more wins at four-year schools.

The highly decorated coach has both individual and team honors throughout his 29-year coaching resume, beginning at Texarkana (Texas) Community College all the way through the present. Individually, he has been named national coach of the year twice, regional coach of the year twice and conference coach of the year four times. His teams have made six College World Series appearances, won five outright conference championships, a Division II National Championship and made 17 trips to the NCAA Tournament in the last 18 years. Van Horn is one of only 11 coaches in NCAA history to lead two programs to the College World Series.

Since joining the Razorbacks as head coach, Van Horn has led his teams to an SEC Championship, three SEC Western Division titles, 15 NCAA Tournament berths and four College World Series appearances. His players have earned 20 All-America honors, 26 All-SEC nods, 109 SEC Academic Honor Roll spots and 13 Academic All-District accolades. Not resting on his laurels, Van Horn has kept his competitive juices flowing as he seeks to bring a national championship to his alma mater.

Not only have his players flourished in collegiate baseball, but several have gone on to solid professional baseball careers. More than 100 former players have signed professional contracts, including former Razorback standouts Dallas Keuchel, James McCann, Andrew Benintendi, Logan Forsythe, Drew Smyly, Brett Eibner, Craig Gentry, Mike Bolsinger, Zack Cox, and Jess Todd.

At the end of the 2014 season, Bolsinger (Dodgers), Forsythe (Rays), Keuchel (Astros), McCann (Tigers) and Smyly (Rays) were all playing at the big league level. Keuchel became the second Razorback to win a Cy Young Award when he won the AL Cy Young Award following a spectacular 2015 season and won his first World Series with the Astros in 2017.

Benintendi, another Van Horn pupil that has taken the MLB scene by storm, shows the caliber of players coming out of Arkansas isn't slowing down. After a meteoric rise through the minor league ranks, Benintendi has already played in two postseasons with the Boston Red Sox and finished second in the American League Rookie of the Year voting last year. The former Hog hit 20 home runs and stole 20 bases to become the youngest left fielder to achieve the feat since Barry Bonds in 1987. He was also the third Red Sox rookie to have that kind of campaign, joining Normal Garciaparra and Ellis Burks.

Van Horn was successful from the moment he took over the program from legendary head coach Norm DeBriyn in 2003. During his first season, Van Horn guided his inaugural squad to both the SEC and NCAA Tournaments. His team was ranked in all four major baseball polls throughout the year and picked up series wins at No. 6 South Carolina and No. 5 Auburn.

The success of the program and Van Horn's no-nonsense approach to his team has endeared him to the Razorback faithful. The Arkansas fan base has grown steadily since Van Horn was given the reins of the program and three renovations have been completed at Baum Stadium since his arrival to accommodate the growing numbers.

For the 13th-straight year, Arkansas placed in the top five of the nation in total and average attendance after the 2017 season. With 8,269 fans per game over 35 home dates, a total of 289,421 fans visited Baum Stadium, good for second in the country.

Baum Stadium, already one of the nicest collegiate baseball parks in the nation, has grown with the addition of nearly 5,000 chair back seats, 32 luxury boxes and now has a capacity of 10,737. Prior to the 2016 season, a 71 by 25 + foot videoboard was installed to dramatically improve in-game experience and is one of the largest videoboards in the country.

DAVE VAN HORN

One of the things that Van Horn is known for is recruiting fundamental players and molding them into the stars of tomorrow. In his first season with Arkansas, only two Razorbacks were taken in the Major League Baseball first year player draft. That number has grown significantly over the years with a school-record 11 players being drafted in the 2013 MLB Draft. Five of Arkansas' stars, Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008), Zack Cox (2010), Ryne Stanek (2013) and Andrew Benintendi (2015) were selected in the first round of the draft and 34 players have been picked in the first 10 rounds since he took over, with Trevor Stephan (3rd round, New York Yankees), Chad Spanberger (6th round, Colorado Rockies), Cannon Chadwick (9th round, New York Mets), and Dominic Taccolini (10th round, San Diego Padres) all going in the top 10 rounds in the 2017 draft.

A year after missing the NCAA Tournament for the first time since becoming head coach at Arkansas, Van Horn was determined to not only right the ship in 2017, but return to the high level of success that the Razorbacks have enjoyed for decades.

A 19-game turnaround translated to a 45-win season for the Razorbacks, their seventh 40-win season in the last 10 years. Arkansas also hosted an NCAA Regional for the first time since 2010, reaching the final game against Missouri State in what was the sixth regional ever played at Baum Stadium.

A pivotal part of the season that led to that regional host came in the final month at the SEC Tournament. After multiple delays led to Arkansas not even playing its first game until two days after the scheduled date, the Hogs battled back from a first round loss to Mississippi State to run the table and reach the tournament final for the first time since 2007 and fourth time in school history.

The tournament turned out to be the Chad Spanberger show as he earned tournament MVP honors with two multi-home run games and tournament single-game records for home runs (3 vs. Auburn) and RBIs (7 vs. Auburn). In the five games of the tournament, Spanberger led all players with 10 RBIs, three doubles, five home runs, and 26 total bases.

Arkansas led all SEC teams during the season and finished tied for ninth in the nation with 83 home runs. Spanberger led the team with 20 home runs, good for second in the SEC and ninth in the nation. He was just the sixth player in program history to hit 20 or more home runs in a single season.

Across the board, Arkansas' hitters were among the best in the country in 2017. Joining Spanberger, catcher Grant Koch (13), and outfielder Dominic Fletcher (12) also hit 10 or more home runs making Arkansas one of two teams in the SEC to have three players with 10 or more home runs. For Fletcher, his 12 home runs were just one less than the Arkansas freshman record for home runs in a season as he not only earned an SEC All-Freshman Team nod, but was also named a Freshman All-American by the National College Baseball Writer's Association (NCBWA) and Baseball America.

With the monstrous final month performance by Spanberger, he joined five other Razorbacks that were drafted in the 2017 MLB First-Year Player Draft. Trevor Stephan (3rd round, New York Yankees) led the class, followed by Spanberger (6th round, Colorado), Cannon Chadwick (9th round, New York Mets), Dominic Taccolini (10th round, San Diego), Blaine Knight (29th round, Texas), and Josh Alberius (36th round, Miami). Knight opted to return to Fayetteville for his junior season.

The 2015 season might have been one of the most memorable in Razorback history. Arkansas rebounding from a 15-15 record on April 4 to win 18 of their final 25 regular season games and surge into postseason play. After going 2-2 in the SEC Tournament, the Hogs became one of five teams in the country to advance to 14 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, claiming the No. 2 seed in the Stillwater Regional hosted by Oklahoma State.

In what is likely Van Horn's best coaching job in his 27-year career, the Razorbacks went 3-0 in the Stillwater Regional and came back home to host the second Super Regional in program history, knocking off Missouri State in three games for the most improbable College World Series appearance in Arkansas' storied history. Van Horn made his sixth trip to Omaha, including his fourth as the Razorback skipper. He currently has the second-most College World Series appearances among all head coaches in the SEC.

During the run to Omaha, sophomore outfielder Andrew Benintendi put together arguably the finest season in Razorback history. Benintendi became the first Arkansas player to win the Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's best amateur player. He also won the Dick Howser Trophy and was named Baseball America Player of the Year and Collegiate Baseball Player of the Year as the nation's best collegiate player.

Benintendi became just the third player in SEC history to lead the league in home runs and batting average as he joined Rafael Palmeiro (Mississippi State, 1984) and Jeff Abbott (Kentucky, 1994) as the only players in conference history to accomplish the feat. He became the first player in school history to lead the nation in home runs (20) and became the first Division I player since 2009 to hit 20 home runs and steal 20 bases in one season. His historic season was capped by being selected No. 7 overall by the Boston Red Sox in the 2015 MLB Draft, the highest a Razorback has been drafted since Jeff King went No. 1 overall in 1986.

The 2015 Razorbacks finished 40-25, the sixth time in the past seven seasons that Arkansas won 40 or more games. Four players were selected in the MLB Draft, including Benintendi, and four Razorbacks earned conference honors. Benintendi was named the SEC Player of the Year while relief pitcher Zach Jackson was named First Team All-SEC, third baseman Bobby Wernes earned SEC All-Defensive Team honors and right-handed pitcher Keaton McKinney was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

The Razorbacks finished 2015 at No. 2 in the country in average attendance for the third straight year with 8,290 fans per game. The 12,167 fans that attended the June 6 Super Regional game against Missouri State was the largest crowd in stadium history and the third-largest Super Regional crowd in NCAA history. Arkansas also set school records for actual attendance and tickets sold for a single game during the 2015 season.

In 2014, Van Horn led the Razorbacks to their 13th consecutive NCAA Tournament, making the program one of seven teams in the country to advance to the NCAA Tournament each of the last 13 seasons. Arkansas surged into the SEC Tournament as the No. 7 seed after winning six of its final seven regular season games. The Razorbacks made plenty of noise in Hoover, defeating Texas A&M in the opening round, before knocking off No. 10 Ole Miss twice and advancing to the semifinals against LSU.

Arkansas then received an at-large bid to the NCAA Charlottesville Regional as the No. 2 seed and defeated Liberty and Bucknell to advance to the program's sixth-straight regional final, but the Razorbacks saw their season come to an end against Virginia, who finished as the National Runner-up in Omaha.

Arkansas continued to push its best talent to the next level following the season, as six players were taken in the 2014 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, with five of those signing professional deals.

Following the 2014 season, Van Horn's coaching duties were far from finished as he became the manager of the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team. Leading the best collegiate players in the country against some of the top teams in the world, Van Horn and Team USA battled Chinese Taipei in a five-game series, Japan in a three-game set and made trips to The Netherlands and Cuba. The squad finished with an overall record of 18-8-2 and captured the Haarlem-Honkbal Week Championship in The Netherlands after defeating Japan 6-3 in the title game. It was the second time Van Horn donned the Stars and Stripes in his coaching career, as he served as an assistant coach on the Collegiate National Team in the summer of 2011.

Arkansas finished the 2013 season with a 39-22 record and an 18-11 mark in SEC play. The Razorbacks' 18 wins in league play were the most since 2010 and Arkansas won seven of 10 conference series for the first time since the 2004 season. The Razorbacks reached the regional final of the NCAA Manhattan Regional. After dropping the opening game of the regional to Bryant, Arkansas bounced back with victories over Wichita State and Bryant before falling to host school Kansas State in the regional championship.

Following the season, Arkansas set a school record with 11 players taken in the 2013 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. The 11 players drafted also was the most in the country, as 10 of those went on to sign professional contracts.

