BRET BIELEMA

HEAD COACH

The University of Arkansas captivated the college football world by naming Bret Bielema the 32nd head coach in Razorback history in December of 2012. Bielema, who enters his third season at Arkansas, represented the qualities Arkansas was looking for: a leader of young men who holds student-athletes responsible both on and off the field and a coach who has a proven record of winning championships.

Throughout his head coaching career, Bielema has won three conference championships and coached 11 first-team All-Americans, numerous award winners and NFL superstars. Among the NFL players coached by Bielema are three-time Defensive Player of the Year J.J. Watt, Super Bowl winning quarterback Russell Wilson, No. 1 overall draft pick and eight-time Pro Bowler Joe Thomas, All-Pro linebacker DeAndre Levy, Pro Bowl offensive lineman Travis Frederick, running back Montee Ball, and many others.

Bielema has the Razorbacks trending in the right direction behind a balanced offense and stifling defense. Arkansas closed the 2014 season winning three of its final four games against traditional powers LSU, Ole Miss and Texas, the first time in school history the Hogs have defeated those three teams in the same season. The Razorbacks finished 7-6 with a 31-7 victory over Texas in the AdvoCare V100 Texas Bowl, marking Arkansas' first winning season since 2011.

His impact off the field has also been felt as the team has posted its two highest GPAs ever for a fall semester in 2013 and 2014. The football program had 32 student-athletes named to the Fall SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2014, the most for a fall semester in program history and the second most in the conference.

Bielema has always prided himself on a balanced offensive attack and that is exactly what the Razorbacks did in 2014. Running backs Jonathan Williams and Alex Collins were the only FBS teammates to rush for more than 1,000 yards each and both players finished in the top five of the SEC in rushing totals. They are the only 1,000-yard rushing duo in college football to return in 2015. Quarterback Brandon Allen threw for 20 touchdowns, the sixth-most in a single season in school history, and had just five interceptions, the fewest by a Razorback quarterback since 1992.

Arkansas was the SEC's most improved defense in 2014, allowing just 19.2 points per game. With an 11.9 points per game improvement from the previous season, the Razorbacks had the seventh-most improved defense in the nation. Arkansas became the first unranked team in college football history to post back-to-back shutouts over ranked opponents after blanking No. 20 LSU and No. 8 Ole Miss. Senior linebacker Martrell Spaight became the first Razorback to ever lead the SEC with 128 total tackles and was a consensus first-team All-SEC selection.

In Bielema's first season in Fayetteville, the Razorbacks had five newcomers named Freshmen All-Americans; running back Alex Collins, offensive linemen Denver Kirkland and Dan Skipper, tight end Hunter Henry and defensive tackle Darius Philon. Collins was named the SEC Freshman of the Year after he became the second Razorback freshman to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season. Collins and Darren McFadden are the only two to do so in school history and the only two Razorbacks to be named SEC Freshman of the Year.

In 2012, Bielema guided Wisconsin to its third straight Big Ten championship and the Badgers became the first team to represent the Big Ten in three straight Rose Bowls since Michigan qualified following the 1976-78 seasons. In his final game as Wisconsin head coach, Bielema led the Badgers to a 70-31 win over No. 14 Nebraska in the Big Ten Championship Game. Wisconsin became the second team to score 70 points in a conference championship game, matching the number scored by Texas in the 2005 Big 12 Title Game. Wisconsin also had two 200-yard rushers in the same game for the first time in school history.

Also during the 2012 season, running back Montee Ball broke the NCAA career records for total touchdowns and rushing touchdowns. Ball scored 82 total touchdowns, breaking the previous record of 78, and 76 rushing touchdowns, besting the old record of 73. As a team, the Badgers ranked in the top 25 in the country in rushing offense, total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, pass efficiency defense and pass defense.

In Bielema's eight seasons at Wisconsin, he had 17 players earn All-America honors, including 11 first-team All-Americans. He also coached two Outland Trophy winners, one Doak Walker Award recipient, one winner of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and one Lott IMPACT Trophy winner, as well as finalists for numerous other individual awards, including the Heisman Trophy. In his last six years, 21 Badgers were taken in the NFL Draft, including three in the first round.

Bielema was co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State under Bill Snyder in 2002 and 2003. The Wildcats were 22-6 during Bielema's time in Manhattan and finished in the top 10 nationally both seasons in scoring and total defense. The Wildcats won its first Big 12 title in 2003. Among Bielema's standout players at Kansas State were first-team All-American Josh Buhl, 2003 NFL second-round draft pick Terry Pierce and second-team All-Big 12 selection Bryan Hickman.

Prior to his years at Kansas State, Bielema spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Iowa, where he worked for head coaches Hayden Fry and Kirk Ferentz. The 1997 Hawkeyes posted three shutouts and ranked No. 4 nationally in scoring defense.

Bielema lettered from 1989-92 at Iowa after joining the program as a walk-on. He earned a scholarship after his first year and was a member of Iowa's 1990 Big Ten championship team. A starter as a junior in 1991, he was a team co-captain as a senior. Bielema signed a free agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks and later completed his playing career with the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League.

A 1992 graduate of Iowa with a degree in marketing, Bielema married the former Jen Hielsberg on March 10, 2012.

THE FIVE EDGES

Coach Bielema and his coaching staff devised the "Five Edges" during the offseason. The Five Edges are points of emphasis for the Razorback football team to gain an edge on their opponents. The Five Edges are listed on the back of every meeting room door in the Fred W. Smith Football Center so players are constantly reminded of what they need to do to be successful on the field.

