HEAD COACH JASON WATSON | 3RD YEAR AT ARKANSAS (14TH OVERALL)

Jason Watson was named the head coach of the University of Arkansas volleyball team on January 7, 2016, to become the third head coach in program history. In 11 prior seasons as a head coach at BYU (2005-07) and Arizona State (2008-15), Watson enters the 2018 season with a 228-180 (.559) record and has guided his teams to seven NCAA Tournament selections.

In his second season in Fayetteville, the Razorbacks tallied a 10-win improvement from the previous year, finishing the campaign with a 19-11 overall record and 9-9 mark in SEC play. Arkansas' 10 wins at Barnhill Arena marked the program's highest home-win total since 2012. Arkansas finished the year at No. 47 in the season-ending RPI rankings.

Individually, senior Pilar Victoria led the NCAA with 5.47 kills per set and 6.08 points per set in 2017 and earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention and All-SEC honors. Additionally, setter Rachel Rippee collected AVCA All-South Region Honorable Mention accolades.

The Razorbacks matched their SEC output from the previous season with a 7-11 mark in league play during Watson's first year including six wins in their last nine matches of the year. Individually, senior Danielle Harbin emerged to finish third in the SEC with 4.22 kills per set on her way to AVCA All-South Region honors.

In eight years in Tempe, Ariz., Watson transformed ASU Volleyball from a perennial sub-.500 program into a postseason regular. In his last four seasons, the Sun Devils averaged more than 19 wins per season with four consecutive bids to the NCAA Tournament. Watson also coached a pair of All-America performers, one in each of the past two seasons, for ASU's first national honorees since 2000.

Arizona State began the 2015 campaign with a 15-0 record and reached as high as No. 5 in the AVCA Top 25 poll. The Sun Devils also opened conference play with their best start in the Pac-10/12 era with four wins including the program's first win over Stanford in 15 years.

In 2014, ASU opened the season with six straight wins on the way to a 20-14 record. The Sun Devils were ranked in each AVCA regular season poll. Making its third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, ASU defeated Texas A&M 3-1 to advance to the second round of the Tournament for the first time since 2006.

Watson led ASU to a 19-13 overall record in 2013 including a 3-0 upset of then-NCAA defending champion Texas. The Sun Devils started the season without dropping a set in their first seven matches. Making its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, ASU dropped a five-set match to BYU in the first round.

In 2012, the Sun Devil squad opened with an 11-2 record, the best start since 1992. The Sun Devils finished with 20 wins – the most in a single season at ASU since 1993. The nine conference wins equaled the most since 2000. ASU made the program's 16th appearance in the NCAA Tournament and Watson became just the fifth coach from ASU to guide the Sun Devils to a NCAA postseason berth.

Watson arrived as the head coach at ASU in 2008. In 2013, he was also named head coach of the sand volleyball team when the sport was added to the athletics program.

In June 2015, Watson was selected by USA Volleyball to serve as the head coach of the U.S. Collegiate National Team on a six-match tour of China.

In his three seasons at the helm of the BYU program, Watson compiled a 74-18 (.804) overall record while leading BYU to three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances. During his first season as head coach, Watson was named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year after leading his team to a 25-4 record, the program's best mark since 1998. In addition to leading BYU to the MWC regular-season title, Watson also helped lead the Cougars back to the NCAA Tournament.

In 2007, he led the Cougars to a 24-8 overall record and an Elite 8 finish in the NCAA Regional Final. His team also finished the year ranked 12th nationally, and at one point through the season, the Cougars held a rank as high as ninth in the country. No stranger to the best competition, Watson's teams have been ranked as high as eighth on RPI, showing the character and strength of the teams he builds. Never backing down from challenges are also another hallmark trait of Watson-led teams.

Prior to his head-coaching debut, Watson had amassed 11 years as an assistant coach at four universities. After an All-American playing career at BYU, Watson coached for two years under his former coach, Carl McGown, before beginning his career in women's volleyball with extremely successful stints at Kansas State, Arkansas State, and Montana State.

Watson had an All-American playing career at BYU from 1990-1994, where he was a four-year starter and two-time captain. He graduated from BYU in 1995 with a degree in physical education and sports business management after leaving his native home of Homebush, Australia.

He and his wife, Larissa, have two sons and a daughter.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY

The 2018 season marks the 25th anniversary of Arkansas Volleyball which first took the floor in 1994. As a program, the Razorbacks enter the year with 466 wins and 11 NCAA Tournament appearances.

FRESH(MAN) FACES

Arkansas welcomes six newcomers—five freshmen and one junior—to this year's roster. The team's incoming class was named a Highest Honorable Mention group, just outside the top 30 by PrepVolleyball.com.

ACROSS THE NET

This year's schedule features 13 home matches at Barnhill Arena and seven opponents that played in last year's NCAA Tournament. Arkansas will play 11 matches against eight teams that were ranked inside the final RPI Top 50.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

For a second-straight year, Arkansas earned an AVCA Team Academic Award for the 2017-18 season. The Razorbacks tallied a 3.34 team GPA in the fall followed by a 3.42 mark during the spring semester.

SUMMER IN DETROIT

After National Team tryouts in March, sophomore Elizabeth Pamphile earned a spot on the 24-player U.S. Collegiate National Team—Detroit roster. Following a five-day training session in Ann Arbor, the CNT-Detroit team played in three exhibition matches in conjunction with the USA Volleyball Girls' Junior National Championships.

Associate head coach Jon Newman-Gonchar served as the head coach for the U.S. Women's National Team that won gold at the Pan American Cup. In the final, Team USA rallied from an 0-2 deficit to beat the host Dominican squad.

SIDELINE ADDITIONS

Justin Martin joined the program as volunteer assistant in July after six seasons at Ashland University that featured three Division II NCAA Tournament appearances. During the spring, Whitney Roth was named director of operations.