For the third time in his Arkansas tenure, Van Horn guided the Razorbacks to Omaha and the College World Series in 2012. Arkansas used a dominant pitching staff, timely hitting and strong defense to win the Houston Regional and Waco Super Regional to advance to the seventh College World Series in program history. The Razorbacks won their first two games of the College World Series and finished in a tie for third, equaling the second-best finish to a season in school history. Arkansas finished the season with a 46-22 record, the most wins for UA under Van Horn and the sixth-highest single-season win total in school history. The Razorbacks also won 40 games for the fourth straight season and for the 18th time in program history. Arkansas finished the season ranked in the top six in all four of the major college baseball polls, including a No. 3 national ranking in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll, the NCBWA poll and the Collegiate Baseball poll.

Arkansas had a knack for winning the close games in 2012. The Razorbacks played 32 games decided by one or two runs and went 19-13 in those games. Arkansas was 14-9 in one-run games during the 2012 season and had a streak of seven straight one-run victories late in the season. Six of the Razorbacks' seven wins in the NCAA Tournament were by one run, including a pair of 1-0 victories.

Van Horn reached a milestone as the Razorback head coach in 2012 as he earned his 400th win at Arkansas during UA's NCAA Tournament run. Van Horn's 400th win was a significant one as it came against Rice in the Houston Regional. The 1-0 victory over the eighth-ranked Owls put the Razorbacks in the driver's seat of the regional, which they would eventually win with a 5-1 win over Sam Houston State.

In what many people saw as a rebuilding season in 2011, Van Horn guided the Razorbacks to the program's fourth SEC Western Division championship and to the NCAA Tournament. After posting a 38-20 overall record through the SEC Tournament, the Razorbacks were sent to the NCAA Tempe Regional hosted by Arizona State. After dropping its opening game of the regional, Arkansas rallied to reach the regional championship game before eventually falling to the Sun Devils. Arkansas finished the season with a 40-22 record and closed the season ranked in the top 25 of every major poll with an RPI of 14.

Van Horn led Arkansas to the NCAA Tournament for the ninth consecutive year in 2010. The Razorbacks also reached the Super Regional round in back-to-back years for the first time in program history. On the strength of a 40-18 record after the SEC Tournament, the Razorbacks were selected to host an NCAA Regional for the fifth time in school history. Arkansas advanced to the Super Regionals with a 7-2 victory over Washington State in a winner-take-all regional championship game. In the Super Regionals, the Razorbacks went toe-to-toe with the tournament's top seed, Arizona State, on its home field. Arkansas lost a pair of 12-inning heartbreakers to finish the season with a 43-21 record.

Van Horn achieved three coaching milestones during the 2010 regular season. The Razorback skipper picked up his 300th win at Arkansas on April 9 in an 8-3 win over Mississippi State. On February 27 in a 10-8 win over Troy, Van Horn earned his 600th win as a Division I head coach. He recorded career win No. 900 on May 21 in a 4-3 victory at Vanderbilt.

For the second time in his Razorback coaching career, Van Horn and his team made the ultimate postseason push and collected the program's sixth trip to Omaha for the 2009 College World Series. Rebounding from a late-season slump, Arkansas advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Baseball Tournament, before earning its eighth-consecutive berth into an NCAA Regional. Supported by their fans, the Razorbacks hit the road and swept their way through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, besting Washington State and national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State along the way. In Omaha, Arkansas won two games and tied for a third-place national finish, equaling the 1985 team for the second-best finish in program history.

The 2009 regular season had its share of highlights, too. The Razorbacks jumped out to an 8-0 start in SEC play for the first time in program history. The club achieved another first when Collegiate Baseball released its April 6 poll with Arkansas ranked No. 1, the first top ranking by any publication in program history. Arizona State was also ranked No. 1 the same week in a different poll and were coming to Fayetteville for a pair of midweek games, marking the first No. 1 vs. No. 1 matchup at Baum Stadium. Arkansas solidified its top billing by knocking off the Sun Devils in both games.

In the finale against Arizona State, the Razorbacks had the support of a then-Baum Stadium-record 11,014 fans. That number is a significant reminder of the traditionally strong attendance figures for the Arkansas baseball team. In 2009, the Razorbacks finished No. 2 in national attendance with an average of 7,906 fans per game.

Hitting was the focal point in some seasons, while pitching dominated in others, but Van Horn knows that to accomplish his ultimate goal it takes a total team effort. In 2007, Arkansas won the Razorbacks' third SEC Western Division title, when they went 18-12 in league play. The Razorbacks were 43-21 overall, hosted their fourth NCAA Regional and finished the season No. 18 in the final Collegiate Baseball rankings.

That team was one of Van Horn's best in terms of individual pitching prospects. Two-time first-team All-American Nick Schmidt was taken by the San Diego Padres in the first round of the MLB Draft (No. 23 overall). Right-handers Jess Todd and Duke Welker were each taken in the second round by St. Louis and Pittsburgh, respectively. Todd also earned second-team All-America honors.

Schmidt's success on the mound was a continuation of his 2006 season, when the lefty was named the SEC Pitcher of the Year by the league coaches. The Razorbacks went 39-21 that season and hosted another NCAA Regional.

A hot start to the 2005 season had the Razorbacks ranked as high as No. 5 nationally as they opened the year 20-2, but a rash of bad luck sidetracked what was shaping up to be a magical year. Despite the setbacks, the Razorbacks did come just a breath away from pulling one of the nation's biggest upsets as it won its first two games at the NCAA Austin Regional. Arkansas would go all the way to the final game of the regional before losing to eventual national champion Texas.

Arkansas' 2004 season was one for the history books as the Razorbacks won 45 games, shared the SEC regular-season title, hosted NCAA Regional and Super Regional games and made its fifth appearance at the College World Series. The following all came true despite the Razorbacks getting picked to finish last in the SEC's Western Division by the league coaches. Along the way, Arkansas won 19 SEC games, swept a weekend series in Baton Rouge, Louisiana against No. 2 LSU and dispatched a tough Florida State team in the Super Regional in two games. The Razorback sweep of LSU was the first time since 1988 that the Tigers had been swept at home by a conference opponent. The Razorback accomplishments led to a top 10 finish in all four major collegiate baseball polls, including a No. 6 ranking by Baseball America.

Prior to taking the helm of the Arkansas program on June 21, 2002, Van Horn enjoyed a very successful five-year run as the head coach at the University of Nebraska. In a short period of time, he built a once-fledgling program into a national powerhouse. Prior to his arrival, the Cornhuskers had made just four postseason appearances in 108 years of baseball history. With their new skipper on the bench, Nebraska went to four NCAA Tournaments and two College World Series.

DAVE VAN HORN

During his stint with Nebraska, Van Horn amassed a 214-92 (.699) record, won three consecutive Big 12 Tournament titles and earned Nebraska's first regular-season conference title in 51 years. He was twice named the American Baseball Coaches Association's Midwest Region Coach of the Year and posted back-to-back 50-win seasons in 2000 and 2001. In his second season with Nebraska, Van Horn guided his club to its first NCAA Tournament berth in 18 years after it won the Big 12 Tournament, its first title of any kind in nearly 50 years.

Similar to what he has done at Arkansas, Nebraska's players shined with Van Horn at the helm. The Cornhuskers had at least one player named a finalist for national player of the year honors in three seasons including a pair of Dick Howser Award Finalists. Seven players were named first-team All-America and 26 earned All-Big 12 accolades including a school-record nine in 2000. The Cornhuskers also excelled in the classroom with 30 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big 12 selections (21 first-teamers) and seven players named academic all-district.

Prior to his move to Nebraska, Van Horn coached three seasons with Northwestern State in Natchitoches, Louisiana, his first foray as a head coach in Division I. He went 106-65 (.620) in those three seasons and won two Southland Conference regular-season titles (1995 and 1997). Each title also earned him Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors.

Van Horn spent one season at the Division II level, coaching Central Missouri State in 1994, and his effects there were awe-inspiring. Taking the reins of the program with just six weeks of preparation before the season, the Mules got off to a quick start by winning 12 of their first 13 games and eventually put together a 21-game winning streak. CMSU won the MIAA Conference Championship and the tournament title before eventually dominating at the NCAA Championships to win the school's first national championship. In 2000, Central Missouri honored Van Horn and his 1994 team by inducting them into the Central Missouri State Hall of Fame.

The storied career of Van Horn as a head coach began with a humble start at Texarkana (Texas) Community College in 1989. In five seasons with the Bulldogs, Van Horn guided Texarkana to a 214-72 (.748) record. He set records for single-season wins in four of his five seasons, beginning with his first, and guided his 1992 squad to the NJCAA Texas Eastern Conference Championships. Prior to his first stint as a head coach, Van Horn worked with the man he replaced at Arkansas, DeBryn, for four seasons as a graduate assistant, assisting the Razorbacks to a pair of College World Series. Arkansas was 184-71-1 (.721) while he was a GA and made the NCAA Regional Tournament in each of his four seasons.

Van Horn's playing career was spent in the infield, where he was a highly touted player. Two seasons at McLennan (Texas) Community College earned him All-America, Region 5 Player of the Year, all-conference and all-region honors. The standout defensive third baseman was drafted by the Chicago White Sox, but instead Van Horn transferred to Arkansas.

In one year with the Razorbacks, Van Horn earned All-Southwest Conference honors as well as the team's most valuable player and SWC Newcomer of the Year accolades. Following his junior year, the Atlanta Braves selected Van Horn in the 10th round of the 1982 draft. Van Horn would spend three seasons with the Braves organization before returning to Fayetteville to begin his coaching career.

Van Horn is married to the former Karen Lee. The couple has two daughters, Hollan and Mariel.

WES JOHNSON

Assistant Coach • Pitching Coach
1 NCAA Super Regional • 5 NCAA Regionals

Arkansas-native Wes Johnson was announced as the new Razorback pitching coach on June 15, 2016. Johnson, is a 20-year coaching veteran and originally from Sherwood, Arkansas.

Known nationally for his player development and ability to increase velocity throughout his staff, Johnson arrived in Fayetteville after serving as the pitching coach in the spring of 2016 with Mississippi State. Before that, he spent four years at Dallas Baptist University, helping build the Patriots into a perennial national baseball power.

Combined during his tenures at Dallas Baptist, Mississippi State, and now, Arkansas, Johnson has helped his teams advance to five NCAA Regionals and most recently the Fayetteville Regional that had the Razorbacks in the final. In 2016, Johnson helped Mississippi State to a Super Regional after winning the 2016 SEC Regular Season Championship.

Johnson was able to carry that success over into his first year with the Razorbacks as the Arkansas pitching staff compiled 45 wins, a 19-game turnaround from the year before. Junior Trevor Stephan and sophomore Blaine Knight headlined a staff that racked up a school-record 619 strikeouts for the season. That total also ranked third-highest in the SEC and sixth-most in the country.

The duo also made Arkansas the only school in the nation to have two starting pitchers to have an average fastball velocity over 92 mph and walk less than two batters per nine innings.

Johnson's track record for development is apparent in the fact that he has had 35 pitchers drafted or sign professional contracts in the last 10 years.