- 1) Mental & Physical Toughness
- 2) Play Fast & Through The Whistle
- 3) Play Clean (No Penalties/Ball Security/Football IQ)
- 4) Win Critical Areas (3rd & 4th Down/Redzone & Goal Line/Kick Game)
- 5) We Earn Everything

DAN ENOS

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS - 1ST SEASON

Dan Enos was named Arkansas' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on Jan. 22, 2015, after spending the previous five seasons as head coach at Central Michigan. He comes to The Hill with more than 20 years of experience coaching skill position players and over 10 years of play-calling experience, including all five years at Central Michigan.

Enos has tutored and developed many NFL stars, including offensive tackle Eric Fisher, who became the first Mid-American Conference player to be selected No. 1 overall in the NFL Draft in 2013 by the Kansas City Chiefs. Enos also coached standout quarterback Drew Stanton and running back Javon Ringer at Michigan State. He was named one of Rivals.com's Top 25 recruiters in the nation in 2009.

Hired as Central Michigan's head coach in 2010, Enos led the Chippewas to bowl eligibility in each of the past three seasons. CMU passed for over 3,000 yards in four of his five seasons as head coach.

Ryan Radcliff was Enos' first starting quarterback at Central Michigan. Under Enos' tutelage, Radcliff became one of the best quarterbacks in CMU history as he passed for 9,917 yards and 63 touchdowns during his career. The signal-caller ranks second in school history in every major passing category.

Enos also helped develop wide receiver Titus Davis, who finished his career as one of the best wide outs in school history. He became the first player in FBS history to catch at least eight touchdown passes in each of his four collegiate seasons - all under Enos. Davis finished his career in 2014 as the school's all-time leader in career receiving yards (3,705), career touchdown receptions (37) and single-season touchdown receptions (13).

The 2014 season saw Central Michigan lead the MAC and rank eighth nationally in time of possession, controlling the clock for an average of 33:24 per game. The Chippewas were also very efficient in the passing game, ranking third in the MAC and 18th nationally with a 149.55 passing efficiency rating. Quarterback Cooper Rush set an FBS bowl record with seven passing touchdowns in the Popeye's Bahamas Bowl. Rush also passed for a school-record 493 yards in the contest.

In each of the past two seasons, Enos helped CMU rank in the top half of the MAC in passing efficiency, third down conversion percentage and time of possession.

The Chippewas had a memorable 2012 campaign under Enos, winning its third bowl game in school history. Senior wide receiver Cody Wilson finished his career with 42 consecutive games with a reception and junior running back Zurlon Tipton rushed for 1,492 yards, the fourth-best single-season mark in school history.

Prior to Central Michigan, Enos spent four seasons in a variety of offensive roles at Michigan State. He served as the Spartans' running backs coach from 2007 to 2009 and coached quarterbacks in 2006.

At Michigan State, Enos was the position coach for three NFL running backs - Ringer, Edwin Baker and Jehuu Caulcrick. Ringer was selected in the fifth round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Tennessee Titans. Baker was a seventh round draft pick by the San Diego Chargers in 2012 and Caulcrick played for the Buffalo Bills in 2010.

Ringer led the nation in carries (390), scoring (132 points) and touchdowns (22) and ranked fourth in rushing (125.9 yards per game) in 2008 and was named a consensus first-team All-American.

In 2006, Enos mentored Stanton, who earned team MVP honors after accounting for 2,252 total yards and 17 touchdowns as a senior. Following the season, Stanton was selected by the Detroit Lions in the second round of the NFL Draft.

Prior to that, Enos spent two years as quarterbacks coach at Cincinnati. In 2004, Enos helped senior Gino Guidugli finish his career as the school's all-time leading passer with 11,453 career yards, including 2,633 passing yards and 26 passing touchdowns as a senior.

Enos also spent time at North Dakota State (offensive coordinator and quarterbacks, 2003), Western Michigan (quarterbacks, 2000-02), Missouri State (offensive coordinator and quarterbacks, 1999), Southern Illinois (quarterbacks and wide receivers, 1997-98), Northern Michigan (offensive coordinator and offensive backs, 1996) and Lakeland College (offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and wide receivers, 1994-95). He served as a graduate assistant on Michigan State's staff from 1991 to 1993.

A standout quarterback at Michigan State from 1987-90, Enos started two seasons and earned a 16-7-1 record (.688) as a starter, leading the Spartans to two bowl victories. He still ranks

No. 13 in school history in passing yards (3,837) and completions (297). His .621 completion percentage still ranks fourth-best in Spartan history.

Enos graduated from Michigan State with a degree in business administration in 1991 and earned his master's in sports administration in 2006. The Dearborn, Mich. native is married to his wife, Jane. The couple has two children, Lia and Alex.

ROBB SMITH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SECONDARY - 2ND SEASON

Robb Smith led the Arkansas defense to the biggest turnaround in the SEC last year and enters his second season as defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

In Smith's first season on The Hill, the Arkansas defense ranked No. 10 in both scoring defense (19.2 points per game) and total defense (323.4 yards per game). It was the first time since Arkansas joined the SEC in 1992 that the Razorbacks had finished in the top 10 in either statistic.

In 2014, the Arkansas posted an improvement of 11.6 points allowed per game, the largest turnaround in the SEC and the seventh-best improvement in the nation. Arkansas became the first unranked team in college football history to post back-to-back shutouts of ranked opponents when the Razorbacks blanked No. 20 LSU and No. 8 Ole Miss.

Under Smith's leadership and vision, Martrell Spaight became one of the best linebackers in the nation in 2014. Despite starting just two games the previous year, Spaight became a consensus first-team All-SEC linebacker and was the first Razorback in school history to lead the SEC with 128 total tackles.

Smith spent the 2013 season as linebackers coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers after 14 years of collegiate coaching experience, which included four seasons at Rutgers University where he was defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 2012.