This summer, five of Arkansas' six MLB draft picks were pitchers, led by Stephan, who went in the third, round, No. 92 overall, to the New York Yankees. In his one year under Johnson, Stephan improved his draft stock by 15 rounds after being selected in the 18th round by the Boston Red Sox the previous summer.

Stephan finished second on the team in wins with a 6-3 record and was one of two Hog pitchers to throw a complete game shutout last year. He also threw a team-high 91 innings with 29 earned runs allowed, 20 walks, and 120 strikeouts, which was the fifth-highest total by a Razorback in a single season.

Along with Stephan, Cannon Chadwick, Dominic Taccolini, Blaine Knight, and Josh Alberius were each drafted in the 2017 MLB Draft with Knight choosing to return to Arkansas for his junior season. Those selections marked the second-straight year, Johnson had five or more pitchers drafted in the same summer.

In the 2016 MLB Draft, six Mississippi State pitchers were selected in the 2016 MLB Draft. Dakota Hudson was taken in the first round, 34th overall, to the St. Louis Cardinals. The remaining pitchers were each taken in the 20th round or higher. In 2015, while at DBU, Johnson had five pitchers chosen in the first 12 rounds, more than any Southeastern Conference school.

Johnson was one major reason Mississippi State was able to go from worst to first in 2016. After the Bulldogs only totaled eight wins in 2015 and had the highest ERA in the league, Johnson developed MSU's pitching staff into one of the best in the country, helping the team win 44 games, its most since 1997.

Led by Hudson, Mississippi State's team ERA improved by more than a full earned run this year (3.35), while Hudson took home first team All-SEC honors, second team All-America honors from Baseball America and was a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award. Hudson led the team with a 9-5 record and a 2.55 ERA with 115 strikeouts this year.

A key component in Dallas Baptist University winning a school-record 46 games in 2015, Johnson helped DBU host its first NCAA Regional and earning the program's highest final ranking in school history. He had three pitchers earn All-America honors and two more earn all-conference accolades from the Missouri Valley Conference.

Arguably, his greatest success story is former DBU righty Brandon Koch, who arrived in Dallas as a shortstop and left as the greatest closer in school history. Working daily with Johnson, Koch went from a 7.20 ERA his freshman year to breaking the school record with a 0.64 ERA in 2014.

That season he and fellow pitcher Paul Voelker earned first-team All-MVC honors, leading the staff to new school records in strikeouts (506) and batting average against (.248), while winning the MVC Tournament and receiving the No. 2 seed in the TCU Regional.

In 2015, Koch shattered the school record with 15.91 strikeouts per nine innings. As a result, the hard-throwing righty earned All-America honors from four different media outlets in his final year with the Patriots, as well as being named an NCBWA Stopper of the Year finalist.

Prior to DBU, Johnson served as the pitching coach at Central Arkansas for three seasons, where his pitchers set Division I school records in ERA, WHIP, strikeouts, opponent batting average and fewest walks. Johnson had five players who were either drafted or signed professionally during his time in Conway.

Sandwiched in between stints at UCA, Johnson mentored pitchers as an assistant at Southern Arkansas, Led by Hayden Simpson, the 16th overall pick in the 2010 MLB Draft, five more of Johnson's pupils were drafted or went pro. In 2009, he helped lead the Muleriders to a 52-11 overall mark after owning a top-10 ERA nationally while setting school records in strikeouts and fewest walks allowed. The 499 strikeouts broke a Gulf South Conference record and were a big reason why USA was ranked No. 1 in the Division II Top-25 for 20 weeks.

Aside from his collegiate coaching experience, Johnson spent four seasons as the head coach of Abundant Life High School in Sherwood, Arkansas. During his tenure there, Johnson guided the Owls to an impressive 102-25 overall record. In his final two campaigns for ALHS, he led the team to two straight state championship games, which resulted in a state championship in 2006 and a runner-up finish in 2007. While coaching high school and American Legion from 1997-2007, 28 players signed an NCAA Letter of Intent. In addition, four players were drafted.

NATE THOMPSON

Assistant Coach • Recruiting Coordinator
2 NCAA Super Regionals • 3 NCAA Regionals

Nate Thompson was announced as the new Razorback assistant coach and recruiting coordinator on June 16, 2017. Thompson came from Missouri State where he spent the last three seasons.

Thompson recently helped the Bears reach the NCAA Super Regionals as part of a 43-20 season and a Missouri Valley Conference championship. The Bears' offense hit .274 as a team and hit 80 home runs for the second-straight year. With Thompson on staff, Missouri State hit .270 or better in each of the last three seasons and averaged just under seven runs per game.

Thompson was a key reason for the emergence of All-American third baseman Jake Burger, who recently was taken 11th overall in this week's MLB First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago White Sox, and was the first player in Missouri State history to be selected in the first round. Burger led the Bears, offensively, last season, hitting .328 with 22 home runs, 65 RBIs, and a .648 slugging percentage. Burger was named a semifinalist for the Dick Howser Trophy and Golden Spikes Award for the second-straight year. He ranked second among all active Division I hitters with 47 career home runs, while his 241 career hits is the 11th-best total in Missouri State history. Earlier this week, he was named a first team All-American for the third consecutive season, becoming only the second player in MSU history to earn that distinction.

Shortstop Jeremy Eierman, another pupil of Thompson, put together his own All-American season this year, being named a first team All-American by Perfect Game/Rawlings as a shortstop. He hit .313 with 23 home runs and a team-leading 68 RBIs. His home runs are good for fifth nationally and he and Burger form the nation's top home run hitting duo with 45 combined round-trippers this spring.

During the 2015 season, Burger became just the third Bear rookie, along with Mark Bailey (1980) and Bob Blakley (1974), in the 52-year history of the program to be selected for an All-America team (other than an all-freshman squad).

In 2016, the Bears blossomed at the plate under the tutelage of Thompson with an MVC-best .299 team batting mark—their top single-season average since 2009. MSU led the Valley in nearly every major offensive statistical category, including slugging (.500), on-base percentage (.391), runs scored (440), RBIs (412), doubles (121), triples (26), home runs (80) and total bases (1027). The Bears' 80 long balls ranked as the sixth-best total in club history, led by NCAA Division I home run leader Spencer Johnson (24), who earned All-America honors with Burger (21) after ranking No. 1 and No. 2 in the nation, respectively. Three different position players signed professional contracts at the conclusion of Thompson's first season with the Bears, including MVC Defensive Player of the Year Joey Hawkins and all-MVC performer Dylan Becker, who signed with the St. Louis Cardinals, as well as first-team all-conference pick Tate Matheny, who agreed to terms with the Boston Red Sox after being selected in the fourth round of the MLB Draft. Johnson joined the group last year, signing with the Houston Astros after being selected in the 16th round of the 2016 MLB Draft.

Additionally, Thompson's first full year with MSU produced one of the top recruiting classes in program history. Anchored by a home-grown crop of standouts that included nine players rated among the top 31 high school recruits in the state of Missouri by either Perfect Game USA or Prep Baseball Report, the Bears' 2015 recruiting class was ranked 35th in the nation by Collegiate Baseball. Last year, Thompson was named the best recruiter in the Missouri Valley Conference by D1Baseball.com.

Thompson joined the Bears staff in July 2014 as MSU's lead hitting instructor and recruiting coordinator. An assistant coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College for four years, Thompson filled the vacancy left by the retirement of Brent Thomas after 32 years of continuous service on the Bears' staff.

Thompson served as Hutchinson's primary hitting coach from 2011 through the 2014 season, over which time he helped lead the Blue Dragons to a pair of KJCCC West regular-season titles and two of the top five win totals in program history. This past spring Hutchinson broke 17 team or individual school records during a 43-17 campaign that saw it rank among the NJCAA's top 20 nationally in 14 offensive statistical categories. In 2014 alone,

Thompson helped mentor outfielder Matt Jones, a 25th round selection of the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 2014 MLB Draft, Jayhawk West Most Valuable Player Jake Schlep-penbach and national pitcher of the year Kyle Simonds, who became the first player in Hutchinson history to earn first-team All-America recognition.

Over his four-year stint as an assistant coach in Hutchinson, Thompson helped steer a program that averaged 35 wins per season while posting a .613 winning percentage and producing 23 All-Jayhawk West Division selections, eight of which went on to earn NJCAA All-Region VI honors. In 2012, the Blue Dragons logged a 40-17 ledger, including a Jayhawk West Division crown with a 23-9 conference mark. Led by second-team All-American Tanner Lubach, seven Blue Dragons earned all-conference honors that season, with four players signing to continue their careers at the Division I level.

PLAYING HISTORY

2003-2005	Dallas Baptist

Thompson spent three seasons at Nebraska as the Cornhuskers' volunteer assistant prior to his arrival in Hutchinson. In that capacity, he instructed the Husker outfielders and assisted with the infield group, playing key roles in the development of 2008 All-Big 12 performers and MLB draftees Jake Opitz (12th round, Cubs) and Mitch Abeita (19th round, Yankees), who helped Nebraska log an impressive 41-16-1 campaign and earn the right to host an NCAA Regional in Lincoln.

Following the completion of his own collegiate playing career at Dallas Baptist, Thompson began his coaching career as a student assistant with the Patriots. A two-year letterwinner in the DBU outfield, Thompson helped the Patriots claim the 2004 NCCAA national championship after turning in a standout two-year career at Garden City (Kan.) Community College. He was a key figure on the Busters' 2003 Jayhawk West Division championship team, earning NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-America honors.

During the 2006 season, Thompson aided a Dallas Baptist coaching staff that included current Patriots head coach Dan Heefner, working with the DBU outfielders while assisting with hitting instruction and the implementation of the club's strength and conditioning program. The Patriots recorded a .329 team batting mark en route to a 33-23 season and saw a school-record seven players taken in the MLB Draft. From there, Thompson moved into a graduate assistant role at Fort Hays (Kan.) State, where he served as the Tigers' primary hitting and outfield coach during the 2007 campaign. A pair of Tigers earned ABCA All-Central Region recognition under Thompson's tutelage as Fort Hays State finished with a 33-20 overall record.

Additionally, Thompson gained experience during the summer of 2007 as an assistant coach with the Mat-Su Miners of the Alaska Baseball League, where he was nominated for the league's assistant of the year honor. Thompson also served as director of Nebraska's summer baseball camps from 2008-10, overseeing program development and personnel while assisting with the instruction and skill development phases of the camps.

A native of Goodland, Kan., Thompson graduated cum laude with his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Dallas Baptist in 2006 and earned a master's degree in sports administration at Fort Hays State in 2008. He married the former Anna Schardt in 2009, and the couple has two daughters, Nevaeh and Natalie.

CRAIG PARRY

Volunteer Assistant Coach
1st Season • South Dakota State (2008)

Former All-Summit League player and MLB Draft pick Craig Parry has been named the volunteer assistant coach for the Razorback baseball program, head coach Dave Van Horn announced today.

Parry, a native of Colstrip, Montana, is an alum of South Dakota State where he played for the 2007 and 2008 seasons. After his senior year, he was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 50th round and spent two seasons as a catcher and an outfielder in the minor leagues.

The Montana native was recently part of Division II Southern Arkansas University coaching staff as an assistant coach, which claimed the Great American Conference championship last year. 2017 was his only season with the Muleriders as he worked with the hitters and the catchers and helped develop infielder Trevor Rucker, who was named the 2016-17 GAC Male Athlete of the Year.

Rucker was also named a first team All-American by the National College Baseball Writers' Association (NCBWA) and Division II Conference Commissioner's Association (D2CCA), as well as being named a four-time All-GAC selection and a finalist for the Tino Martinez Division II Player of the Year.

The Muleriders finished 39-16 last year and hit .309 as a team to advance to the NCAA Central Regional for the 11th time in program history. The offense led the GAC in all major offensive categories including average, slugging (.505), doubles (125), triples (19), home runs (66), runs scored (408), and hits (568).

Prior to SAU, Parry spent three seasons at Dallas Baptist University as an assistant coach, working alongside current Arkansas pitching coach Wes Johnson. Under the guidance of head coach Dan Heefner, Parry and Johnson transformed Dallas Baptist into a perennial mid-major power, winning a school-record 46 games and hosting its first NCAA Regional in 2015. Combined, the Patriots went 130-55 (.703) with a pair of Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) Tournament Championships with Parry on staff.

In his final year with the Patriots, Parry coached Second Team All-Missouri Valley and MVC All-Defensive Player Matt Duce, who was selected in the 14th round by the New York Mets in this summer's draft. Duce batted .320 or higher in each of his last two seasons and tied for second on the team with 55 RBIs as a junior.

In 2015, Parry helped standout catcher Daniel Salters become one of the nation's elite catchers, as he threw out 23-of-49 would-be base stealers. Following that season, Salters was selected in the 13th round of the MLB Draft by the Cleveland Indians and he is currently playing in High-A for the Lynchburg Hillcats.

Parry earned a Bachelor's degree from SDSU in 2010 before earning a Master's in Sports Management from American Public University in 2012.

He is married to the former Morgan McCloy.

FACILITIES

When discussing the best college baseball facilities in the country, Baum Stadium is consistently among one of the first places mentioned. With room for more than 10,000 spectators, an impeccable playing surface and amenities that rival most minor league ballparks, it is the crown jewel of the collegiate ranks. Of course the physical properties of Baum Stadium are only a portion of the baseball experience with the remainder in the form of fans that flock to the corner of Razorback Road and 15th Street to watch their Razorbacks take on all comers.

Officially named Baum Stadium at George Cole Field at its dedication on May 3, 1996, the facility derives its name from primary backers as well as from the history of Razorback baseball. Arkansas' facility prior to Baum Stadium was George Cole Field and the new park preserved the tradition with its current name.

In 1998, Baum Stadium received a special honor, when it was named the nation's No. 1 facility in Baseball America's poll of best college facilities. Five years later it took second in the same poll, cementing its legacy as one of the best facilities in the nation. Since its construction, Arkansas officials have received numerous solicitations by coaches and administrators from across the country for blueprints and tours of the Razorbacks' home ballpark in an attempt to capture some of its charm. Even though Baum Stadium has been replicated to some degree, no other place in the country has the atmosphere that Baum Stadium brings to college baseball, which is why it has been the host to six NCAA Regionals and two NCAA Super Regionals.

Baum Stadium was one of the nation's best facilities when it was constructed, but since then it has undergone four renovations, making it the envy of visiting teams. The first upgrade came prior to the 2003 season, when the hitting and pitching cages were enclosed to ensure a place for Razorback players to practice year round. A total of 2,600 chair back seats also were added to the park, 1,300 of which reside on each foul line.

Baum Stadium's second renovation came a year later as 12 luxury boxes, coaches' offices, a new scoreboard and natural grass completely changed the feel of the park. A state-of-the-art scoreboard added full video, complete with a message center and an analog clock was added to the right-center field gap, which stood 45-feet high and 76-feet wide. The original turf field of Baum Stadium's construction was torn out and rye grass was grown for the 2004 campaign, but replaced by a hybrid Bermuda in 2005. A portion of the upgrades were made possible by contributions from the Willard and Pat Walker Charitable Foundation, Bob and Marilyn Bogle, the Pagnozzi Charities, John Tyson and Stan Ley.

The next renovation to Baum Stadium came prior to the 2007 season as 20 luxury boxes were built, 1,000 chair back seats were added, restrooms constructed and the Hog Pen and picnic area expanded. A new ticket office, field lights and wall pads were added as well. The final set of upgrades to the park brought Baum Stadium's capacity to 10,737 seats with 8,237 of those coming from chair backs and 34 from luxury boxes.

New LED ribbon boards were added in 2013, and the Fowler Family Baseball and Track Training Center opened in the fall of 2014, providing the Arkansas with the finest collegiate indoor facility in the country. The facility provides approximately 52,000 square feet of climate-controlled practice space, including a full-size practice infield, throwing area, batting areas and ancillary team spaces.

In 2016, the university's partnership with South Dakota-based Daktronics produced the largest video board ever installed at an on-campus college baseball facility in the country. The massive 25 foot by 71 foot LED video board enhances an already memorable experience at Baum Stadium by providing 1,775 square feet of digital space for live high-definition video, instant replays, up-to-the-minute statistics, and game information, graphics and animations.

Future plans also call for luxury suites in left and right fields, a concourse that goes around the entire stadium and a new center field entrance to the stadium.

The combination of the upgrades prior to the 2007 season and a top-10 baseball team produced then-record attendance numbers as Arkansas smashed its school record for the fourth straight year. The Razorbacks became the first team in NCAA history to average more than 8,000 tickets sold per game (8,069) as their attendance over 33 home games was 266,270. Arkansas also set a then-school record for actual attendance with 198,218 fans (6,007 per game) passing through the gates.

In 2007, Razorback fans helped set the school and then-Southeastern Conference three-game series attendance record in the May 4-6 weekend series against LSU, buying 30,564 tickets.

BAUM STADIUM

The attendance figures drawn to Baum Stadium allowed Fayetteville to host its third NCAA Regional in four years in 2007 and its fourth since 1999. Razorback fan support did not flounder as the regional was the best attended of all 16 sites, averaging 6,452 fans over its six games.

In April 2009, Baum Stadium played host to its first No. 1 versus No. 1 battle when the Razorbacks took on Arizona State. In game two of the midweek series, 11,014 fans were in attendance while 11,434 tickets were sold. Both numbers were then-facility records, topping the previous mark of 10,581 fans to see Arkansas defeat LSU in 2007.

The two-game series against the Sun Devils brought 17,300 fans through the turnstiles, a Razorback midweek record, and the 19,776 tickets sold were also a midweek series highmark.

Arkansas set a new attendance standard at Baum Stadium during the 2010 season as a record 292,734 tickets were sold to see the Razorbacks. Arkansas finished second in the country in both total attendance and average attendance (7,704). In part because of the great fan support, Arkansas was selected as an NCAA Regional host for the fifth time in program history. The regional drew more than 40,000 fans, averaging 5,276 fans per game over the eight contests.

Razorback fans continued to pack Baum Stadium in 2011 as Arkansas had six of the 20 largest crowds in school history in terms of tickets sold. The U of A set a new single-game attendance record on April 9, 2011, when 11,103 fans crammed into Baum Stadium to see the Razorbacks defeat LSU 4-3 on James McCann's walk-off three-run homer in the bottom of the ninth.

The 2012 season saw Arkansas play a school-record 36 regular season home games. The Razorbacks finished second in the country in average attendance and third in total attendance. A total of 260,468 tickets were sold over the 33 home dates, an average of 7,892 tickets sold per game. Arkansas sold more than 7,000 tickets for 23 of the team's 36 home games.

Arkansas again ranked second in the country in average attendance in 2013 with 8,335 tickets sold per game. The Razorbacks' total attendance of 250,055 was fourth in the nation, marking the ninth straight year Baum Stadium ranked in the top five nationally in attendance.

In 2004, Baum Stadium served as host to its second NCAA Regional and first NCAA Super Regional, drawing the largest total attendance in the nation for both events. The series-clinching win over Florida State drew 10,027 fans to Baum Stadium, eclipsing the previous night's record of 9,338, set less than 24 hours earlier. In all, a combined 58,138 attended the NCAA Regional and Super Regional during the 2004 season.

Arkansas' 2004 attendance numbers were no fluke as fans continued to pour into the ballpark. The 2005 and 2006 crowds continued to set records for both paid and actual attendance. While the NCAA and SEC recognize tickets sold as their method of ranking schools, Arkansas keeps both actual patrons as well as paid attendance figures and have seen steady increases in both areas.

In an informal study by the Baton Rouge (La.) Advocate, Arkansas led the nation in actual attendance between 2004 and 2007 and was edged by LSU in 2008 by 20 fans as patrons returned to Baton Rouge's Alex Box Stadium in its final season.

Baum Stadium is the culmination of a vision that was possible only through the dedication of former Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn, former U of A Athletics Director Frank Broyles and contributions by the families of Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum.

While the efforts of DeBriyn and Broyles have been instrumental in maintaining a state-of-the-art home for Arkansas baseball since the original George Cole Field opened in 1975, it was the generosity of the Baums and Walkers that allowed Arkansas to abandon plans to renovate its former facility and replace it with a new standard in college baseball venues.

The support of the George Cole family has been an integral part of the program's growth since the former Razorback athlete, coach and athletics director donned the Cardinal and White many years ago.

"Without the support of the Charlie Baum, Willard Walker and George Cole families, this wouldn't have been possible," DeBriyn said when Baum Stadium opened. "It's an incredible facility and there is not one like it anywhere in the country. There is no way to describe the excitement our players and coaches have when they take the field."

Representatives of all three families attended the groundbreaking ceremony on Oct. 12, 1994. Eighteen months later, Arkansas' Matt Carnes delivered Baum Stadium's first pitch to Auburn's Russell Whittenburg, completing the dream. The Razorbacks defeated the Auburn Tigers 9-2 in the stadium's inaugural contest.

Named for the late Razorback shortstop and athletics director, George Cole Field served as Arkansas' home field from 1975 until 1996.

With a capacity of 3,000, George Cole Field was located just north of John McDonnell Field.

When it opened in 1975, George Cole Field enabled the Razorbacks to leave the field at the Washington County Fairgrounds and move into an on-campus facility for the first time.

Setting the trend for Arkansas having the finest college baseball park in the nation, George Cole Field was one of the few with artificial turf.