In 2013 with the Buccaneers, Smith coached second-year linebacker Lavonte David. David was named a first-team All-Pro that season, one of just 12 defensive players in the NFL recognized on the first-team defense, after he started all 16 games and recorded 144 tackles, including 6.0 sacks, five interceptions, 10 passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Since sacks became an official statistic in 1982, David was the first linebacker in NFL history and third player to register at least 100 tackles with at least six sacks and five or more interceptions in a season, joining Rodney Harrison in 2000 and Dave Duerson in 1986.

The 2012 season saw Rutgers claim its first conference title since 1961 and the fifth in school history. The Scarlet Knights finished the year ranked fourth in the nation in points allowed per game (14.2), sixth in rush yards allowed per game (95.2), 10th in total defense (311.6 yards per game) and tied for third in rushing touchdowns allowed (6). Rutgers allowed just 91 points against seven Big East opponents, ranking as the eight-lowest total in conference history. The defense held opponents to 95.2 rushing yards per game, only the third time in school history the Scarlet Knights kept the opponent average below 100 yards.

While at Rutgers, Smith coached linebacker Khaseem Greene who became an All-American and was selected in the fourth round of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears. As a junior in 2011, Greene switched from safety to weak side linebacker. He led the Big East Conference with 141 tackles, 3.5 sacks and two forced fumbles. As a senior in 2012, Greene recorded 136 tackles, including 12 for loss with six sacks, six forced fumbles, two interceptions and three fumble recoveries with two returned for touchdowns. He was named the Big East Defensive Player of the Year and was named a first-team All-American by ESPN. Greene's 15 career forced fumbles stand as the NCAA record.

Prior to 2012, Smith served in various capacities on the Rutgers staff including special teams coordinator and linebackers coach in 2011, special teams coordinator and cornerbacks coach in 2010 and special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach in 2009.

Under Smith's guidance, Rutgers became one of the best special teams units in college football. The Scarlet Knights ranked in the top 10 in blocked punts each of his three years coordinating the unit. Rutgers led the country in 2010 with nine blocked punts, tied for second in 2011 with nine and ranked eighth in 2009 with five. While Smith was at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights led the nation with 31 blocked kicks. They were also one of the best in the nation in punt and kick returns for touchdowns, tying for fifth with five punt return touchdowns and tying for ninth with four kickoff return touchdowns. Their nine combined special teams touchdowns tied for the fifth-highest total in the NCAA during that time.

Before going to Rutgers, Smith worked at the University of Maine as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator (2006-08), special teams and linebackers coach (2005) and defensive backs coach (2002-04). Under Smith, Maine boasted one of the top defenses in the FCS, highlighted by the 2006 team that ranked first in rush defense, second in total defense, third in sacks and fourth in scoring defense.

A 1997 graduate of Allegheny (Pa.) College with a bachelor's degree in economics, Smith was a three-year letterwinner at strong safety. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with Iowa from 1999-2001 and earned his master's degree in communications studies from Iowa in 2002.

Smith and his wife, Amy, have two children: Charlie and Jack.

SAM PITTMAN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH / RECRUITING COORDINATOR / OFFENSIVE LINE - 3RD SEASON

Sam Pittman, who is universally considered one of the nation's best offensive line coaches and recruiters, is in his third season as associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and offensive line coach.

Since 2013, eight offensive linemen coached by Pittman have been drafted, including two first-round picks. In 2014, Ja'Wuan James was selected 19th overall by the Miami Dolphins and Travis Swanson became the highest Razorback center draft pick in school history when he was picked 76th overall by the Detroit Lions. In 2013, Jonathan Cooper, who was tutored by Pittman for four seasons at North Carolina, was the seventh overall pick to the Arizona Cardinals, the earliest an offensive guard had been taken since 1986.

In each of the past three seasons, a Pittman-coached offensive line has led the SEC in fewest sacks allowed. The 2014 Razorbacks allowed just 1.08 sacks per game while Arkansas allowed 0.67 sacks per game in 2013. In 2012, Pittman coached the Tennessee offensive line that led the SEC with just 0.67 sacks allowed per game.

Pittman has vastly improved the Razorback offensive line since arriving on The Hill in 2013. In both seasons under Pittman, Arkansas has led the SEC in fewest sacks allowed. The Razorbacks allowed just 1.08 sacks per game in 2014, good for 11th nationally. In 2013, Arkansas set a single-season record by allowing just 8.0 sacks. The average of 0.67 sacks allowed per game ranked third in the FBS.

The 2014 campaign saw four Razorback underclassmen earn All-SEC honors. Guard Sebastian Tretola was named to the ESPN.com All-SEC team, tackle Dan Skipper and guard Denver Kirkland each earned All-SEC honorable mention recognition from the Associated Press and freshman center Frank Ragnow was named to the coaches' SEC All-Freshman team. Ragnow was also selected as one of the best true freshman in the nation when he was named to the Sporting News All-True Freshman team.

Last year, the Razorback offensive line helped pave the way for a pair of 1,000-yard rushers, the only team in the nation to have two players break the century plateau. The starting unit weighed in at an average of 328.4 pounds per player, the largest offensive line in all of FBS and bigger than every starting line in the NFL. The group also protected quarterback Brandon Allen, allowing him to throw for 20 touchdowns and just five interceptions - the lowest interception total by a Razorback quarterback since 1992.

In his first season at Arkansas, Pittman tutored a first-team All-American and Rimington Trophy finalist as well as two Freshman All-Americans. Center Swanson led the offensive line and was flanked by true freshmen at both guard positions for the final eight games of the season. Arkansas led the conference and was sixth in the nation allowing one sack every 37.63 pass attempts. The Razorback offensive line kept opponents out of the backfield all season, and finished first in the SEC and fourth in the NCAA with an average of 3.75 tackles for loss allowed per game.