Donations from former Razorbacks Tim Lollar, Johnny Ray and Kevin McReynolds and their agent, Tom Selakovich, provided for the installation of lights at George Cole Field in 1985. On March 22 of that season, the Hogs defeated Southwest Conference rival Texas 5-4 in the first night baseball game on the Arkansas campus. Later that season, George Cole Field played host to the Southwest Conference Tournament for the first time. Arkansas defeated Texas 10-6 in the championship game to win its first conference tournament title. The SWC tournament came to Fayetteville again in 1988.

When the Razorbacks entered the Southeastern Conference in 1992, UA officials recognized the need to improve the school's baseball facility. While plans originally called for the improvement of George Cole Field, generous donations from the Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum families, along with former Razorback Tom Pagnozzi, enabled the Razorbacks to scrap the renovation plans and start from scratch with an entirely new state-of-the-art facility.

During its 21 seasons, George Cole Field was home to a number of future major-leaguers, including Pagnozzi, Ray, McReynolds, Lollar, Les Lancaster and Jeff King.

Although the original George Cole Field played host to its last game on March 31, 1995, the spirit endures in the official name of the Razorbacks' current facility: Baum Stadium at George Cole Field.

A native of Bauxite, Arkansas, Cole served as athletics director from July 1, 1970, until his retirement on July 1, 1973. A former All-SWC quarterback for the Razorback football team, Cole scored a then-school-record 85 points as a senior in 1927. He began his administrative career at Arkansas as a football line coach in 1936 and became an assistant athletics director under the legendary John Barnhill in 1957.

FOWLER FAMILY TRAINING CENTER

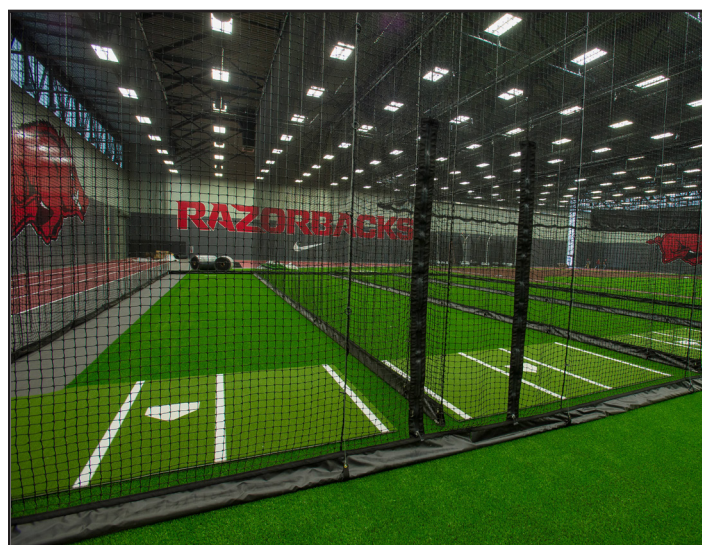

The facility provides approximately 52,000 square feet of climate-controlled practice space, including a full size practice infield, throwing area, batting areas and ancillary team spaces.

Thanks in part to the generous $2.5 million gift provided by the Wallace and Jama Fowler family, the University of Arkansas completed a brand new world class indoor training facility for baseball and track in the summer of 2015.

Dedicated on Sept. 20, 2014 as the Fowler Family Baseball and Track Center, the facility provides approximately 52,000 square feet of climate-controlled practice space, including a full size practice infield, throwing area, batting areas and ancillary team spaces.

The facility includes four batting cages with a drop down and raise up netting system that allows for baseball training and available surface space. The practice infield is suitable for live hitting with nets ensuring safe activity and observation outside the infield space and protective measures toward the facility structure.

The Fowler Family's gift marked substantial progress toward meeting the fundraising goal for the project. Additional gifts are still being sought to meet the fundraising goal for the facility being funded by a combination of capital gifts, athletic revenues and proceeds from a bond issue. The total project cost was $9.1 million.

2017 SEASON REVIEW

Baum Stadium hosted the most attended regional during the opening round of the 2017 NCAA Division I Baseball Championship. A total of 67,704 fans were in attendance with more than 9,000 fans in the seats for each of Arkansas' five regional games.

Hogs Host Sixth NCAA Regional In School History

After missing out on the NCAA Tournament in 2016, Arkansas bounced back in a big way in 2017, winning 45 games, a 19-game turnaround, and was selected to host the NCAA Fayetteville Regional for the sixth time in school history. In what was their 29th NCAA Tournament overall, the Razorbacks hosted one of the most competitive regionals in the nation with Oral Roberts, Oklahoma State, and Missouri State. It was the first time Arkansas was selected as a regional host since 2010 and fans showed up in style. A total of 67,704 fans were in attendance, ranking first among the 16 host sites around the country. More than 9,000 fans were in the seats for each of Arkansas' five regional games with attendance surpassing the 10,000 mark in three of those contests.

Baum Stadium Attendance Continues To Soar

For the 13th-straight year, Arkansas placed in the top five in the nation in total and average attendance. With 8,269 fans per game over 35 home games, the Hogs finished third in average attendance. A total of 289,421 fans visited Baum Stadium during the 2017 season, good for second in the country. The biggest crowd came on the biggest stage when Arkansas faced off with Oral Roberts in its NCAA Fayetteville Regional opener. 11,088 fans filled the seats for that game, the fifth-largest attendance in Baum Stadium history. Also, for the ninth-straight year, more than 7,000 fans attended Opening Day, as 9,443 Razorbacks fans were attendance for Arkansas' 7-0 shutout over Miami (Ohio) last year.

Soooieville Sluggers Crush Way Through 2017 Season

Much of what led to Arkansas' success last year was its offensive production, most notably from the home run. The Razorbacks hit home runs at an unreal pace to lead the SEC with 83 long balls in 2017. That total was ninth in the country and the most by any Razorback team since 2010. Arkansas was the only team in the SEC with five players with six or more home runs and three with 10 or more. Of the 422 runs scored throughout the year, about 30 percent came from home runs. Junior Chad Spanberger was the king of crush, hitting 20 home runs, 12 over the final month. Catcher Grant Koch finished second on the team with 13 home runs, while freshman outfielder Dominic Fletcher had a breakout year with 12 home runs, most among all freshman in the SEC.

Chad Spanberger Soars Up Draft Boards

There was no question that Chad Spanberger was home run threat every time he stepped to the plate. That distinction rang true during the final month of the season when he hit 12 of his team-leading 20 home runs, catching the eye of everyone in the college baseball world. His home run total was good for second in the SEC and ninth in the nation. He also became just the sixth player in program history to hit 20 or more home runs in a season. In the 2017 SEC Tournament, Spanberger turned in, arguably, his best week of the season, earning tournament MVP honors after hitting .421 in five games. He set a single-game tournament record for home runs and RBIs after going 3-for-4 with three home runs and seven RBIs against Auburn. Over the summer, he was taken in the sixth round of the 2017 MLB Draft by the Colorado Rockies

Dominic Fletcher Makes Mark In First Season

Outfielder Dominic Fletcher was one of the most highly touted players coming out of high school and his first year as a Razorback was one for the record books. Fletcher was named an All-American by Baseball America and the National College Baseball Writer's Association (NCBWA), becoming the 19th Razorback to be named a freshman All-American. The Cypress, California native started 56 games in centerfield and hit .291 with 64 hits, 12 home runs, and 37 RBIs. His 12 home runs were third-best on the team and tied for the most among all freshmen in the SEC. The longballs were also just one off the Arkansas freshman record for home runs in a single season. Fletcher closed his first year out strong, hitting .356 over the final 18 games with six home runs and 13 RBIs. Eight of those games were multi-hit performances and two of his home runs came during Arkansas' run to the SEC Tournament final. Against top-seed Florida in the tournament semifinals, Fletcher tied his season-high with four RBIs as part of a 3-for-4 day at the plate.

Chad Spanberger became the sixth player in program history to hit 20 home runs in a season last year. 12 of his long balls came in the final month while his .619 slugging percentage was the second highest by a Razorback since 2010.

Arkansas reached the SEC Tournament final for the fourth time in school history in 2017 after battling through the loser's bracket to knock off Auburn, Mississippi State, and top-seeded Florida. It was the first tournament final appearance for the Razorbacks since 2007 and second appearance under head coach Dave Van Horn.

Hogs Make Magical Run To SEC Tournament Final

Entering the 2017 SEC Tournament, Arkansas needed a big postseason run to secure an NCAA Regional host bid. Even though it dropped its tournament opener to Mississippi State, the Razorbacks won three-straight games to reach the tournament final against LSU. Over that stretch, Arkansas' offense and pitching were on point, eliminating Auburn, Mississippi State, and top-seeded Florida along the way. Against Auburn, the pitching combo of Dominic Taccolini, Matt Cronin, and Josh Alberius threw a seven-inning no-hitter in a 12-0 victory, the first-ever no-hitter in SEC Tournament history and 13th in Arkansas history. In that same game, Chad Spanberger became the first player to hit three home runs in an SEC Tournament game along with a single-game SEC Tournament record seven RBIs. Spanberger went on to earn tournament MVP honors after hitting .421 over five games with five home runs, 10 RBIs, and an astounding 1.368 slugging percentage.

Six Razorbacks Drafted

For the 43rd-consecutive year, Arkansas had at least one player selected in the MLB Draft. There were six draftees in the 2017 MLB Draft, three who went in the first 10 rounds. Right-hander Trevor Stephan led all Razorbacks after being selected in the third round by the New York Yankees, becoming the 13th Razorback taken in the draft's first three rounds since 2010 and the fourth pitcher since 2013. Chad Spanberger (6th round, Colorado), Cannon Chadwick (9th round, New York Mets), Dominic Taccolini (10th round, San Diego), Blaine Knight (29th round, Texas), and Josh Alberius (36th round, Miami) all followed, giving Arkansas its second-straight year with six draftees.

Koch Competes With Team USA

Catcher Grant Koch spent the summer playing for the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team and was the 14th Razorback to don the Red, White and Blue. Koch was invited to the USA Baseball training camp at the start of the summer, but not guaranteed a spot. The Fayetteville native earned his way onto the team, leading the squad with a .372 batting average, along with two home runs and nine RBIs over 20 games.

After leading Arkansas to the NCAA Regionals and hitting a career-best .264 with 13 home runs and 42 RBIs, catcher Grant Koch earned a spot on the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team over the summer.

Chad Spanberger led the team with 17 multi-RBI games, including two games with five or more RBIs. His seven-RBI game against Auburn in the SEC Tournament on May 25 was a single-game tournament record and was part of a three-home run day for the junior. It was also the most RBIs in a game for a Razorback since Brett Eibner plated seven against Grambling State in the 2010 NCAA Fayetteville Regional.

HISTORY AND RECORDS

PROGRAM HISTORY

Few schools in America enjoy as rich a history as that of the Arkansas Razorback baseball program. With eight College World Series appearances - including a national runner-up finish in 1979 - and 28 NCAA postseason appearances to its credit, the University of Arkansas has long been considered one of the nation's elite programs.

Entering their 96th season of play, the Razorbacks fielded their first team in 1897. Arkansas played for 24 years before seeing its team discontinued from 1930 to 1946. Hugo Bezdek, E.T. Pickering, T.T. McConnell, Claude Watts, Norman Coyle and Francis Schmidt served as coaches during the early days of the program. All but Watts and Coyle also served as head football coaches at the university.

The Razorbacks got back in the baseball business again in 1947 with Deke Brackett serving the first of three seasons as head coach. It was in 1950, with Razorback athletic trainer Bill Ferrell taking the reins, that modern day interest in the sport ignited for the first time. Though compiling only a 139-149 record during his 16-year tenure, the foundation was laid for what was to come.

Wayne Robbins took over for the popular Ferrell in 1966 and coached four seasons, going 50-51. His successor was a fiery young coach from Wisconsin who would eventually build the program into one of national prominence.

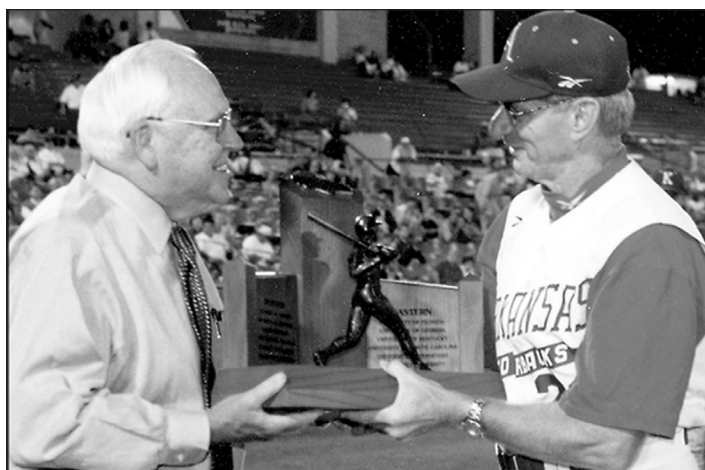

Norm DeBriyn was hired by Arkansas Athletics Director George Cole in 1970 and charged with making the Razorbacks competitive on a conference and national level. Arkansas baseball had not been a baseball-playing member of a league since dropping out of Southwest Conference play in 1926. One of DeBriyn's first tasks was to resume a SWC schedule, a feat which was accomplished in time for the 1974 season. His teams proved competitive in one of the nation's toughest baseball leagues and Arkansas would end up qualifying for 14 of the 15 SWC Tournaments held during the Razorbacks' membership in the league.

The Razorbacks became competitive on a larger scale as well under DeBriyn. Arkansas participated in its first NCAA postseason in 1973, DeBriyn's fourth season, and made its first trip to the NCAA College World Series in just his 10th campaign.

That trip to Omaha in 1979 saw the Razorbacks finish as national runners-up to Cal State Fullerton.

In his final season as coach in 2002, DeBriyn guided Arkansas to an NCAA Super Regional after winning the Wichita Regional with a perfect 3-0 mark. The Razorbacks came within two runs of advancing to their fifth NCAA College World Series, losing the Super Regional two games to one to host Clemson.

A new chapter in Arkansas baseball history began in 2003 when former Razorback player and graduate assistant coach Dave Van Horn was named head coach after DeBriyn retired. Since taking over at his alma mater, Van Horn has continued to grow the Razorback program with trips to the College World Series in 2004, 2009, 2012 and 2015, 12 NCAA Tournament berths and five super regional appearances in his first 12 seasons.

Head coach Norm DeBriyn led the Razorbacks to their first SEC title in 1999 and again in 2004. In his career, he guided Arkansas to four conference titles combined in the SWC and SEC.

With the installation of lights at George Cole Field, Arkansas was able to host its first night game and the Southwest Conference Tournament in 1985.

Facilities have played an important role in the history of Razorback baseball. Upon DeBriyn's arrival, the Razorbacks were playing games at the run-down and disheveled Washington County Fairgrounds field barely fit for pasture land. By 1975, Arkansas had moved into George Cole Field, one of the few college ballparks in the country with an artificial playing surface. The park gave the program immediate respectability and Arkansas would advance five times to NCAA postseason play and twice to the NCAA College World Series in its first decade in the park.

Lights were added in 1985 with the help of former standouts Kevin McReynolds, Johnny Ray and Tim Lollar, a move that again advanced the program to another level.

George Cole Field was the site of the Razorback baseball program's coming of age. The Razorbacks would go 567-142-2 at the facility for a winning percentage of .799. It was the site of the school's first league tournament championship, in 1985, and home to a parade of all-conference and All-America players. McReynolds, Ray, Lollar and Tom Pagnozzi - some of the first Razorbacks to make a significant impact in Major League Baseball - were just a few of many DeBriyn pupils who honed their skills at George Cole Field and went on to excel in the majors.

Although he retired following the 2002 season, the magic continued with DeBriyn's subtle influence on the lives of Charlie Baum and Willard and Pat Walker families, key contributors to perhaps the crowning achievement of DeBriyn's tenure - Baum Stadium at George Cole Field.

The 8,237-seat stadium, which can accommodate a crowd of 10,737, is unparalleled in the country in form and function and moved the program to an even higher level of achievement.

Designed by the nationally acclaimed firm HOK, designers of such jewels as Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Coors Field and Progressive Field, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field played host to its first game on April 13, 1996, as a crowd of 3,328 saw the Razorbacks defeat Auburn in a doubleheader sweep.

Named the best college baseball facility in the nation by Baseball America in 1998, the stadium has ignited the interest of Razorback fans throughout the region and helped Arkansas lead the nation in tickets sold in 2007 with 8,069 per game and set a then-NCAA record in the process.

Since 2004, the Hogs' second season under Van Horn, Arkansas has ranked in the top-five nationally in average attendance each year, bringing in 7,617 fans per game.

Another crown jewel of Razorback baseball is the new Fowler Family Baseball and Track Training Center. The 52,000 square-foot climate-controlled indoor facility opened in the fall of 2014 and includes a full-size practice infield that is suitable for live hitting, fielding and base running. The facility also includes four batting cages and protective netting around the facility to ensure safe activity and observation while taking protective measures toward the facility structure.

Arkansas baseball is not just about those who have been able to play the game for a living. The Razorbacks have produced 79 all-conference selections (all since 1976 when Bill Montgomery was named All-Southwest Conference), 22 All-America picks (Lollar was the first in 1978), 19 freshman All-America selections, 57 all-conference tournament selections, four conference titles (1989, 1990, 1999, 2004), one conference tournament championship and nine NCAA Regional Tournament championships.

Since joining the SEC in 1992, Arkansas has already placed 37 players on All-SEC lists. Throughout the years, 58 former Razorbacks have played in the big leagues and eight were major league first-round draft picks in McReynolds (1981), Jeff King (1986), David Walling (1999), Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008), Zack Cox (2010), Ryne Stanek (2013) and Andrew Benintendi (2015).

Many former Razorbacks have given something back to the program that helped propel them to the professional ranks, but none so much as the all-star catcher Tom Pagnozzi. In addition to contributing the funds which made possible the Razorback clubhouse that bears his name, the annual Tom Pagnozzi Invitational Golf Tournament and surrounding events raise thousands of dollars each year for the Arkansas baseball program.

Memorable moments of Arkansas baseball vary with the observer. Arkansas' first NCAA postseason appearance in 1973 at Arlington Stadium in Arlington, Texas, will long be considered a watershed moment for DeBriyn's program. Though the Razorbacks lost two straight, it was a signal the program had arrived. Just six years later, the Razorbacks raced through the NCAA East Regional in Tallahassee, Florida, in four games to advance to the College World Series in Omaha, Nebraska, for the first time.

Three more wins in the then-true double elimination event put Arkansas in the championship game against Cal State Fullerton. Fullerton, playing with one loss, won the first championship game 13-10 to force a winner-take-all rematch. Fullerton won that one 2-1, sending the disappointed Razorbacks home with the national runner-up trophy.

A third-place finish at the 1985 CWS also saw the Razorbacks go through Tallahassee and started a five-year stretch in which Arkansas advanced to Omaha three times, each time on an odd year. Fifth-place finishes in 1987 and 1989 were outstanding achievements for those teams.

Arkansas played host to its first Southwest Conference Tournament in 1985, winning three straight games at George Cole Field with an opening win over Baylor and back-to-back victories over rival Texas. It was another example of facilities playing a role in the program's success - only the addition of lights that season enabled the school to snare the tournament host honor from traditional sites Texas and Texas A&M.

Memorable moments are hard to narrow to such a small space but would include some hard-to-forget home runs and pitching performances. Ralph Kraus ushered in the school's first night game in classic style with a home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to defeat Texas before thousands in 1985.

There have been 13 no-hitters in school history, the most recent by the combination of Dominic Taccolini, Matt Cronin, and Josh Alberius in the 2017 SEC Tournament. They blanked Auburn to join former Razorbacks Rich Erwin (1976), David Rhodes (1977), Scott Glanz (1982), Tim Deitz (1983), Fred Faust (1984), Steve Parker (1986), Dennis Fletcher-Tim Sherrill-Tim Peters (1987), Brian Cook-Brian Dennison (1991), Todd Abbott (1994), Richie Nye (1996), Scott Roehl (2001), and Nick Schmidt-Brian McLelland, Devin Collis (2006) as no-hit specialists.

Another Nye helped the Razorbacks make history again on the final day of the 1999 regular season. Rodney Nye homered in each of his first three trips to the plate to help the Razorbacks to a victory that gave UA its first SEC Western Division and overall titles.

Baum Stadium has already seen its share of memorable games in its short lifespan, such as Arkansas' 11-run rally to beat South Carolina 17-16 in 1998 and a 16-0 win over Eastern Illinois in which David Walling fanned 16 batters to help give Norm DeBriyn his 1,000th career victory.

In 1999, the Razorbacks took their home field advantage to a new level, going 14-1 in home SEC games and ending the season with 13 consecutive conference victories at the facility. The solid play in home league games helped the Razorbacks earn division and overall league titles and brought an NCAA regional to the UA campus for the first time in school history.

In 2004, Arkansas duplicated the feat again earning a share of the SEC crown and topping the SEC West. Picked last in the division to begin the season, head coach Dave Van Horn guided this gritty bunch of Razorbacks to their second league title since joining the SEC. For their efforts, Arkansas earned a coveted national seed in the NCAA Tournament draw and hosted its second regional in school history.

Former Razorbacks Ronn Reynolds, Kevin McReynolds, Tim Lollar and Johnny Ray with long-time Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn (middle). All four #ProHogs played in the Major Leagues for at least six years and each played in at least 100 games or more during their careers.

Arkansas clinched its most recent trip to the College World Series in 2015 after defeating Missouri State in game three of the NCAA Fayetteville Super Regional. Of its eight College World Series berths, four have come under the guidance of current head coach Dave Van Horn.