On the ground, the offensive line paved the way for seven 200-yard rushing games and a team average of 5.28 yards per carry, which was the fourth-highest single-season rushing average in school history. True freshman running back Alex Collins became the first freshman in SEC history to rush for at least 100 yards in three straight games to start a career and finished the season as the conference's 10th 1,000-yard freshman rusher.

Pittman oversaw the offensive line in 2013 at Tennessee, when the Volunteers led the SEC and ranked fourth in the NCAA in fewest sacks allowed per game, following five seasons coaching the offensive line at North Carolina.

In 2012, Tennessee quarterback Tyler Bray passed for 3,619 yards and 34 touchdowns. At the time, his touchdowns were the seventh-most in a season in SEC history, and his passing yards ranked 11th in conference history. Bray also broke the Tennessee single-game record with 530 passing yards, a record previously held by Peyton Manning and the second-highest single-game total in SEC history.

The 2011 North Carolina team, with Pittman having been promoted to associate head coach, averaged 6.3 yards per play in the regular season, the second-best mark in the ACC. The UNC offensive line helped running back Giovani Bernard to 101.8 yards per game, a mark that led all NCAA freshmen and included seven 100-yard rushing games. Bernard's 14 rushing touchdowns ranked second nationally among freshmen.

Pittman joined the Tar Heels after four seasons as the offensive line coach at Northern Illinois from 2003-06, including three seasons as assistant head coach from 2004-06. During that time frame, the Huskies produced a pair of standout rushers in Garrett Wolfe and Michael Turner.

Wolfe led the nation in rushing with 1,928 yards in 2006, while Turner, who earned two Pro Bowl selections with the Atlanta Falcons, led the NFC in rushing in 2010 and 2011 and finished second in the nation as a senior at Northern Illinois in 2003 with 1,648 yards.

Prior to Northern Illinois, Pittman was an assistant coach at Kansas (2001), Missouri (2000), Western Michigan (1999), Oklahoma (1997-98), Cincinnati (1996) and Northern Illinois (1994-95). He was the head coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) CC in 1992-93 and was the school's offensive line coach in 1991. Pittman was also a high school head coach at Trenton (Mo.) HS (1989-90) and Princeton (Mo.) HS (1987-88). He began his coaching career as a student assistant at Pittsburg State in 1984-85.

Pittman played defensive end at Pittsburg State, where he was a first-team NAIA All-American and twice earned all-conference recognition. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in 1986 and was inducted into the PSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998. He is married to his wife, Jamie.

JEMAL SINGLETON

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR / RUNNING BACKS - 1ST SEASON

Jemal Singleton joined the Arkansas staff as special teams coordinator and running backs coach on Feb. 25, 2015. He comes to The Hill with more than 10 years of FBS experience as both a player and coach at the running back position. Singleton spent the past four seasons as the running backs coach at Oklahoma State following a long tenure at the United States Air Force Academy.

One of Singleton's points of emphasis is ball security and the Cowboys did not disappoint in that facet in 2014. Oklahoma State's running backs did not commit a single turnover during the season, combining for 509 touches with only one fumble, a ball that was recovered by the Cowboys.

In 2013, Oklahoma State rushed for 35 touchdowns in the regular season, ranking second in the Big 12 and 15th nationally. The mark was also the sixth-best in a single season in school history. Desmond Roland rushed for 13 touchdowns, leading all Big 12 running backs and ranking 31st nationally despite not starting until the seventh game of the season.

Singleton served as the position coach for Joseph Randle, one of the most heralded running backs in Oklahoma State history. In 2012, Randle was a unanimous first-team All-Big 12 selection after leading the Big 12 with 1,417 rushing yards. He went on to be selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the fifth round of the 2013 NFL Draft.

In his first season at Oklahoma State, Singleton helped the Cowboys to one of the best seasons in program history, winning the Big 12, finishing 12-1 and ranked No. 3 in the final Associated Press poll. Randle rushed for 24 touchdowns, the fourth-most in FBS that season and earned first-team All-Big 12 honors by the AP. The Cowboys' running backs totaled 100 games of 100 yards or more.

Singleton joined the Oklahoma State staff after 11 years at Air Force where he was the running backs coach during the final five years of his tenure there. He also served as the run game coordinator from 2007-10. The Falcons led the Mountain West in rushing and ranked in the top 10 nationally each season.

In 2010, Air Force ranked second in the nation with 306.5 rushing yards per game. The team totaled 3,985 rushing yards, which was the second-best total in MWC history at the time. The Falcons also rushed for 41 touchdowns, tying the MWC record.

The 2009 Falcons were very effective on the ground, due in large part to Singleton's running backs. That season saw Air Force average 283.5 rushing yards per game, the third-best mark in the nation.

Singleton tutored Chad Hall in 2007, who was named MWC Offensive Player of the Year and earned third-team All-America honors. Hall rushed for 1,478 yards and totaled 2,683 all-purpose yards, helping Air Force win nine games. Hall played three seasons in the NFL for the Philadelphia Eagles and the Kansas City Chiefs.

During his first campaign at the Academy in 2006, the Falcons averaged nearly one less fumble per game than the previous season.

Singleton began his coaching and Air Force career as an instructor and assistant head coach/offensive coordinator at the USAFA Prep School in 2000. He was then stationed at Little Rock AFB in Jacksonville, Ark., from January 2001 to January 2003 where he served as a public affairs officer. He returned to the Academy in the spring of 2003 and served as the executive officer for the athletic director before becoming the junior varsity defensive coordinator and varsity assistant coach.