The Razorbacks hosted, at the time, the largest attended NCAA Regional as 38,773 fans packed Baum Stadium for the three-day event. Arkansas didn't disappoint, although it took a historic comeback to send the home crowd away happy.

Down to its last out in an elimination game against Wichita State, Arkansas got a grand slam from junior catcher Brady Toops to complete an improbable 11-9 comeback win against Wichita State. Arkansas held off the Shockers 4-3 in the regional final to secure the school's first-ever NCAA Super Regional.

The following weekend, Arkansas dominated No. 12 Florida State in a two-game sweep of the Seminoles televised nationally by ESPN. Razorback fans set a new NCAA record for super regional attendance at an on-campus venue drawing 9,338 on Friday and 10,027 on Saturday. With the 4-2 win on Saturday, Arkansas clinched its fifth College World Series berth.

During the 2009 regular season, Arkansas earned its first No. 1 ranking and defeated Arizona State in front of a then-Baum-record 11,014 fans in the facility's first matchup between top-ranked teams; the Sun Devils were also ranked No. 1 at the time in other national polls.

That same year, the Hogs swept through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, upsetting national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State, respectively, to earn the program's sixth trip to Omaha.

On college baseball's grandest stage at historic Rosenblatt Stadium, Arkansas split its first two games of the 2009 College World Series, besting Cal State Fullerton and then losing to LSU. The Razorbacks found themselves one out away from elimination against Virginia before Brett Eibner lifted a two-run shot to left field to tie the game. Arkansas went on to win the instant classic 4-3 in 12 innings, and finished the series in third place.

The Razorbacks reached the College World Series for the third time under Van Horn in 2012 as Arkansas put together a memorable postseason run that saw them down old SWC rivals Rice and Baylor on their home fields. Arkansas opened its tournament run in Houston as it defeated Sam Houston State twice and downed eighth-ranked Rice in a 1-0 shutout.

The next week, Arkansas returned to the state of Texas and faced No. 4 national seed Baylor. After dropping the opener of the Super Regional, Arkansas responded by winning the next two games to punch its ticket to Omaha.

A scoreless game until the top of the 10th inning, Arkansas broke through on Jake Wise's RBI single, scoring Brian Anderson. Randall Fant, Nolan Sanburn, Brandon Moore, Trent Daniel and Colby Suggs combined to shut down the high-powered Baylor offense and send Arkansas to Omaha.

In the College World Series, the Razorbacks opened by winning its first two games, defeating Kent State 8-1 in the opener and then downing South Carolina 2-1 to snap the Gamecocks' 22-game NCAA postseason win streak. Arkansas would finish tied for third in the CWS after eventual-runner up South Carolina defeated the Razorbacks twice.

The 2015 season saw the greatest individual performance ever by an Arkansas baseball player as outfielder Andrew Benintendi became the first Razorback to win the Golden Spikes Award given to the national player of the year. The sophomore wowed the crowds at Baum Stadium as he became just the third player in SEC history to lead the league in home runs (20) and batting average (.376).

With the help of Benintendi, Arkansas had an improbable run culminating in one of the most memorable seasons in Razorback history. Entering April at 14-14, Arkansas went on a tear, going 21-8 in its final 29 games and earned a two-seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Arkansas headed to the Stillwater Regional and cruised through, winning all three games they played win the Regional and host a Super Regional the following week against national seed Missouri State.

The Razorbacks split the first two games of the Fayetteville Super Regional setting up a winner-take-all third game. Behind a raucous and stadium-record crowd of 12,167 fans, first team All-SEC closer Zach Jackson took the mound with a one run lead and 11 outs standing between the Razorbacks and Omaha. Jackson retired 11 straight, including a series-ending strikeout that sent Baum Stadium into hysteria and the Razorbacks to the College World Series for the third time in the past seven years.

A rich history with legendary players, coaches and games make Arkansas baseball a unique and treasured program. With Baum Stadium as a backdrop for the Razorbacks' continued competition in the toughest league in the nation, Arkansas baseball promises to bring fans many more great moments for many years to come.

Former Arkansas players have made an appearance in Major League Baseball, starting with Chuck Tompkins in 1912.

#PROHOGS

DRAFT STREAK

Arkansas has had at least one player selected in each of the past 43 MLB Drafts, dating back to 1975. In the 2013 MLB Draft, Arkansas led the nation with 11 players selected, marking the second time (1985) it has had double figure players taken in a single draft.

KEUCHEL WINS FIRST WORLD SERIES WITH ASTROS

Former Razorback all-conference pitcher Dallas Keuchel became a World Series champion with the Houston Astros last year after going seven games against another former Hog in Logan Forsythe and the Los Angeles Dodgers. Keuchel is the third former Razorback to win a World Series title, joining Dick Hughes (1967 - St. Louis) and Eric Hinske (2007 - Boston; 2009 - NY Yankees).

BENINTENDI FINISHES SECOND IN ROY VOTING

Andrew Benintendi's first full season with the Boston Red Sox was nothing short of extraordinary for a rookie. The former Hog made his second-straight postseason appearance and hit 20 home runs with 20 stolen bases to become the youngest left fielder to achieve that feat since Barry Bonds in 1987. He was also the third Red Sox rookie to have that kind of campaign, joining Nomar Garciaparra and Ellis Burks.

BEST OF THE BEST

Kevin McReynolds leads all #ProHogs with 211 career home runs, while Johnny Ray has a career-best 1,502 hits. Cliff Lee holds nearly every pitching record, including 143 wins on the mound and 1,824 strikeouts in 2,156.2 innings of work.

- NCAA Fayetteville Regional

In one of the wildest and most memorable games of the year, Arkansas was on the brink of elimination in the 2017 NCAA Fayetteville Regional against Missouri State. After enduring a 9 p.m. start and multiple rain delays, the Hogs and Bears played into the wee hours of the morning, finishing well after 3 a.m. Junior Jared Gates's go-ahead home run in eighth inning was enough to force a regional-deciding game, which was played later that day.

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 84-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

An SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 32 of the last 33 years, including appearances by 18 teams in the last seven years. Eight SEC teams were selected for NCAA Regional play with six advancing to NCAA Super Regionals.

The SEC has now sent 58 teams to the College World Series since 1990. That has been accomplished despite no SEC teams making the field in 1992. LSU has been to Omaha 15 times in that stretch, Florida 11 times, South Carolina six times, Georgia and Mississippi State five times, Arkansas four times, while Alabama, Tennessee, and Vanderbilt have been three times each, and Auburn twice. Texas A&M made its first appearance as a member of the Southeastern Conference.

Following the 2017 CWS Championship Series, SEC teams have won 11 of the last 28 national championships, with LSU winning six (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009), South Carolina winning two (2010, 2011), Vanderbilt taking home the title in 2014, Georgia claiming the 1990 title and Florida in 2017. The SEC has finished runner up 10 times in that span: 1997, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, and 2017.

The SEC has played 61 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990. Only six times, 1992, 1994, 2003, 2006, 2007, and 2016 has the SEC failed to get a team to the "Final Four" of the CWS.

Total home attendance for all 14 SEC teams passed the two million mark for the seventh consecutive season. The top-five national attendance leaders were all from the SEC (LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Arkansas, and South Carolina).

Total attendance for the 2017 SEC Tournament was 127,479. The event has become the Birmingham metro's highest attended sporting event annually, second in the state only to NASCAR races at Talladega. Birmingham Magazine named it the top sporting event annually in the Birmingham area. The entire SEC Baseball Tournament was broadcast live on national television for the third consecutive year.

- The 2017 College World Series final between Florida and LSU marked the third time that the College World Series final has included two SEC teams.
- This was the fifth All-SEC national title matchup since 2011. South Carolina and Mississippi State met earlier in 2017 in the women's basketball national championship game, and other All-SEC finals include Alabama and Florida in softball (2014), Florida and South Carolina in baseball (2011), and Alabama and LSU in football (2011).
- The All-SEC final in the College World Series brought the SEC's national championship tally in 2016-17 to six. Other national champions this year included Texas A&M (Men's Indoor Track and Field, Equestrian), South Carolina (Women's Basketball) and Florida (Women's Tennis, Men's Outdoor Track and Field).
- The SEC tied its own national record with six teams in the NCAA Super Regionals. Six teams from the SEC also advanced to Super Regionals in 2004. No other conference had more than three representatives in the Super Regionals.
- The SEC led all conferences with its eight selections to the NCAA Baseball Tournament.
- Four SEC schools were selected as NCAA Regional host sites, and two - Florida and LSU - earned national seeds.
- Florida and LSU claimed a share of the SEC regular season title, while LSU won the SEC Tournament title.
- A total of 11 SEC student-athletes were selected on the first day of the Major League Baseball Draft. Eight were selected in the first round/competitive balance round A, including four in the top-18.

DR. JOSEPH E. STEINMETZ | CHANCELLOR

Joseph E. Steinmetz became the sixth chancellor of the University of Arkansas on January 1, 2016.

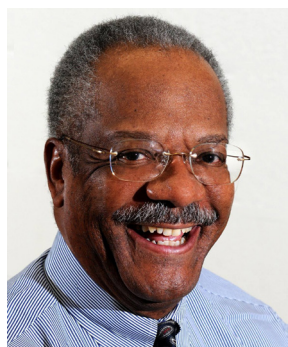

His top priority is advancing student success, and he has already rolled out a number of new programs and initiatives designed to give students the financial and academic support they need to stay on track to graduation. Included among his other priorities are: creating more need-based scholarships, enhancing research and discovery, growing graduate programs, and continuing to advance diversity.

Chancellor Steinmetz has also put an emphasis on getting out and meeting university stakeholders and alumni. Toward that end, he has led two bus tours across the state of Arkansas, including an 800 mile loop across northern Arkansas last spring.

Prior to this appointment, he was Ohio State's chief academic officer. He also served as dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at the University of Kansas, where he was also a university distinguished professor. Before Kansas, Dr. Steinmetz spent 19 years at Indiana University, Bloomington where he served as Chair of the Department of Psychology, Executive Associate Dean of Arts and Sciences and a Distinguished Professor of Psychological and Brain Science.

A nationally respected behavioral neuroscientist, Dr. Steinmetz was recognized in 1996 by the National Academy of Sciences for his contributions to the fields of experimental psychology and neuroscience. In 2012 he was named an AAAS Fellow.

Dr. Steinmetz earned his bachelor's and master's degrees at Central Michigan University and his doctorate at Ohio University. He and his wife, Sandy, have two sons and four grandchildren.

GERALD JORDAN | FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Gerald Jordan, associate professor of journalism, worked 25 years for metropolitan daily newspapers before he joined the UofA faculty. His appointment as the faculty athletics representative marks a return to his start as a student covering the Razorbacks.

As his predecessor, Dr. Sharon Hunt, Jordan is an Arkansas alumnus and he becomes only the fourth UofA faculty member to fill this position. Chancellor Joe Steinmetz appointed Jordan to be the faculty member who certifies the eligibility of student-athletes and will be the university's faculty representative to the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference.

Jordan graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1970 with a degree in journalism, and earned his master's degree in journalism at Northwestern University in 1971. He is a 1982 Nieman Fellow at Harvard University.

Jordan began his career as a sports reporter for The Kansas City Star, where he subsequently wrote editorials and was a TV columnist. He wrote editorials for The Boston Globe. At The Philadelphia Inquirer, Jordan was a reporter, a Washington correspondent and worked as an editor in several departments before joining the journalism faculty. He returned to The Inquirer as an editor for 15 summers. He also worked two summers on News21, a national investigative journalism project at the Walter Cronkite School, Arizona State University.

Jordan has been an innovative teacher, developing the Digital Media Lab, a semester block of journalism courses designed to provide intensive teaching and training for a limited number of students in a realistic multimedia news environment. He also helped create the Lemke Journalism Project, which has brought minority high school students interested in journalism to the university for the past 17 years.

Jordan served as president of the Arkansas Alumni Association Board of Directors, and he is the founding leader of two alumni societies for U of A graduates.

He received the UofA's Silas Hunt Legacy Award in 2010, and a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Northwest Arkansas Martin Luther King Jr. Planning Committee.

He was also the first faculty member to receive the university's national award as Volunteer of the Year.

As the U of A faculty athletics representative Jordan will work closely with the athletics department, be involved with the student-athlete advisory council, in addition to attending SEC and NCAA meetings.

A MESSAGE FROM CHANCELLOR STEINMETZ

Razorback baseball fans are some of the best you'll find anywhere - ranking in the top five nationally in attendance for more than a decade. Your consistent support has helped Coach Van Horn's teams advance to NCAA Tournament play for 15 of the last 16 years, including hosting a great NCAA Regional in Fayetteville last season. Baum Stadium at George Cole Field is one of the nation's finest college baseball facilities and I'm looking forward to seeing it full of cheering Razorback fans this season.

At the University of Arkansas, we're extremely proud of Razorback athletics and our student athletes. Our athletics department is perennially recognized as being among the top 25 departments in the country.

Last spring, our student athletes also had a combined GPA of 3.25 - the 15th consecutive semester the department exceeded 3.0. More importantly, an average of 100 studentathletes are now graduating from the university every year, giving Razorback athletics a graduation success rate of 78% - its highest ever.

I am very proud of the fact that our student-athletes excel in academics as well as in athletics - and you should be proud, too. After all, you're helping to make it happen.

On behalf of the entire University of Arkansas family, thank you for your passionate support of the Razorbacks. We couldn't do it without you.

HUNTER YURACHEK

University of Arkansas Chancellor Joseph Steinmetz announced the appointment of Hunter Yurachek as vice chancellor and director of athletics on Dec. 4, 2017. He previously served as the vice president for athletics at the University of Houston.

Prior to arriving at Houston, Yurachek served as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University, where Coastal won 29 Big South Conference championships. Yurachek was named Under Armor FCS Athletic Director of the Year in 2014. He has also worked at the University of Akron, the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

In Yurachek's first two years at Houston, the Cougars' sport programs eclipsed 225 points in the Learfield Directors' Cup in back-to-back years for the first time in department history, securing top-three finishes in The American Athletic Conference both years. The Cougars improved to second in 2016-17 after finishing third in 2015-16.

The feat was bolstered in 2016-17 by 11 of 17 programs qualifying for NCAA postseason competition. Houston's programs combined for a league-leading five American Conference team championships and 22 American Conference individual titles.

The postseason had a Houston flair as the men's 4x100-meter relay of John Lewis III, Mario Burke, Jacarias Martin and Cameron Burrell claimed an NCAA National Championship, while Burrell claimed silver at both the NCAA Indoor (60-meter dash) and Outdoor (100-meter dash) Championships. At home, the Houston Baseball program was selected to host an NCAA Regional for the fourth time in program history and the second time in the last three years.

The success was not limited to the field of play, however, as UH student-athletes opened the fall semester with a record 96 student-athletes on the Dean's List. That record was short lived as 109 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors in the spring semester. Houston student-athletes combined for the highest spring GPA (2.95), highest cumulative GPA following a spring semester (2.93) and the highest average hours passed in a spring semester (14.1) in department history.

Twelve of 17 sport programs recorded a GPA of 3.0 or higher, while 75 student-athletes completed their graduation requirements. Three programs, Men's Cross Country, Women's Cross Country and Women's Golf each earned the NCAA's Public Recognition Award ranking among the top 10 percent in the nation in academic progress rate scores.

The 2016-17 year also saw the continuation of an aggressive facilities plan as construction began on the $60 million renovation of the Fertitta Center, the football indoor practice facility and a baseball player development center and clubhouse with more than $85 million of projects all privately funded.

In his first year in the role, Houston recorded its highest finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 1999-2000 and its second-highest finish in school history with 296.5 points to finish 73rd nationally.

The 2015-16 academic year saw the Houston Football program capture The American Athletic Conference Championship and a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl win over Florida State, the Houston Men's Track & Field program win The American Indoor and Outdoor Championships and the Houston Women's Golf program claim an American Championship in only its second year with a full team. In addition, the Men's Basketball program returned to the NCAA postseason for the 29th time in program history and the Men's Golf program advanced to the NCAA Championships for the third straight year.

The Yurachek family (l-r): Brooks, Jake, Hunter, Jennifer, and Ryan.

All of the athletic achievements occurred while UH student-athletes recorded the second-best fall GPA, 2.91, and second-best spring GPA, 2.87, in athletic department history while placing a record 88 student-athletes on the University's Dean's Honor List in the spring.

Yurachek led the Houston Athletics fundraising charge with a record amount $5.2 million in private donations to the Athletics general scholarship fund in the 2014-15 fiscal year. Focused on improving the student-athlete experience, Yurachek has also led a department that unveiled the completed Guy V. Lewis Development Center for the Houston Men's and Women's Basketball programs, Carolyn and Ron Yokubaitis Field at Carl Lewis International Track & Field Complex, one of the nation's largest collegiate baseball video boards, a renovated Houston Football locker room and a short game facility for the Houston Men's and Women's Golf programs.

Named by Chancellor Dr. Renu Khator as Chair for a campus-wide steering committee established to oversee the grand opening events for the $128 million TDECU Stadium, Yurachek assisted in the cultivation, solicitation and securing of a 10-year, $15 million-naming rights agreement for TDECU Stadium with the per year value ranking in the top ten nationally for collegiate venue naming rights agreements.

Yurachek was instrumental in the national search and hiring of football and men and women's basketball head coaches (Tom Herman, Kelvin Sampson, Ronald Hughey) while overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 remodeling project to the men and women's basketball locker rooms.

He served as liaison with an architectural design firm on the plans for the $25-million Guy V. Lewis Development Center as well as overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 facility enhancement to the Athletics/Alumni Center, including the addition of Cougar Cafe, a student-athlete nutrition center.

Yurachek came to Houston after serving four years as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University where he oversaw a department featuring 18 men's and women's NCAA Division I sport programs. A testament of his vision, Yurachek was named the 2014 Under Armour FCS Athletic Director of the Year in May of 2014.

Under Yurachek's leadership, the Chanticleers won a total of 29 Big South Championships (both regular season and tournament championships), made 30 NCAA appearances and finished a program-best 79th in the 2012-13 Learfield Director's Cup.

During Yurachek's time of leadership, Coastal hosted an NCAA Baseball Regional; NCAA Baseball Super Regional; NCAA Division I Football championship contests in 2010 and '13; and NCAA Men's Soccer Championship matches in 2011, '12 and '13, as well as winning a competitive bid to host the VisitMyrtleBeach.com Men's and Women's Big South Basketball Championships in 2013, 2014 and 2015, sponsored by the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce.

Coastal Carolina student-athletes posted a 3.028 grade point average (GPA) for the fall 2013 semester and saw its overall GPA rise from 3.053 to 3.108. Of the 434 student-athletes, 253 - or 58.3 percent - posted a GPA between 4.0 and 3.0, including 28 who earned President's List (4.0 GPA for the semester) and an additional 117 who earned Dean's List recognition. Further breakdown shows that 125 of the 175 women student-athletes (71.4 percent) posted a GPA between 4.0 and 3.0, while 128 of the 259 men (49.4 percent) accomplished the feat.

In addition, since Yurachek's hiring in January 2010, Coastal Carolina student-athletes earned:

- 363 All-Big South honors
- 31 All-Big South Player of the Year honors along with 13 Big South Freshman of the Year honors
- 28 All-America honors
- 11 Big South Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in their respective sports
- 5 Academic All-America honors
- 4 national postgraduate scholarships
- 3 Big South Conference Christenberry Awards for Academic Excellence

With all the success, the Coastal Carolina department operated within a balanced budget during Yurachek's tenure, thanks to his zero-budget initiative and the unprecedented revenues generated since his arrival with his restructuring of the external relations department. In his first year, the department revenue was at $560,000, including $316,000 in ticket sales and sponsorships at $250,000. After the 2012-13 year, revenue came in at $1.4 million, thanks to $549,000 in ticket sales and $600,000 in sponsorships.

Since 2010, the Department of Athletics added women's lacrosse; launched Champions for Life, a life skills enhancement program for student-athletes; signed a five-year $1.1 million contract with an athletic apparel provider; established the Letterwinners Association; successfully completed NCAA Cycle 3 Recertification; and has been featured on the front page of the sports section of USA Today with the headline reading "Coastal Carolina Piles up Sports Success."

Also during Yurachek's tenure, several major projects that supported intercollegiate athletics totaling more than $250 million were included in the University's in ongoing capital improvements across the campus.

The HTC Center opened in 2012 and is the home for Coastal Carolina's men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball programs - as well as the three-year home to the Big South Men's and Women's Basketball Championships. In addition, Adkins Field House, the Boni Belle Baseball/Softball Hitting & Practice Facility, the Will Garland Academic Enhancement Center and the Richard M. Ward MD Sports Performance Center were completed and dedicated while the $10.2 million Baseball/Softball complex will be completed in 2014. Yurachek also secured a 12-court tennis facility and a student-athlete training table facility.

Prior to his appointment at Coastal Carolina University, Yurachek was executive senior associate athletics director at the University of Akron. He led and managed the Zips' external relations unit, which included marketing and promotions, media relations, ticket operations, development (Z-Fund), video operations and merchandising. In addition, he was the sport administrator for men's basketball, men's golf and women's golf and worked closely with the football program.

Yurachek has also held various athletics administration leadership positions at the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business management at Guilford College in 1990, where he was a four-year letter winner in basketball. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from the University of Richmond in 1994.

A native of Richmond, Va., Yurachek and his wife Jennifer have three sons; Ryan, a tight end for the Marshall Football program, Jake and Brooks.