As a player, Singleton starred at Air Force where he earned three letters at halfback and was named All-Western Athletic Conference honorable mention as a senior. The San Antonio, Texas native helped the school win 10 games in back-to-back seasons for the first time in school history, including its first outright conference title. He is one of just six players in Air Force history to ever be elected a two-time captain.

Singleton graduated from the Air Force Academy in 1999 with a degree in social sciences. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two daughters, Morgan and Mallory.

BARRY LUNNEY

TIGHT ENDS - 3RD SEASON

Barry Lunney Jr., a former UA starting quarterback, is entering his third season as tight ends coach at his alma mater.

As Arkansas begins to rely more heavily on the tight end position, Lunney has continued to develop the position group. A fellow Arkansas native, Hunter Henry, earned second-team All-SEC honors in 2014 after finishing third among conference tight ends in both receptions (37) and receiving yards (513) and improved as a blocker. Lunney also oversaw the transition of AJ Derby from quarterback to tight end. Derby finished fifth in the SEC with 303 receiving yards and was invited to the Reese's Senior Bowl and NFL Scouting Combine despite playing the position for less than a year.

Lunney also serves as the team's primary recruiter in the state of Arkansas. The Razorbacks signed 10 players from the Natural State in the 2015 recruiting class, the most in-state signees since 2008. Arkansas' haul also features the nation's best class of tight ends.

In his first season coaching the Razorback tight ends, Lunney led Henry to second-team All-SEC, Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman Team recognition. Henry made 28 receptions for 409 yards and a team-high-tying four touchdowns, including two at No. 15 LSU in the season finale. Henry's receiving yards ranked third in the nation among freshman tight ends, and he was the only freshman tight end in the SEC with a 100-yard receiving game, a number he hit with 109 yards vs. No. 10 Texas A&M. Henry also led SEC tight ends and ranked third in the conference by gaining a first down on 78.6 percent of his receptions.

Before returning to the Razorbacks, Lunney served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Bentonville High School from 2005-13.

In his eight years at Bentonville, the Tigers won 78 games, including 25 straight in 2010-11, played in four state championship games, claiming state titles in 2008 and 2010, and won six straight 7A West Conference crowns from 2007-12. Bentonville played in each of the last three 7A state championship games and won at least 12 games in four of the last five seasons.

Bentonville quarterback Dallas Hardison broke the Arkansas state single-season completion percentage record in 2010 and bettered the record in 2011 under the direct guidance of Lunney. In 2011 and 2012, the Tigers won their first 12 games to advance to the state championship game with an offense that averaged 42.5 and 36.8 points per game, respectively.

The 2010 Bentonville team finished the season 13-0 and won the 7A state championship. The offense averaged 47.0 points per game and scored at least 40 points nine times, including 49 points in the semifinal round and the state championship game.

Lunney's first state title at Bentonville came in 2008 as the Tigers won 12 games for the first time since 2001. The offense averaged 30.2 points per game and scored more than 30 points in seven of 13 games.

Before moving to the high school coaching ranks, Lunney compiled seven years of collegiate coaching experience.

Lunney spent two seasons as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at San Jose State. During his tenure, the offense produced six all-conference performers, and tight end Courtney Anderson was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the 2004 NFL Draft. In 2003, the Spartans ranked 17th in the NCAA in passing offense and quarterback Scott Rislov ranked third in the WAC in passing efficiency and total offense.

Prior to that, Lunney spent three seasons at Tulsa, first working with quarterbacks in 2000 and 2001 and then moving to wide receivers in 2002. In 2000, quarterback Josh Blankenship ranked fifth in the WAC in total offense and receiver Don Shoals led the conference and ranked 11th in the NCAA in receptions per game.

His coaching career began with two seasons as a graduate assistant at Arkansas. In 1998, Arkansas won its first eight games and rose to No. 9 in the national rankings on the way to sharing the SEC Western Division title and earning a berth in the Citrus Bowl. Lunney served as the Razorbacks' running backs coach for the bowl game and throughout the spring of 1999. Arkansas spent the majority of the 1999 season in the top 25 of the national rankings and finished the year with a 27-6 win over No. 14 Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

As a player for the Razorbacks, Lunney lettered from 1992-95, starting 40 games at quarterback, and was a team captain on the 1995 team that played in the SEC Championship Game for the first time in school history. In his first game as the starting quarterback, he led Arkansas to an upset win at No. 4 Tennessee. He left Arkansas holding UA career records for passing yards, passing touchdowns, pass completions, pass attempts and total offense plays. Lunney also played baseball at Arkansas. He was drafted by the Montreal Expos out of high school in 1992 and by the Minnesota Twins in 1996 and played one season of minor league baseball in the Twins organization.

Lunney graduated from Arkansas in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology. He and his wife, Janelle, have two sons, Luke and Levi. His grandfather, John lettered at Arkansas from 1946-49. His father, Barry Sr., recently retired after 28 years as a high school football coach in Arkansas, winning eight state championships at Bentonville HS and Fort Smith Southside HS.

VERNON HARGREAVES

LINEBACKERS - 1ST SEASON

Vernon Hargreaves arrives for his first season on The Hill after being named linebackers coach on Jan. 20, 2015. He joins the Arkansas staff with 30 years of collegiate coaching experience, including the past 17 years at the FBS level.

In those 17 seasons, Hargreaves' teams have advanced to 14 bowl games, including two appearances in the BCS National Championship while at Miami. As the Hurricanes' linebackers coach, he helped Miami win the 2002 BCS National Championship season and was the position coach for NFL stars Jonathan Vilma, Dan Morgan and D.J. Williams.

Hargreaves spent the past two seasons at Houston where he coached linebackers. In 2014, he helped the Cougars finish 8-5, including a thrilling come-from-behind victory over Pittsburgh in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl. The Cougars ranked second in The American and 11th nationally with 30 forced turnovers and 15th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 20.6 points per game.

In 2013, Hargreaves helped Houston rank as the third-most improved defense nationally after allowing just 21.8 points per game, 14.2 points per game lower than the previous season. Houston led the nation with 43 turnovers created and also led the country in turnover margin. Prior to Houston, Hargreaves served as the special teams coordinator and defensive ends coach at South Florida. The Bulls finished second nationally in tackles for loss and fourth nationally in sacks during the 2011 season, in large part due to the outstanding play of Hargreaves' defensive ends. He helped South Florida claim its fourth bowl victory in school history with a win in the 2010 Meineke Car Care Bowl over Clemson.

In his first season at USF in 2011, Hargreaves guided a unit that helped the defense rank 17th in total defense, 22nd in scoring defense and 22nd in rushing defense. The Bulls led the league in tackles for loss and ranked fourth in the BIG EAST in sacks.

Hargreaves also spent three seasons as the special teams coordinator and defensive ends coach at East Carolina from 2007 to 2009. He helped defensive end C.J. Wilson earn back-to-back Conference USA defensive player of the year awards in 2008 and 2009. Wilson was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 2010 NFL Draft and started at defensive end for the Packers in Super Bowl XLV. The Pirates played in a bowl game in all three seasons Hargreaves was on the coaching staff.

From 1998 to 2005, Hargreaves was the linebackers coach at Miami, where he helped lead the Hurricanes to a BCS National Championship title in 2002 and another BCS National Championship Game appearance in 2003. At Miami, Hargreaves helped mold Vilma, Morgan, Williams, Rocky McIntosh and Nate Webster into NFL linebackers. Seven of his linebackers at Miami were selected in the NFL Draft, including Morgan who won the Butkus Award, Nagurski Trophy and the Bednarik Award in 2000.

In 2003, Hargreaves tutored Vilma and Williams, who finished as two of the 11 semifinalists for the Butkus Award. Vilma finished the season as a first-team All-American and finalist for the Butkus Award.

The 2001 Hurricanes was one of the best defensive units in the history of college football, allowing just 9.4 points per game and only 138.2 passing yards per contest. Hargreaves helped Miami to a perfect 12-0 season, culminating in the 2002 BCS National Championship game win over Nebraska.

During the 2000 campaign, Hargreaves helped Morgan make the switch from outside linebacker to middle linebacker. The position change was wildly successful, as Morgan became the first player to ever sweep the Butkus, Nagurski and Bednarik Awards in the same season and was a consensus All-American selection.

His first coaching position was at his alma mater, Connecticut, where he spent 13 seasons coaching inside linebackers (1985-89) and outside linebackers (1989-97). There he mentored Paul Duckworth, who became the 15th Huskie to ever be selected in the NFL Draft.

Hargreaves finished his playing career at Connecticut in 1983 where he was a two-time All-American. He earned all-conference honors twice during his career and was selected a team captain as a senior. His 393 career tackles still ranks sixth all-time in school history. Hargreaves was named a member of UCONN's 100th anniversary team.

The New Haven, Conn., native earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Connecticut in 1986. He and his wife, Jackie, have three children; Carina, Vernon III and Chanelle.

CLAY JENNINGS

DEFENSIVE BACKS - 2ND SEASON

Clay Jennings has quickly transformed the Arkansas secondary into one of the best units in the SEC in just one season with the Razorbacks. He enters his second season on The Hill after spending six years in the same capacity at TCU.

In his first season at Arkansas, Jennings helped the Razorbacks finish in the top 10 in both scoring and total defense as the team allowed just 19.2 points per game. Arkansas finished in the top 40 in passing yards allowed for the first time since 2011, surrendering just 208.8 passing yards per game.

The Razorback secondary held Heisman Trophy finalist Amari Cooper to just two receptions for 22 yards when Arkansas hosted No. 7 Alabama. It was Cooper's lowest output of the season and well below his average production of 8.9 receptions for 123.4 yards per game. Sophomore Jared Collins made big strides under Jennings' tutelage, tying for the SEC lead in pass pickups (13) after starting just two games as a freshman.

Jennings joined the TCU football staff as cornerbacks coach in 2008. In his first three seasons with the Horned Frogs, TCU led the nation in total defense. From 2008-10, TCU became just the third program in NCAA history to lead the nation in total defense in three consecutive seasons.

While at TCU, Jennings coached 2014 first round NFL Draft pick Jason Verrett, who was taken 25th overall by the San Diego Chargers. Verrett was a two-time All-American in addition to being the Co-Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the conference's head coaches in 2013 and the San Antonio Express-News Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in 2012. He was also tabbed by CollegeFootballNews.com as the nation's top cornerback. He topped the Big 12 in interceptions (six) and passes defended (22) while being the only player nationally to rank in the top 10 in both categories. Verrett and Greg McCoy, a 2012 draft pick of the Chicago Bears, earned All-Mountain West honors in 2011. Jason Teague was a 2010 second-team All-MWC selection.

Both Rafael Priest and Nick Sanders were first-team All-MWC picks in 2009. Priest was ranked by Rivals.com as the nation's sixth-best cornerback, while Sanders was tabbed by Sporting News as the MWC's hardest hitter. The duo also received all-conference accolades in 2008.

Jennings, who has coached eight NFL defensive backs, came to the Horned Frogs after serving as the cornerbacks coach at Baylor in 2007.

Jennings worked two seasons (2005-06) as the safeties coach at Houston. He helped the Cougars to back-to-back bowl appearances and the 2006 Conference USA championship. In 2006, Cougars' free safety Will Gulley earned Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year honors while Brandon Brinkley was named to the league's all-freshman squad.

In his first season at Houston, Jennings helped Rocky Schwartz earn Conference USA third-team all-conference honors and Kenneth Fontenette be named an honorable-mention Freshman All-American by Sporting News.

Prior to his two-year stint at Houston, Jennings spent two seasons (2003-04) as the defensive backs coach at Louisiana, where he helped the Ragin' Cajuns to a No. 11 national ranking in pass defense. At Louisiana, Jennings tutored C.C. Brown and Michael Adams, who each had seven-year NFL careers for various teams. Jennings also mentored Antwain Spann, who played three seasons for the New England Patriots.

Jennings also worked two years (2001-02) as secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Sam Houston State. He helped the Bearkats to a share of the 2001 Southland Conference championship and the quarterfinal round of the FCS playoffs. At SHSU, Jennings coached All-American and Buck Buchanan Award finalist Keith Davis, who played five seasons for the Dallas Cowboys.

Jennings also coached the secondary at Southern Arkansas (2000), Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa (1999) and Morehouse College in Atlanta (1998). At SAU, Jennings mentored Jordan Babineaux, a nine-year NFL veteran who played for the Seattle Seahawks and Tennessee Titans. At Morningside, Jennings coached first-team All-American Matt Walker.

A four-year letterwinner (1992-95) as a defensive lineman and special teams standout at North Texas, Jennings was a member of the Mean Green's 1994 Southland Conference championship team and the school's first NCAA FBS squad in 1995. He began his coaching career as a student assistant (1996) and then graduate assistant (1997) at North Texas before moving on to Morehouse.

Jennings is a 1996 North Texas graduate with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology. Jennings and his wife, Belinda, have two children: son Kirby and daughter Kenzie.

RORY SEGREST

DEFENSIVE LINE AND SPECIALISTS - 2ND SEASON

Rory Segrest, who has several years of coaching experience at the college and NFL level, enters his second season as defensive line and specialists coach.

In his first season on The Hill, Segrest helped the Razorbacks rank in the top 10 in both scoring and total defense for the first time since Arkansas joined the SEC in 1992. The Razorback defense became the first unit in college football history to shutout back-to-back ranked opponents as an unranked team when Arkansas blanked LSU and Ole Miss. He was the position coach for Trey Flowers, who finished his career with 47.5 career tackles for loss, second-most in school history. Two of his four starters earned second-team All-SEC honors, including Flowers and Darius Philon. Arkansas finished No. 2 in the SEC and No. 12 nationally with just 114.6 rushing yards allowed per game.

Segrest also coached the Razorback specialists, kickoff and kickoff return units in 2014. Under his direction, Arkansas improved from the No. 67 kickoff return unit in 2013 to No. 5 in the nation and second in the SEC averaging 23.84 yards per kickoff return in 2014. Punter Sam Irwin-Hill finished the campaign as one of the nation's hottest specialists, landing 18 punts inside the 20 in the final five games of the season. Irwin-Hill averaged 3.6 punts inside the 20 per game over the final five contests of the season as Arkansas defeated LSU, Ole Miss and Texas. It was the first time in program history the Razorbacks defeated those three schools in the same season. In the AdvoCare V100 Texas Bowl, nose guard Taiwan Johnson scored his first career touchdown, recovering a fumble in the end zone.

Segrest came to Arkansas after his second stint on the Samford coaching staff, where he was the team's defensive line coach and special teams coordinator from 2011-13. He previously coached at Samford from 2002-05 when he was defensive line coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

Samford finished the 2013 season ranked 18th in the final coaches poll after earning the program's first FCS playoff berth since 1992. Fabian Truss was named to the AFCA FCS Coaches' All-America Team as an all-purpose player as he ranked second nationally in kickoff return average at 32.1 yards per return. The Samford defense also led the SoCon in sacks and tackles for loss.

In 2012, Samford defensive lineman Nick Williams was named first-team all-conference, finished second in the Southern Conference and 36th nationally (FCS) with seven sacks. Williams was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the seventh round of the NFL Draft. Samford's defense tied for first in the SoCon and finished 27th in the FBS in sacks with 27. Additionally, Samford ranked 29th in the FCS in total defense.

Segrest's special teams units also had success in the 2012 season finishing sixth in kickoff returns with a 24.91 yards per return average and first in the SoCon in kickoff coverage. Punt returner Riley Hawkins finished first in the SoCon and 14th in the FCS in punt return average, and Truss finished 13th in the FCS in kick return average. Kicker Cameron Yam was named first-team All American as well as first team all-conference.

In 2011, Samford's special teams improved in every category over the previous season. The kickoff return unit was ranked 12th in the FCS, and Truss ranked seventh in the FCS and the punt return unit was ranked 19th in the FCS. Redshirt freshman punter Peranich ranked 24th in the FCS and was named to the SoCon All-Freshman Team. Kicker Cameron Yaw ranked second in the FCS in field goals, connecting on 23-of-28, and was tied for eighth in total scoring.

Segrest returned to Samford after coaching with the Philadelphia Eagles from 2006-10. While with the Eagles, Segrest was the special teams quality control/assistant defensive line coach (2006-07), special teams coordinator (2007-09) and defensive line coach (2009-10). In 2006 and 2010, the Eagles won the NFC East and made it to the NFC Championship game in 2008. Segrest also coached in the 2009 Pro Bowl.

In 2009 and 2010, the Eagles' defensive line units ranked second and fourth, respectively, in the NFL in sacks by defensive linemen. They ranked third (2010) and ninth (2009) in the league for tackles for a loss by defensive linemen and in 2010 was ranked second in the NFL in quarterback knockdowns and hurries by defensive linemen. Segrest also coached two-time Pro Bowler Trent Cole (2007, 2009) while with the Eagles.

Philadelphia's special teams finished third in the NFL in 2008 in field goals made and Pro Bowl kicker David Akers broke franchise records with 33 field goals and 144 points scored. Akers set his career high that year with 17 touchbacks. Punter Sav Rocca set a franchise record with his single-season net punt average of 37.9. Rocca and Akers were both named NFL's Special Teams Player of the month.

Segrest's previous coaching stops include Southeast Missouri State where he began in 1999 and added recruiting coordinator duties for 2000-01. He was also the defensive graduate assistant at Auburn University from 1997-99 working with the defensive line and special teams units.

His coaching career began under Gene Stallings as a student assistant at Alabama in 1994 after his playing career was cut short by an injury. He was a member of the Crimson Tide's 1992 National Championship Team and was also awarded the team's 1995 Co-Leadership Award. Collegiately, Segrest has been part of seven bowl games as either a player or coach.

A native of Waycross, Ga., and a graduate of Waycross High School, he earned his bachelor's degree in health-care management from Alabama in 1996 where he met his wife, Jackie. They have one son, James.

MICHAEL SMITH

WIDE RECEIVERS - 3RD SEASON

Michael Smith, a record-setting receiver at Kansas State who went on to earn a reputation as one of the best recruiters in college football, enters his third season as Arkansas' wide receivers coach.

Smith, who was named one of the top 10 recruiters in the Big 12 Conference in 2012 by Rivals, spent the first 11 years of his coaching career at Kansas State. He also coached running backs at Rice in 2006 before moving to Arizona, where he coached running backs in 2007 and inside receivers in 2008. He returned to Kansas State in 2009 as the Wildcats' wide receivers coach before joining the Arkansas staff in 2013.

In his second season on The Hill, the wide receivers unit made big improvements. Keon Hatcher had a breakout season, leading the team with 43 receptions for 558 yards (13.0 avg.) and six touchdowns. The position group caught 106 passes on the season, 29 more than the previous season.

When Smith arrived at Arkansas in 2013, he took over a group that had seen four wide receivers selected in the last two NFL Drafts. Javontee Herndon enjoyed a breakout senior season, leading the team with 31 receptions and 437 yards and tying for the team lead with four receiving touchdowns.

At Kansas State, Smith helped the Wildcats capture their second Big 12 title and play in the Fiesta Bowl in 2012, as the Wildcats posted an 11-2 record and finished the year ranked No. 12 in the AP poll. Chris Harper led the Wildcats with 58 receptions for 857 yards and three touchdowns and earned second-team All-Big 12 honors. In 2011, true freshman Tyler Lockett earned All-America honors as a kick returner and made an immediate impact at the wide receiver position. He set the Big 12 and Kansas State single-season record for kickoff-return average at 35.2 yards per return.

In 2009, Smith coached All-American Brandon Banks, who set school and Big 12 records in kickoff returns as well as leading the squad in receptions. Banks led the Big 12 and was eighth nationally with his average of 174.8 all-purpose yards per game and ranks fourth in school history with 3,828 career all-purpose yards. At wide receiver, Banks also led the team in receptions (56) and receiving yards (705) and also ranks ninth in Kansas State history with 123 career receptions and 10th in career receiving yards with 1,754.

Smith helped lead Arizona to a 2008 Las Vegas Bowl win over BYU while he mentored Mike Thomas, who became the Pac-10 career receptions record holder with 259 grabs.

At Rice, Smith helped the Owls to a 7-6 record in 2006, advancing to their first bowl game in 45 seasons. He coached senior Quinton Smith to 1,096 yards in 2006, making him only the sixth Owls' running back to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark.

Smith has coached three of the top 10 career rushing leaders in Kansas State history in Darren Sproles, Eric Hickson and Mike Lawrence. He also directed a running back to the single-season rushing record in three of his last five seasons at Kansas State during his first tenure, including Sproles, a first team All-American. Sproles surpassed the mark during the 2003 season with 1,986 yards, which ranked as the 10th-best rushing total in NCAA history. At the conclusion of the 2003 regular season, Sproles finished fifth in Heisman Trophy voting and was the runner-up for the Doak Walker Award.

A second-team All-Big 12 pick in 2002, Sproles rushed for 1,465 yards and 17 touchdowns. Sproles concluded his four-year career as the Big 12's leader in all-purpose yards with 6,812 and the Wildcats' career rushing leader with 4,979 yards, a record he still holds today. In 2001, Josh Scobey set the single-season rushing record with 1,263 yards and also broke the school's career rushing touchdown record with 31.

After his playing career, Smith returned to Kansas State as a student assistant. As a graduate assistant in 1995 and 1996, Smith assisted Greg Peterson with the receivers and helped tutor wideouts Kevin Lockett and Mitch Running, who became just the fifth receiving tandem in Big Eight history to snag at least 50 passes in the same season.

Throughout his coaching career, Smith has been the position coach for 12 NFL players, including the Pro Bowler Sproles.

During his playing career, Smith was one the Big Eight's all-time great receivers. He concluded his playing career as the Big Eight's second-leading receiver with 179 receptions, trailing just All-American Hart Lee Dykes. The total of 179 catches ranked 40th in NCAA history at the time.

Smith was named third-team All-American in 1991, honorable mention All-American in 1989 and a two-time All-Big Eight selection (1989 and 1991). He played for the Kansas City Chiefs in 1992.

His career total of 2,457 receiving yards was third-best in Big Eight history behind Dykes and 1972 Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers. The total was bolstered by nine 100-yard receiving games, which was a school record at the time. He led the Big Eight as a sophomore in 1989 and was seventh in the nation with 70 catches for 816 yards

Smith graduated from Kansas State in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in social science. He and his wife, Karyn, have four children: Kylie, Kenzie, Kason and Kamryn.
